Alex Sloan returned home on Thursday of last week much pleased with his two-weeks' trip to Pittsburgh and other iron and steel centers in western Pennsylvania. Alex says McConnellsburg is a cleaner place than smoky Pittsburgh.

Mr. H. P. Deshong, of Shaw, W. Va., was a very pleasant caller at this office yesterday. He and his wife had attended the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Mary Hann Deshong at Sideling Hill Christian church Tuesday. Harry is the agent of the W. M. Co. at Shaw, W. Va., and is one of the Company's most trustworthy employees. Away back in the days he was a student in one of the McConnellsburg Normal schools when the editor was principal.

THE GRIM REAPER.

MRS. HARRIET DESHONG.

Mrs. Harriet Deshong, widow of the late Joseph Deshong, of Licking Creek township, died at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lake Garland, near Mercersburg, at 3 o'clock, Monday morning, December 6, 1915, aged 80 years, 9 months, and 25 days. Funeral services were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garland on Tuesday afternoon, the sermon being preached by Rev. Fasick, of the Methodist Episcopal church, Mercersburg. On Wednesday, the remains were taken to Fairview church in Taylor township, this county, and laid to rest beside those of her husband, who died several years ago.

Mrs. Deshong was a sister of Joseph H. Lohr, who died in Everett just two weeks before the death of Mrs. Deshong. The deceased was a woman loved by a large circle of friends, and a consistent member of the M. E. church for many years. She is survived by the following children, namely, Preston, residing in Everett, George A. living near Hustontown, this county; Clara wife of J. Lake Garland, near Mercersburg, and Linna, wife of Elmer Trogler, near Mercersburg.

MRS. ANNIE EVERTS.

Mrs. Annie Everts, aged about 77 years, died suddenly at the home of her son Harvey Seville, near Cito, in Ayr township, Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Everts was apparently in her usual health, when she suddenly sank to the floor and died almost instantly.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, the services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. S. Luring, of the M. E. church, McConnellsburg, and her remains were laid to rest in the Big Spring graveyard.

Mrs. Everts was the oldest daughter of Daniel and Rachel Bishop, and her first marriage was to John Seville. To this union were born the following children, namely, Amos, residing in McConnellsburg; Arthur, in the Big Cove; James, near Mercersburg; Frances, wife of Geo. Buterbaugh; Webster, Howard, and Nettie, wife of John Pine—all residing in Ayr township.

Her second marriage was to Samuel Everts, who has been dead several years.

ARTHUR BARNHART.

Arthur, son of Isaac and Ida Barnhart, of Bethel township, died at their home December 2, 1915, aged 19 years, 5 months, and 14 days. Funeral was held on the following Saturday, services being conducted by Rev. Dr. Webster, of Hancock, and interment made in the Warfordsburg cemetery.

Circumstances connected with this young man's death have stirred citizens of that neighborhood and we briefly relate them as reported to us by reliable authority. One night about October 1st, it is alleged that two full cousins, Harry and Walter Barnhart, called him from his home and beat and stabbed him so badly that it was not thought he could live longer than a few days. He lived about two months, without getting well, and it is supposed that death resulted from loss of blood and harm received at the hands of these two young men.

DAVID KIRK.

David Kirk, aged about sixty-eight years, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jennie E. Downes, in Hustontown, Tuesday afternoon, December 7, 1915. He had not been in good health for a number of years. He suffered from a complication of diseases that terminated in his death. The funeral, which was conducted by Rev. Reidell, was held on the following Thursday at 10 o'clock, interment being made in the Hustontown Cemetery. He was not married, and since the death of his parents some years ago, he lived with his brothers and sisters, spending most of the time in the homes of M. L. Kirk at Hustontown and E. H. Kirk at Hiram. About three months ago, he went to the home of his sister where he died. He was an even-tempered, social gentleman, with many friends and for more than fifty years a consistent member of the M. E. church at Fairview. Mr. Kirk is survived by the following brothers and

Are Very Grateful.

The Directors and Business Manager of the Chambersburg Hospital desire that the FULTON COUNTY NEWS shall express to the good people of McConnellsburg and vicinity, their sincere appreciation of the generous gift of one hundred quarts of canned fruit, such as only Fulton County housekeepers know how to prepare. They want also, to thank Rev. Mr. Yearick, for the interest he took in collecting the fruit and delivering the same in his automobile—all without any cost to the hospital or to any of the donors. It is to be hoped that Fulton County people will be spared the necessity of taking board and lodging in that institution; but if it should happen to be necessary for any one to have a leg sawed off, Surgeons Palmer and Skinner will see to it that it doesn't hurt.

Election Notice.

At the instance of The State Board of Agriculture of Pennsylvania there will be a meeting held at McNaughton's School House, Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for the purpose of electing a county representative to serve on the State Board of Agriculture. The members of the Big Cove Agricultural Society and other similar organizations of Fulton County are asked to participate or send delegates. A Farmers' Institute program will be a feature of the occasion.
