COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a McConnellsburg Household will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove comforting words to hundreds of McConnellsburg readers.

F. M. Taylor, civil engineer, Water Street, McConnellsburg, says: "I suffered from severe pains in my back and loins. I had weak kidneys, the action being irregular. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me great relief. I always take them with me when I go out of town, because if I catch cold, I get a slight attack of the trouble. When this occurs, I can always depend on Doan's Kidney Pills for relief."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Taylor had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SALVIA

Ouch! Hoy it bites! The cold! Last Sunday the temperature dropped from 40 to zero at 6 a. m.

Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brad Mason, was seriously ill with grippe on Monday. He was recovering from a former attack, went out too soon, and had a relapse. Joseph Sipes, one of our aged citizens, also had a severe attack. We hope for their speedy recovery.

Revival services opened last Sunday night in Asbury M. E. church; but since the pastor and family, and many other near by families, are suffering from grippe, announcements were not given out for a longer time than Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Sipes spent last Thursday visiting J. A. Stewart and family.

Mrs. Wm. Schooley and family and Mrs. James Harr, visited Charles W. Schooley and family last Friday.

Rex Sipes and Harry and Norman Schooley have killed five foxes so far this winter.

Ross Mellott, of Sipes Mill, recently drove up in his auto and deboned E. R. Hendershot and L. C. Mann's cattle.

Last week, Chester Hann removed his family to Coles Summit where he has secured employment on the E. B. T. R. R.

Benjamin Deshong is planning to start two sawmills in the near future. One of his saws was badly damaged recently when it struck a large bed screw imbedded in the log.

Those who have recently traveled over this section of the Lincoln Highway will vouch for our statement that it is about ready for a resurface.—The road is a sheet of mud, cut deeply by ruts, and when frozen, is, in some places, dangerous to drive over, especially on west side of Sideling Hill where the sand has turned to mortar. There is no use in talking—talking, to make this road an honorable memorial to the immortal Lincoln. It would seem that nothing short of crushed limestone, bound by asphalt or cement, will stand the wear. The State's big motor-trucks should be able to transport the necessary material in a short time.

Notice.

All persons indebted to the assigned estate of H. L. Gish, Mercersburg, Pa. are requested to make payment on or before Jan. 29, 1916, or I will be at liberty to place the accounts for collection. For your convenience I will be at Postenberger's Office January 5 and 29th from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

BIG COVE TANNERY.

Quite a number of our people in this section have been more or less effected by bad colds and grip, but fortunately the disease don't seem to be in a fatal form. We haven't heard of any one being dangerously ill.

Mrs. Robert Mellott and Mrs. James Bivens are reported on the sick list.

Mrs. Thomas Shaw who has been suffering for some time from a sore foot is having the aid of a physician.

Cecil Humbert son of Geo. W. Humbert met with an accident last Tuesday while hauling wood from a saw-mill near by. His wagon upset causing his team to be thrown, and while he was trying to loosen the horses one of them attempted to get up, striking Cecil on the head, causing an ugly cut.

Mrs. Emily Eyster, who has been suffering from a broken collar bone, is slowly improving.

Quite a number of our people attended the funeral of Charley Pinge last Thursday.

Mrs. Daisy Moser and Mrs. Frank Greas, of McConnellsburg, spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Morgret.

WEST DUBLIN.

George Raker and family visited at Ross King's last Sunday.

Owing to the cold weather and bad colds, there was not a large attendance at the oyster supper at Lyon's last Saturday evening. However, those who attended bought well.

There was a kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Alice Clevenger recently, at which Mrs. Scott (Marjorie) received a goodly number of useful presents.

Jean Price who had spent the past few months with relatives in New York City, is spending the winter in the home of her father, Alton Price.

Rolla Laidig and Wilbert Erb are employed at Minersville.

Albert King who is employed at Kearney, spent last Sunday with his family in this township.

Most of the victims of grippe in this community are better.

TAKE INTEREST IN SKELETON

Remains Found in England, Remarkable for Large Size of Head, Have Aroused Scientists.

Professor Keith of the British Royal College of Surgeons has been investigating the history of a skeleton dating from about 2,000 B. C., which was recently found during excavations by J. Reid Moir at the base of the Red Crag at Thorington Hall, Wherstead, near Ipswich. It is the skeleton of a twelve-year-old boy. His stature must have been much the same as the average height of a modern boy of the same age, but the large size of the head is remarkable. Close to the skeleton was a good vessel for the use of the boy on his arrival in the next world. The vessel is of a type which was only made in the late neolithic and early bronze periods. It is decorated all round with marks picked by thumb nails, a method of decoration which is very ancient.

Professor Keith said: "We are trying to get hold of the people of every period, going as far back as we can. We are trying to follow the English people right back, beginning with the Roman period. We shall then be able to describe the people who lived in any period and the changes that came over them. So far there has been very little change."

COST COUNTRY LARGE SUM

Late Shah of Peralia Had Rare Bauble Set With Precious Stones Worth $500,000.

Among the royal treasures of Persia is a pipe set with diamonds, rubies and emeralds to the value, it is estimated, of no less than $500,000. This pipe was made for the late shah and is said to be even more valuable than his famous sword.

In the matter of swords, it is said that the gaeckwar of Baroda, who on the occasion of the coronation of George V in India added to his fame by snubbing the monarch, possesses the most precious blade in existence. Its hilt and belt are encrusted with diamonds, rubies, sapphires and emeralds, and its value has been put at $1,000,000.

There are many costly swords in the treasure rooms of eastern and European rulers, notably those of the czar of Russia, the sultan of Turkey and the king of Siam, but the sword of the gaeckwar outshines them all. The most valuable sword of Europe is that presented by the Egyptians to Lord Wolseley. The hilt is set with brilliants and the whole sabre is estimated to be worth $10,000.

TRADE IN NEW GUINEA.

There is no country in West Africa which is more accessible and whose government, perhaps, is more benevolently inclined toward British enterprise than is the government of Portuguese Guinea. Such is the opinion expressed by his majesty's consul general at Dakar.

Its area is 25,000 square miles, and, for its size, he states, the colony is probably the richest in west Africa. None of the foreign firms in the colony seem to be able to compete with foreign cotton goods, a considerable quantity of which are annually exported from Manchester. These goods are popular among the natives and are becoming more so.

ALWAYS MOPING.

"My wife is always afraid of not getting her money's worth."
"How now?"
"Look at her moping over that telephone book. She complains that there are hundreds of those numbers which she'll probably never use."

NEARLY AS BAD.

Skids—Is he one of those fellows who are always tickled to death to get something for nothing?
Skittles—Well, not exactly; but he always acts as if he was a philanthropist when he refuses a transfer.—Puck.

Give the Children their Chance

Can't expect the children to stand high in their classes unless they get their lessons done properly. And they can't do night study without proper light.

The best light to study by is that which beams from a Rayo Lamp filled with slow-burning Atlantic Rayolight Oil. It gleams soft, white and mellow—doesn't flicker. It's a wonderful light for studying. Won't strain the children's eyes and so they study the better. And they learn the quicker.

And you'll sew with less effort, and father will enjoy his paper the more if you keep the house generously lighted with Rayo Lamps.

Rayo Lamps are handsome—add to the appearance of any room. They're easily cleaned and last a lifetime. Your dealer can show you a full assortment of Rayo Lamps priced from $1.50 up. But to get the best light from a Rayo Lamp, you should burn

ATLANTIC Rayolight OIL

That's the kerosene that neither smokes nor smells, that burns brightly and yields a great heat, but always at a low cost; use it in every lamp in the house, in your heaters and in your oil stoves.

Atlantic Rayolight Oil is the one kerosene you can ask for by name—that never varies in quality. And so it is especially desirable for domestic purposes—for polishing furniture, for keeping away moths, for removing rust and the many other uses hundreds of housewives tell us they have found for it.

Ask your dealer for ATLANTIC RAYOLIGHT OIL by name, you can buy it at any store that displays the sign:

SOLDIERS LOST TO AUSTRIA

Indignant Females Put Spokes in Plans of Reservists Who Would Fight for Native Land.

Master Cupid shot his arrow into the lines of the homeward-bound Austrians in New York city and John Rzesnik and Romald Ulosinsky will be temporarily deprived of the delight of aiding their country.

Both Rzesnik and Ulosinsky were recently named as defendants in breach of promise suits in which Miss Catherine Kobrynowicz of 643 East Eleventh street, demanded $10,000 damages from Rzesnik, and Miss Veronika Makowska asked $10,000 of Ulosinsky. The young women, hearing their erstwhile admirers were about to sail for Austria to join the army, obtained orders of arrest.

"You shall not go to war until you have married me," Miss Kobrynowicz told Rzesnik after he had been arrested.

"I'd rather go to war and get shot than marry you," retorted Rzesnik.

Miss Makowska was also at the sheriff's office when Ulosinsky was brought in, and Ulosinsky told her if she would let him go to war he would marry her when he returned.

"No, sir," shouted the young woman. "If you won't marry me now, I'll let you go to jail and stay there."

Neither man could furnish the required $500 bail and they were locked up in Ludlow street jail.

SPOILED HIS FLOWERS.

"Confound the luck!" fumed old Mr. Wasserby.

"What's the matter, dear?" asked Mrs. Wasserby.

"When young Tompkins came in here to ask for Grace's hand I threw him out of the window and he fell into my favorite bed of tulips."
