POINTS THE WAY.

The Statement of This Greencastle Resident Will Interest Our Readers.

Our neighboring town, Greencastle, points the way in the words of one of its most respected residents:

J. B. Logan, cigar dealer, E. Baltimore St., Greencastle, Pa., says: "I had pains across the small of my back. My kidneys weren't acting right. I am on my feet all day long and I believe that caused the trouble. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and in a short time after using them, I was relieved. I am pleased to recommend this medicine, as it keeps my kidneys in good shape."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Logan had, Foster-Milburn Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SALUVIA

The grippe epidemic is subsiding in this section. A few escaped, but for what profit if only to get spring fever in January?

Rev. Ahimaz Mellott was taken very poorly last Sunday at the residence of Milton Decker. Was no better, and speechless, on Monday.

At last account, Mrs. Beckie Mort, mentioned last week, is no better and is dangerously ill. Her husband was going to try to take her to the hospital last Saturday. Her mother, Mrs. William Daniels, has been with her for some time.

We were much saddened to hear of the death of Mr. David Brake at his residence at St. Thomas on January 29th. Mr. Brake was for many years an advisory manager of the Chambersburg and Bedford Turn Pike Road Company and generally passed over that road in this county monthly conferring with the supervisors of the road. For twenty years he was also in active charge of the maintenance of eighteen miles of the road from Chambersburg to summit of Tuscarora mountain. Under his advice and management many improvements were made to the road throughout, which really were a preparation and a necessity for the change to the Lincoln Highway. He was highly respected and esteemed by all who came in contact with him.

Rev. Walter V. Stewart, of West Philadelphia, a former Welles Valley boy, was visited one night last week by burglars who took between $100 and $200 worth of household goods and wearing apparel. Like most preachers, he had no ready money on hand for them. But as his congregation is building a $50,000 church, the burglars may have thought he had the money bag.

After two automobiles had been stranded in an effort to deliver a fine young daughter into the care of Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Kline last Sunday, the stork who closely resembled Dr. McClain, finally mounted Shank's mare and finished the journey with the precious bundle.

Rev. E. J. Croft having been called to assist in the burial services of David Garland, near Needmore, on Monday of this week, got Rev. Lewis Wible to preach for him at Asbury M. E. church last Sunday night and close the services which had been continued for fifteen consecutive nights. There were no trail hitters, and no additions to the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Barton, of Akersville, were visiting friends in this section from Friday until Monday, and attended and participated in revival services.

On last Saturday, ye Scribe met a stout, vigorous boy about sixteen years of age who said his name was Guy Underwood. He said he walked all the way from Indianapolis, Ind., going to Hartford, Conn., where he had left Friday, March 10th, Lloyd Ray intending to quit farming, will sell at his residence 1 1/2 mile north of McConnellsburg on what is known as the John Nelson farm, 3 horses, 8 head of cattle, 20 hogs, farm implements, corn, hay, fodder, &c. Sale to begin at 10 o'clock.

Thursday, March 9, Grover, K. Peck, intending to quit farming, will sell at his residence on the Henry farm near Knobsville, 9 head of horses, 30 head of cattle, a lot of hogs and sheep, farm machinery, household goods, etc. Sale will begin at 10 o'clock. Credit one year. J. J. Harris, auctioneer.

Tuesday, March 14, Ralph Glenn, intending to remove from the farm on which he now lives, will sell at public sale at his residence on the Warthin farm, five miles south of McConnellsburg, horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, farm machinery, farm wagon, potatoes, household goods, &c. Sale will begin at 10 o'clock.

Wednesday, March 15, Ahimaz Clevenger, intending to quit farming, will sell at his residence on the Thomas F. Sloan farm 1 1/2 mile south of McConnellsburg, 8 head of horses, 21 head of cattle, lot of hogs, farm machinery, and some household goods. Sale will begin at 10 o'clock.

Thursday, March 16, Conrad Glazier will sell at his upper farm known as the Newt Hoke farm one-half mile south of McConnellsburg, 8 head of fine horses, 30 head of cattle, farming machinery, corn and many other things. Sale will begin at 10 o'clock. Credit twelve months.

father and mother, five brothers and two sisters, had gone West to get a job, but not finding it, and having no money, was on his way back home. He had begged his grub and lodging all the way, and on the thirteenth day of his trip he passed Green Hill 1259 miles (his estimate) from starting point. Boys, do you want to take such a walk? Will you be content to stay at the old home help your pa and ma, help lime and fertilize and farm the old place and improve the old home nest? Or will you walk, walk?

PLUM RUN.

The recent warm weather brought spring birds of almost all kinds, and a few more warm days would have opened peach blossoms.

Farmers marketing wheat at $1.25 per bushel.

Mrs. J. C. Comer, Mrs. Clara Gordon, and Clarence Vance are victims of the grippe.

Ira Douglas and wife spent last Saturday night with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Clouser, near Big Cove Tannery.

Miss Pearl Fisher, teacher of West View school who went through a siege of scarlet fever, is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Miller spent last Saturday with friends at Pleasant Ridge.

Was It a Panther?

A note from Scott Sipes says that Baltzer Sipes, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Sipes who live at the tollgate on east side of Cove mountain on the Mercersburg pike, took three good hounds out to hunt foxes last Monday. After wandering about for a short time in the neighborhood of where the Hunter road intersects the pike, the hounds let out several doleful howls and turned tail for home. Very much surprised at their actions, Baltzer followed only soon to find that he was being followed by some wild animal that gave vent to frightful screams which sounded very much like a woman in distress. Baltzer and the dogs "beat it" home, and he now feels sure that the "varmint" was a panther.

END.

Sickness in the form of grippe or bad colds, has entered nearly every home in this part of the Valley, the most serious being Mrs. Susan Alexander one of our oldest residents, who is very low with pneumonia.

Reed and Marian Edwards spent the week end with their parents.

W. R. Keith and son, of Altoona, made a business trip to the Valley last week.

Mrs. Edgar Warsing has joined her husband in Altoona where they have taken up light housekeeping.

Bessie Foster, of Defiance, spent Sunday with her aunt Mrs. Chas. Schenck.

James Pincers, of Trough Creek, was in this valley on business last week.

B. R. Alexander was called home from Canada by the serious illness of his stepmother.

MAKES SMALLEST OF DOLLS

Mexican Maiden Has Become Famous for the Dainty Quality of Her Handiwork.

This is the story of Isabel Belan-saran, maker of the smallest dolls in the world, who is the quaintest figure in Mexico's quaintest town, Cuernavaca, as told by Russell Hastings Millward in a communication to the National Geographic society at Washington, D. C.

"This little girl is called 'Queen of the Needle,'" writes Millward. "The natives of the village will tell you that no cleverer Mexican Indian maiden has ever been known. The diminutive dolls she makes, both in point of construction and design, are the most remarkable in the world.

"The operation of making consists in forming a tiny framework of wire barely three-fourths of an inch in length and winding it with silk thread. The clothing is cut according to the character of the doll and fitted carefully about the small figure. With a needle that can scarcely be held in the fingers and the finest of silk threads various designs are actually embroidered on the clothing, and so cleverly is the work executed that even through a powerful magnifying glass the details of the design appear to be perfect.

"What is undoubtedly an example of the tiniest and most marvelous hair dressing known is then performed on each doll. Even to the details of the braids and ribbons the work is completely carried out. The eyes, nose, mouth, hands and feet are then formed and the doll is ready to be sold."

KING HER CHAUFFEUR.

The king of the Belgians, one of the most democratic of European monarchs, tells the following story:

At Territet the king and queen were motoring. His majesty was driving and there were no attendants. The queen went into a shop to make some purchases.

The king was standing by the car reading a newspaper when an American woman came out of the shop, jumped into the car, which she mistook for a public conveyance, and bade the monarch to drive her quickly to her hotel. "Certainly, madam," said the king, and deposited the woman at the hotel.

Accounts vary as to whether the king accepted or did not accept any fare.

In the meantime the queen had come out of the store and was surprised to find that her husband and the car was absent. However, they speedily returned and their majesties laughed over the story together.

PARADOXICAL SITUATION.

Somebody told me that the barbers are preparing to take advantage of the situation—that even shaves are going up.

"Why, I thought barbers always charged cut prices."

Sewing can be either — Work or Play

It all depends on the light. Sewing by the glimmer of the ordinary flickering, smoking, smelly lamp is work, difficult work. Hard on the eyes, oftentimes the real cause of throbbing, nervous headaches.

But it's a real pleasure to pick out the finest stitches by the radiant, soft, white light of a Rayo Lamp burning.

ATLANTIC Rayolight OIL

A Rayo Lamp makes a heap of difference—the difference between work and play. And it's beautiful—actually improves the appearance of a room. Your dealer can show you special designs, specially made for your very parlor, sitting room or kitchen, and inexpensive, too—from $1.50 up. Cleans easily and lasts for all time.

Gives the best light when filled with Atlantic Rayolight Oil—the kerosene that burns without smoke or smell, that does not char wicks, but that does yield a marvelous white, soft light and unusually intense and economical heat.

And thousands and thousands of knowing housewives say money can't buy anything as good as Atlantic Rayolight Oil for whitening clothes (one-half cup to the boiler), and for cleaning stoves, hair brushes and combs, for dusting, brightening faded carpets, polishing furniture, etc.

Buy it by name—Atlantic Rayolight Oil—from any dealer who displays this sign:

Costs no more than the unknown, unreliable kind.

Educational Meetings.

LICKING CREEK.

The sixth local institute of Licking Creek township was held at Saluvia last Friday evening. Questions: 1. What cases, if any, in arithmetic should be omitted? 2. Should all subjects of a grade be taught to all children of that grade? 3. Algebra; how taught? Teachers present were: Charles W. Mellott, N. E. M. Hoover, E. C. Hann, Wilmer Sipes, Daisy Strait and Thelma Metzler; and, Ethel Sipes from Taylor. Next institute to be held at Compulsion in three weeks.—Thelma Metzler, Secretary.

TAYLOR.

The eighth local institute of Taylor township was held at Gracey January 28, 1916. Teachers present were: Ray Hess, from Huntington county; Jessie Cutchall, from Wells Valley; Ruth Lyon, Alice Cutchall, Lillian Laidig, and W. H. Ranck, from Taylor. Also, Mr. J. E. Lyon, director. Topics discussed: 1. School Government. 2. Algebra. 3. Value of Education. The schoolroom was tastefully decorated, and an interesting program intended to inspire patriotism was rendered. Owing to bad colds and grippe, a number of the teachers did not venture to last few meetings.—Lillian Laidig, Acting Sec.

WELLS.

The fourth educational meeting of Wells township was held January 21st at Wells Tannery. The room was tastefully decorated and an extensive program rendered. The following questions were discussed:—1. Home Study and amount required. 2. Value of English. Teachers present were: J. M. Barley, Jessie Cutchall, Cathrin Dilling, and Pearl Shenefelt. Ex-teachers were Eleanor Sipe, and Renie Gillard.—Pearl Shenefelt, Sec.

Keep Hands Off.

It will not be long until hens will be set for early spring chickens. Many have wondered why these peeps live for a week or ten days and then many of them droop and die. It has been told by those whose business it is to discover things, that in nine cases out of ten, the chicks were exposed to cold air for several seconds before they dried off under the hen. The owner did it when she could not resist the temptation to slip her hand under the hen to see or feel how many peeps hatched. The temperature under the hen was 103 degrees, and the outside was 40.

Auto Repair Shop on Wheels.

Detroit, Mich.—Word has been received at the National Headquarters of the Lincoln Highway Association that two enterprising garagemen plan a novel method of getting business during the coming year. Knowing that the most business is to be had where the greatest number of automobiles travel, they have determined upon the Lincoln Highway as the seat of the operations.

They mean to equip a four and one-half ton truck as a traveling automobile shop and stay on the route of the Lincoln Highway between New York and San Francisco all during the summer. They will carry a lathe, drill press, forge, welding outfit and, in fact, everything needed for making all repairs.
