Salesman Dies.

George M. Bachtell, traveling salesman for J. W. Myers & Co., wholesale grocers of Chambersburg and Hagerstown, died at his home in the latter place Thursday morning of last week, of diphtheria, aged 39 years. His wife is ill with the same disease. For many years Mr. Bachtell was well known to a majority of the people of the County between McConnellsburg and the Maryland line. Advance cards written at Hancock on January 25th, stating that he would call on customers in McConnellsburg on the 27th were received here, and now serve to indicate how rapidly the disease did its fatal work.

Are Getting More Eggs.

But a few years ago, the average number of eggs laid by farm hens in the course of a year was 60. It is now nearer 80. Not all farm flocks improved, but those that did, raised the average. Now, things like that don't "just happen" in this old world—there is always a reason. So many women depend entirely upon their hens to furnish the little bit of cash they must have that some of them have paid heed to the things that have been told over and over again hundreds of times, and the result is flock improvement. It is beginning to be understood that laying eggs is a serious business for the hen, and that in order to lay many eggs, she must have help to keep her body in full strength when weather is bad, and in addition to this, vitality sufficient to spare to go into egg production. She cannot do both on slim feed and exposure night and day.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body; and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good. To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building-tonic, free from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it.

Surprise Party.

Monday, January 24th, was Mrs. Margaret Lynch's 73rd birthday, and to celebrate the event, the word was quietly passed around, and a number of her relatives and neighbors assembled at her home near Big Cove Tannery. The surprise had been carefully planned, and it was not until her brother, John J. Gordon, arrived that she began to suspect that there was something more than ordinary going on. But the climax was reached when at twelve o'clock, there were seated around the family dining table the large number of persons present, and the dinner was in keeping with the occasion. Mrs. Lynch enjoyed the pleasant surprise, and feels very grateful to her friends for their thoughtfulness and for the many useful gifts. Among those present were, Mrs. Margaret Lynch, Jacob Gordon and wife, John J. Gordon, Jacob Clouser and wife, Mrs. Lizzie Tolbert, Mrs. Rachel Shives, Biddis Lynch, wife and son Hayes, George Lynch, wife and children Helen, May and Mary Ellen; Ella Harris and daughter Ruth, Mack Lynch and sons George and Amos, John Gordon, Maude Miller and daughter Gladys; Wilbert Mann and wife, Nellie Hess and Flora Shives. They all went home about four o'clock, wishing Mrs. Lynch many more happy birthdays.

SIERER'S Furniture Store

Chambersburg, Pa.

We want to interest our McConnellsburg Patrons in our

ANNUAL FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE

During this month we offer unusual inducements in every department of our store.

This sale occurs but once in every twelve months; it is not an accidental happening, but a well planned sale that we conduct to weed out our discontinued patterns, odd pieces and small assortments.

We have been told repeatedly that Furniture can be bought here for less money than elsewhere. Why we can sell cheaper, is no secret;

FOR, 63 YEARS,

We have been conducting a Furniture Store at the same location, have studied the business, and have built up a good trade by selling dependable furniture.

We own the building, which, with our location and expense-saving, makes our cost of doing business, less than stores more centrally located—hence, our ability to sell cheaper.

On Tuesday the February Sale price tag went on all reduced pieces, and the Sale will continue during the entire month.
