Estimates of the value of stable manure on the farm indicate that in eastern Pennsylvania the manure produced by one adult horse or cow nets the farmer on an average $15.80 per year, while in southern Michigan the manure of one such animal nets the farmer $8.22.

A number of neighbors and friends gathered at George Glunt's last Friday evening and the time was very pleasantly spent. There was plenty of good music, both vocal and instrumental. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bradnick and children Emma and Frank; Mr. and Mrs. Foster and children—Cecil, Park John and Olive; John Kerlin Kesler Cooper, and Lucille, Hulda and Vera Shadle. Everything passed off very pleasantly.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Bradnick were much pleased to see so many visitors at their home last Sunday. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foster and children—Park, Cecil, John and Olive; Mr. and Mrs. George Glunt and children—Velma and Alma; Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Cunningham and children—Ada, Lewis, John, Blanche, Hester, and Mary; Mr. John Martz and son Russell; Lloyd Diven, Omert and Calvin Hershey. The day was spent in playing the organ and singing sacred songs and good behavior.

As has already been told in the News, Mr. John R. Kreger of Addison, Somerset county, Pa., purchased C. A. Bard's farm at Emmaville, this county, and has had possession since the third of February. About two weeks ago, Mr. Kreger's brother David and sister Miss Maude came, and on Monday, his father and mother and their two daughters arrived and now the whole family are established as citizens of Brush Creek township. The Kregers are intelligent progressive farmers and will be a valuable acquisition to the neighborhood in which they have chosen to make their home.

OLDER BUT STRONGER?

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a regular meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Fairview M. E. church, the following resolutions were passed:

WHEREAS, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst, the beloved Grandmother of our society; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That in the death of Mrs. M. D. Mitchell, we have lost a wise counsellor, a helpful co-worker and a true friend; that we hold in sacred memories her deep Christian piety, her ready helping hand, and her conscientious devotion to the duties of life; and, that we, bowing in humble submission to the Divine will, shall endeavor to follow the example she has left us.

RESOLVED, That in deep sympathy with the bereaved family, we express our hope that so great a loss to us all may be for our good, and we commend them to the tender mercies of our Father who doeth all things well.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the County papers, and that a record of them be kept on the minutes of our Society.

MRS. CHESTER BRANT, MRS. RILEY HESS, MRS. DAVID LAIDIG.

Real Estate for Sale.

In the borough of Broad Top City, three lots on the west side of Broad Street, each 30 x 150 ft. On these lots stood the Shapiro Department Store which was destroyed by fire on the 19th day of December, 1914. Thereon are a fine wall of water, a cistern size 12x20 ft. capacity about 400 barrels, cess-pool 6x8ft. and 12 ft. in depth—both of concrete.

ALSO: Three lots at the rear of the above lots, facing Oak Street, each 30x150 ft., having thereon erected a good stable, size 30x35 ft and wagonshed 28x50 ft. attached to the stable, a good well of water at stable. These lots are in an excellent location for any kind of business. For further information inquire of J. S. Shapiro, Broadtop City. 23 1t

Educational Meetings.

The fifth educational meeting of Thompson township was held at Center Friday evening March 17. Topics discussed were: 1. How to improve the sanitary conditions of the school? 2. Benefit of local institutes.

Some very good instrumental music was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Shade Truax and Miss Viola and Ellen Snyder.

Teachers present were: Rose Keefer, Mrs. John Yeakle, Pearl Fisher, Alice Brewer, Wishart Wink, Denver Evans—of Thompson, and Thomas Truax of Belfast. Alice Brewer, Secretary.

Archie Keyser and family who during the past three years have lived in D. F. Trout's tenant house, moved to Lemasters, Franklin county Tuesday.

PREPAREDNESS. The whole United States, from the President down, is interested in the all important question of PREPAREDNESS and it is the most talked of subject of the day. The most essential factor in the life of everyone is to be prepared; but—ARE YOU? If not, lose no time: We can help you. There will come a time when a bank account, if never so small, will save you from embarrassment. WE ARE PREPARED—not only to HELP you save—but to PROTECT your savings. When the FULTON COUNTY BANK was incorporated, we prepared with a capital of $50,000.00 and each year the management has added to a Surplus Fund which is now $27,000.00. When we secured a new Home for the Bank, we prepared for the safety of our funds by securing a fire-proof and burglar-proof vault. We have also prepared by covering every dollar in our bank by burglar and hold-up insurance. We have prepared, also, every convenience to serve you well. FULTON COUNTY BANK, McConnellsburg, Pa.

END. Harry Stunkard's sale was very well attended and amounted to a nice sum. The Ladies Aid of the Valley M. E. church served a dinner netting them something like $20. Mrs. Thornton Foster was in Six Mile Run last week visiting the new son the stork had recently left with Mr. and Mrs. James Shuke. Mrs. Rebecca Edwards, after visiting relatives for a few weeks will return by way of Saxton visiting her sister Mrs. A. D. Berkstresser, to Juniata this week. Reed and Laura Edwards spent the week end at their home. Mary Stunkard went to Bedford the last of the week to see the dentist, returning to her sisters at Round Knob and then on Sunday came to W. L. Cunningham's where she expects to stay this summer. The sick are all slowly improving, but not as fast as their friends would like. John Stunkard, Sr., is housed up by an attack of vertigo. Roy Early was in Hustontown last week having some dental work done.

A Soul Winner. In a class of six admitted to full conference membership at Altnona last week was Gideon P. Sarvis, a former pastor on the Hustontown charge. Rev. Sarvis is famous as an evangelist, and it is said, he has won more souls than any other minister in the Conference; and although he has been a Local Preacher for thirty-five years, he had never passed an examination. Having reached the retiring age, he was admitted to get the benefit of the annuity fund. A storm of applause greeted his acceptance.

When Mahon was in Congress Franklin county had a population of 51,433. Mr. Mahon had seven nominations at the hands of his party. Mr. Focht already has had five nominations from a county of 16,249. If Mr. Mahon had had as many nominations in proportion as Mr. Focht, he would still be in Congress. There are over 200,000 people in this Congressional district. There are many men living in it who would ably represent it. Why not retire the present Congressman and give some one else a chance? Vote For Richard W. Williamson
