THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS, McCONNELLSBURG, PA.

A five-pound package of Alabastine, the beautiful wall tint, is mixed with two quarts of cold water, stir for about one minute, and Alabastine is ready to apply.

New and individual shades or tints can be obtained by combining regular tints.

And when you consider that you obtain the most beautiful, mellow, nature colors, win, soft buffs, delicate greens, and exquisite ses, or any shads you wish by con shades of Alabastine, then you'll snew why Alabastine is one of the most populat wall decurations with millions of Painters and Householders, Decorators and Womenfolk, who take a prile in their homes the wide world over.

Write for Free Book "The Mystery of the Lost Woman" and Free Color Scheme Cards

Special Stencil Offer

Eventhy are har border druggs. In the regular way they evaluated our year from 50c to 51.00 each. Our free book rolts the hear year case or structly for your rooms possibility free of charge. Fust Catlor failer's Catlor support cole is that harmonics for year rooms. A you should have our true book and our free Calor Science Catla. Write far thrue today harmonics for years call.

The Alabastine Co. 381 Grandville Rd. Grand Rapids, Mich.

Be sure the red cress and circle are an each package of Autocode yea boy . Alabasi ar a sold by mart dragging, bards ever drokey and paul same

PITY THE POOR BACHELOR

He's a Marked Man Just at Present, Especially in France and Great Britain.

If single men continue to be singled out as victims of tax collectors and recruiting sergeants, the great trinity of human rights will be chanced to read; "Life, liberty and matrimony," For the first to be acted by a rapacious smooth slope of the valley toward the state, and his precious person as the lower rollway first to be exposed to the enemy's bullets.

Never since the history of man began has the bachelor been the marked her eyes a bit and said aloud: "Bless man he is today, the Brooklyn Eagle | the child! Wild-wild! But it's nat remarks. In England Premier As ural," and Walter Sandry standing at one promises such given to thift's th the married men, the conscription bill exempts the married men, the state amusedly that evening as he passed supports the wives and children of en | through the eating room. listed married men. In France the

SYNOPSIS.

-3-Bilets of Daily's lumber camp directs a stranger to the camp. Waller Sandry Introduces himself to John Daily, fure-man, as "the Dillingworth Lumber Co. or most of it." He makes argumintance with the camp and the wark he has come from the East to superintend and make successful. He wrines to his faither that he intends to gat a bandful of the wealth in the uncut timber of the region.

CHAPTER V-Continued.

Sandry was enjoying her succinct precision of knowledge and expresslon.

"And you've spent all these years in the midst of this wet-blanket cli mate?" he smilled. "How in the world fulness7

"Son," said Ma Daily kindly, "you can knock the country to me, but don't you go doin' it where the men'll hear you. Us web-fect are used to the rain, but we don't like to hear the jecting ends, and the rollway itself, a wilderness beyond. Easterners talk about it. It's a chip sianting floor of logs some two feet on every Oregonian's shoulder. You thick supported on a group of gradu- are you going to do about it?" don't want to queur yourself."

There was a note of genuine good advice in the words and tone, and Sandry got a sudden insight into several little happenings that had puzzled him-for instance, the emphasized wearing, of blue shirts in a rain that had sonked his overcost, and a few remarks about the fact that Oregon rain didn't wet through. "Thank you, Mrs. Dally," he said enrnestly with a sudden feeling of friendship between him and this shrewd, kindly old general of men.

He turned presently to the girl busy in the lamplight, her black bead shining a shudow over her eyes.

"By the way," he said, "if you care to you may ride Black Bolt whenever you wish

She nodded quietly, without a flicker of the pleased excitement he had expected in the light of her scending passionate love of the animal, but a r'ow, dull flush spread upward in her dark face and her lingers trembled a bit, he fancied, on the reeds. They trembled in all surety the next morning, when, with a bridle of colored and woven horsehnir over hor arm, she entered the lean-to.

Black Bolt was a gentleman born. Though he was wild as the girl for the free air, the green slopes and the yisiding sod under his feet, he stood still while she came up lightly, as a where can the bachelor find happiness | cat springs, with a little soft alighting, in a world that marks his income an and they were gone, down over the

> There were two interested specta tors to that splendid flight-Ma Daily from the cook shack porch, who wiped the south window of the office.

the lower rollway a group of loggers along in the tiny locomotive outdours. asked of a huge man in the lead a Northwest, sun-browned, hard-mus cled, wiry of figure and with the eniurance and power of a buil elephant Yella Pines's snwed five pilesain th rollway an' tore up two leagths of track. Sandry went shead down the track timberjack.

slough, as evidenced by a few pro- lifted gently toward the camp and the ated piles, sagged in the center where two piles had been cut and pried side- work in the water, and them piles have wise. The lower edge also drooped got to come out. But there's a way of for the same reason. It had been the doin' it, of course. work of pure malice, that he saw at a giance. "Collins," he said as the men came up in a sullen group, "get to work and ingly. see if you can raise those sawed suphtters. The gang went slowly down the "Johnny Eastern." said one softly. "all right, all right! Prize up a rollway! My Aunt Maria!"

Sandry stood near, realizing his limlintions and raging helplesaly, watch ing them farily testing and pushing sere and there.

"Hadn't we better just spike 'em troll anward glance. John Daily slipped down from the track action beside him under the ice of the damand rollway. "Collins," he said stornly, "you get icks. Bring a couple of axes, too Vhat do you mean by such business?" "Orders." said Collins with a grin. tules "You nee, Mr. Sandry," said Datly apologetically, "there's no fixin' such

"I Don't Just Know."

The repairing of the damaged rollcame stalking in their spiked boots | way was another revelation to the Behind them Murphy rocked excitedly easterner. New timbers were brought down and the slanting floor was thick-Sandry shut his ledger and stepped by underpinned. Then with pick and shovel the men went at the work of "What's the matter, Collins?" he digging out the damaged timbers. The work was heavier, more dangerous and perfect type of the logger of the great disagreeable by reason of the water. four feet deep at low tide, eight at high, which lapped their bases.

Daily put them at the digging from "Matter enough. Them dammed the slope side at low tide; but on the second day he stood long running his blunt fingers through his hair, as was his custom when perplexed.

Sandry had come down from the and found a state of things sufficient office and now stood on the track did you do it-and keep your cheer to raise the ire of any riverman or above the rollway looking over the wet country below. At the rollway's Where the track approached the roll- foot the sluggish ribbon of tidewater. way it had been torn up bodily, the sullen and discolored, wound up from the shed for Black Bolt, only to find ties and rails thrown into the narrow the south. To the north the valley

> Suddenly, "Dally," he said, "what i "I don't just know. The men can't > > "Of course," said the eastorner, "and why not go at it from above?" The foreman looked at him inquir-

"That left bank of the slough up ports and pry them back on their there is in the form of a ridge Don't you think we could set a crew at it at low tide and dig it through, turning sharp bank of the tidewater slough. | the water into the field yonder? That would leave the slough empty here for the time between high tides. Could you get the timbers out in a few hours?

> Daily's experienced eye had already taken in every detail of the possibilities as Sandry talked.

"That's a good schome, Mr. Sandry," on to the sides?" asked Collins, with a he said slowly, "I believe it'll work." So it was that the first practical sug-Sandry was about to reply when gestion of the new owner was set into

The whole crew of the camp was brought out of the hills and set to work and the damaged rollway was reback to camp and bring tools-peavies, paired as good as new, the break in books, a couple of chains and some the west bank filled, the slough running full again and nothing to show for the trouble but the flooded field of

> Under Walter Sandry's cool demeanor there was a small glow of way redeemed himself.

At supper time Siletz, moving between the tables, laughed to herself. softly, and her dark eyes under the little shadow of her parted hair heid a sparkling gleam as if she had seen that conflict and enloyed it.

"Siletz," said the owner, coming in suddenly from the east porch after the men had tramped beavily away to the came from the dense wall of the woods tral blood rose up in condemnation. bunkhouse, "whom do you know out side this camp?" She was alone in the big spotless inspired sout, the Falms, there looked | lawiess; in a nash us understood per his answer, as he was to know in an silences, her caim, her occasional other day, the tracet answer that could stilled modes of speech, and per whimsicalities. have been given to his question:

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? Or who shall stand in his boly place? He that hath clean hands and it pure heart; who hath not lifted op his soul unto vanity, nor swora deceitfully.

With an odd feeling of truth struck from the page he closed the book and laid it gently down on the white cloth.

CHAPTER VII.

Night Wind. From that time forth Sandry began to take a keener interest in Siletz For one thing, he noticed that everyone called her S'letz, with a soft slurring of the first syllable, and he found himself using the name which he thought particularly beautiful. It was the name of the reservation to the north and of a small part of the odds and ends of tribes thrown in there by a beneficent government. What was her other name? He had always thought of her as Ma Daily's daughter; and yet, now that he came to think of it. she had never seemed akin to the ensygoing, open-minded foreman who was so like the old woman. She was allen to both with her silences, her whimsical speech and her look of hidden tire. One day in the late fall, when the white mist and the evergreen of the forest had got on his nerves unbearably, Sandry left the office and went to

0 17 33 Set. Tues 2 2 Cost of .F hatt

Watched Her Turn and Ride Down One of the Mysterious Paths.

him gone. He had meant to ride off the fit of blues. Failing that, he decid- aloof, as if fearing to break a spell by satisfaction, a sense of having in a ed to walk it off, and struck up the wet a word or touch. Once he looked up green valley to the north.

Almost immediately the tumbling hills closed in upon him and he found life he could not repress the wild the laws in force. My taxes are about himself in a wilderness of towering thrill that had betrayed him in the firs, of dripping vine maples and mya hills, though he was conscious of anterious paths lost in the crowding ger flushing hot upon it. He suffered ferns. He was standing at rest in a a very real humiliation in that he had small glade carpeted with pine nee- so far forgotten his training, his sense dies and surrounded with ferns, when of the fitness of things, as to kiss this land there costs four times as much

"Why-why-S'letz!" he stammered. following out the train of his nlumined thought, "what are you? Who are you? A star in the dusk! The night wind in the pines!" In the flush of the pregnant moment he laid his aand on her hare arm under the rolled-up sleeve-her soft arm, wet with the mist-closing his fingers strongly upon it. For the enchanted present she was romance and mystery, and Sandry was beneath its spell But Siletz looked from his face down to the hand upon her arm. The blood rose slowly in her dusky cheeks, and when she raised her eyes again they were dim with the same look of intoxication as had come with the madness of the rushing wind on Black Bolt's back.

"Yes," she said dreamily, "I am the Night Wind. That's what they call me my friends the Indiana. But how dld you know?"

"I didn't. I just heard the words in neart. They are right."

He did not remove his hand, and silence fell between them while they stood gazing into each other's eyes. Sandry saw the heavy look in hers, the dull fire that bespoke a very drunkenness of emotion, and in another moment he had lost his head. Without thought, as simply as the first runner of those forests took what he wanted. he leaned forward and kissed her. softly, lightly, on her smooth cheek. Her eyes darkened perceptibly and she covered her face with her hands. In a sudden great embarrassment Saudry stood silent beside her, his heart pounding and his manhood already upbraiding him. He searched his clearing brain for some word of apology, some contrite expression, but found none, and the next moment could not in any case have spoken it; for Siletz lifted her face and it was glorified. The intoxication had drifted away from her features, leaving them bare in the utter simplicity of the primeval woman, and there was in them a white fire of self-surrender. Without a word-and Sandry knew instinctively that she could not speak

-she turned to Black Bolt, threw the reins over his head, crouched beside him on a little lift of moss and teaped upward He watched her land on the horse's blanketed back with that inimitable grace of the wild, turn and ride swiftly down one of the mysterious paths whose nodding ferns closed after her. Coosnah, following with a lithe rolling of all his huge muscles, cast a lowering glance backward at the man.

The incident had taken all the helpfulness out of the day and the wilderness, and Sandry wended his way slowly back to camp, arriving just in time for supper. Siletz tended the table in her usual silence, but when she reached him she was constrainedly she avoided his eyes and to save his

YOU TOLD METHE TRUTH AND I WANT THE PEOPLE TO KNOW IT" The following unsolicited letter has been received from Mr. J. F. Ward of Donalda, Alberta. It is a plain statement of conditions as Mr. Ward has found them:

"It is with pleas A Settler's ure I drop a line to Plain Letter. you. We had a good year. Off of 65 acres, oats and wheat, I got over 2,506 bushels of wheat and oats. Oats went here from 50 to 100 bushels per acro, and wheat from 25 to 52 per acre. Just see me being here one year and have over 708 bushels of wheat. It is now over $1.00 per bushel. Oats is 42 conts, and going up. You told me the truth, and I want the people of Toledo to know it. Hogs are 8% cents; cattle are high. Canada is good enough for me. I have 5 good horses. I sold 2 good colts, 2 cows and 18 head of hogs and killed 2, I have 6 hogs left. I got 400 bushels of potatoes off an acre and a good garden last summer, fine celery and good onions. One neighbor had over

1.200 hushels of wheat, and sold over $700 of hogs and 2,000 bushels of oats. This is a great country. If you should tell the people of Toledo of this it would get some of them thinking. The soil is a rich black loam, and a pleas ure to work it. "We have a good farm. We have a flowing well with soft water. It is the best water in the country. Some people think they got to go to war when they come out here. They need not be afraid of war. There is no war tax on land; only school tax, $12.09 on 160 acres, and road tax of two days with your team. I tell you the truth, there is no land in or around Toledo as good as our land here in Alberta. If anybody wants to write us, give them our address.

"We have had nice weather. We have had it quite cold for one week, but no rain and sleet, and the sum shines nearly every day, and it is hot in the sun. Coal is $2.25 per ton. The people are very nice and good here. We are well enjoying the West. The horses and cows are feeding on the prairies all the winter. We just have two horses in the stable to go to town with. Yours truly, (Sgd.) J. F. WARD, Donalda, Alberta, Feb. 9, 1916." Itatement of Steve Wisconsin, but Schweitzberger moved with my parents when a boy to Stephen Co., lowa I was there farming for 50 years. I sold my land there for over $200 an acre. I moved to Saskatcho wan, and located near Briercrest in the spring of 1912. I bought a half section of land. I have good neighbors. I feel quite at home here the at her, striving for recognition, but same as in Iowa. We have perfect safety and no trouble in living up to $65 a year on the half section for everything. I have had splendid crops. Wheat in 1915 yielded me over 59 bushels to the acre. That is more than I have ever had in Iowa, and yet the he caught the sound of voices. They wild mountain creature. His ances as it does here. The man who comes here now and buys land at $50 an acre

Fair, supports not only the legally es quietness, wives, but those whom sol-

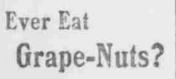

'acknowledge as their "wives," a assumption being that the legal coremony will follow when the war comes to an end. Thus even the man and a new earth Something wild withwho promises to become married in fa- in her that had ever moved restlessly wored by the state.

As for the taxes, the bachelor has long been the victim of his own discretion. Even Uncle Sam, who is ordinarily the least given to making invidious distinctions among his citizenry, grants the married man a $1,000 exemption on his income tax. In Hurope the discrimination against the bachelor is much more marked-no marked in fart that backelorhood is more of a luxury than a limousine.

The D vvy. "How did Hid labb make out in his bout with Battling McPug"

"Oh. the Kut got the gate and Mc Pug got the gate receipts."

Maturally, "He's a very polished gostlemus." "That's why he shines in sociaty "-Boston Evening Transcript

There's a vast army of physical and mental workers who do.

One reason-its delicious nut-like flavour.

Another - it is easily and quickly digested generally in about one hour.

4.4.1

10

But the big reason is-Grape-Nuts, besides having delicious taste, supplies all the rich nutriment of whole wheat and malted barley, including the "vital" mineral salts necessary for building brain, nerve and muscle.

Always ready to eat direct from the package, Grape-Nuts with cream or good milk is a well balanced ration-the utmost in sound nourishment.

"Did you like it?" Sandry asked her "Yee," said Silotz with her belying (

"I believe I've found a study," he and to bimself as he went on, "a worthy study in human nature ' And Siletz had found a new heaven broke forth, a giorious Hower of mestany. Day by day thereafter she toosed Black Bolt and sped lato fields of Elysium, lost to earth, intoxicated mad with the rush of wind and rain. Always when she came back there ! was the dusky flush in her face, the sleepy look of intoxication in her eyes. Thus winter closed in on the ionely camp in the mountains, blue-black and gray with mist and rain and vivid green with the new grass of the coust timbers as them, not when they're ere fact.

CHAPTER VI.

country.

might.

by Arthur Machin.

The potent character of these tales of latter-day miracles is well exempli fied by the fact that the story of "The Bowmen," with its allusion to the ap Trouble With the Vellow Pines. Walter Sandry sat in the office at work?"

the slough's edge buty with his and "A day or so, mebbs. We can take a swift slurring of softness in her | tied eves flew to the dark face of the ledger. Two months had passed and the fallers out an put them on with voice. something had lifted from nim in Collins and the rest. There's enough these two months; a weight had light | down to keep the buckers busy a day ened. Where had been a huge dis- or two, anyway "We won't lose much " gust, almost intolerable in Ha in-"Do you think this is the work of tensity, for this ram-soased and there, the Vellow Pines neople, Daily ?" "Sure," said Dally with certainty, had crept in an insidious admiration. Often now he looked down the green "they ve done worse than this before. little valley sharply do ned between now. Cut our best cable two years its hinding bills and felt the subtie ago and twice they've run the dinkey charm of the initiate shadows, the of the track into the slough. They renear white dusk and the great trees bad actors." "but want's the use? What do they under whose drooping feathery bougus there lay slience and a sense of ref- gain?"

$1.65 C

1158. suddenly there came to him a class or of voices, onthe and the taronty just givin' you a hint as the new a way of doing oney of strong men is anger Up from 'owner'

VISIONS SEEN BY SOLDIERS position had any basis in fact, to nis FISH KNOCKS OUT FISHERMAN given him the blackest of eyes in the immiement, some of his correspondents maintained that he must be mus-Men at the Front Firmly Convinced taken. In provincial papers hot con-They Have Been Witnesses of troversy was waged regarding the Supernatural Things.

exact nature of the appearance. Bishop Weldon, Dean Hensley, Hen-In periods of great national stress, son, Bishop Taylor Smith (the chapwhen the responsibilities facing a lain-General), and many other clergy people call for an effort superhuman. have occupied themselves with fne the mind is more prone than in times matter, Doctor Horton preached aboutless tense to place dependence upon the "Angels," at Manchester; Sir Jodivine aid and to believe that super soph Compton Rickets spresident of natural powers are exerting their the National Federation of Free Church Councils), stated that the sal-This tondency is embodied in a lituters at the trant had seen visions and tie column entitled "The Bowmon and dreamed dreams, and had given testi Other Legends of the War," written mony of powers and principalities Dance to the Vibrations.

Vibrations of the Boor caused by pearance of a supernatural bost, nus the playing of an orchestra are said

Upon its publication in serial form, planation gives for a dancing exhibit in the scuppers there came to the author scattered tion by dear couples held in San Fran when the author denied that his come rhythm by watching.

kitchen, her sleeves rolled up from her arms, slim and brown with a smooth color that was of the sun's giving. "Outside the camp?" she asked, turning to him for a moment, stopped in some task of the aftermath of the meal, "why-nobody."

"Don't you ever go down to Toledo?" Sandry was leaning in the doorway, is bright blue eves upon her. "Sometimes,"

"Have you no friends there? No tirl friends?"

She shook her head and he noticed the clean profile, the shape of the | nah brought up the rear. They persmall pointed chin, the good forehead conflicting with a vague suggestion of fleeting wild things in the velvety turals which Slietz answerod gently. OVPS.

"Is there no one with whom you associate outside the camp? Thing." to carry such weight. They'll have to Suddenly there passed over her featie taken out entirely an' new ones

"I doln't know," returned Sandry frankly; "won't they hold back the of water, just a breath of change.

"The Preacher?" you came.

"Who is he?" asked Sandry cupious-

I love him."

"The Preacher," he said to himself a a thrill that sent the bloed pounding little later in the bare south room on- in his veins shot through him The der the dripping eaves. "H'm! The mighty trees around them, the eternal Bible-of course."

They want to run us out of the the quaint old boos of Holy Writ and attire of blue shirt, short skirt and allis. Econ at it for ten years. They re let it fall open in his hands as it had boots, with that sudden reveation of

Out from that marvelous song of an gest the unreal, the mysterious, the Gives Man Black Eye and Breaks Its Own Nose-Will Be Kept as Trophy.

It was a starlight night and "Joe" wheel measured his full length of six feet five upon the deck. Bang! Something careened off the spokes of the wheel and lay fluttering in the scuppera

"Who did that," bellowed Jerry as upon the cowering crew fighting for them or against them.

"Seen it come aloard." seaman.

Yankee settled back to its course dirty and not fit for a bug to be put been accepted widely in England as to be sufficient for deaf persons to while the crew began to search and in, the word prought on another dance by. This at least is the ex- finally came upon the fluttering thing till finally the failer told the prisoner inquiries from editors of occult jour cisco rocently. Others, not susceptible one at that But it had sent a man repued "I will give you to under nais as to the foundation of the stury. to these vibrations, fail into the who weighed over 250 pounds to the stand sir I have as good a right mat for the full count of ten and had | nere as you bave!"

at his right and unconsciously be listened, tipping his head and straining full to overflowing with work and ne Schweitzberger, February 9th, 1916." his ears Presently a look of blank- laid aside all personal perplexities. ness spread upon his face. The first raft of logs, a great cigar-

One of the voices was familiar, soft shaped monster, laced together in all and sliding with minors, the voice of its length and breadth with giant the girl Siletz, and she was speaking | chains, lay in the backwater at Toledo ready for its voyage into the world be-Jargon.

Even as this amazing knowledge yond. A crew of river drivers was picked was borne in upon him the tangle parted and she stepped out before him. from among the men and all was in A Siletz squaw followed her, a short readiness save for a draft of direcbrown creature of comely features, tions which was to be given, along clad in brilliant finnnel, a towering with the raft, into the custody of Cappyramid of baskets slung to one shoul- tain Graftz of the long dun-colored der. Nosing eagerly at the giri's elsteamer that would stand in across bow stepped Black Solt, while Coos- the bar at Newport on the twentysixth. ceived him instantly and the indian Sandry thrilled with contemplation of the great, reddish brown floor, woman turned away with a few gut-slightly raised in the center, sloping But in the moment that she had congently to the sides. Its building had fronted him. San'ry had seen her face been a thing of wonder to him. It and received a shock. would in all probability scatter to the Beginning just under the lower lip ends of the earth, and its worth ran tures a quick change. He could liken and running downward to the base of well into five figures. He watched its t to nothing but a wind on the surface the chin there stood out three blue departure, an impressive matter of bars, each composed or minutely tatsluggish rising with the tide, of al-"Only the Preacher," she said with tooed designs, Unconsciously his starmost imparceptible motion and then of majestic speed that carried it westgirl. There, on her lighter skin, tellward toward the ocean. Then he tale in its truth of outline, was the beturned back to his logging camp with "You don't know him. He only comes ginning of the same mark, broken in a heightened joy in the new life. cometimes. He was here just before its inception by some mysterious That night he wrote to the white band.

haired gentleman who was then going For a moment Sandry's head whirled to bed under silken covers with the ald and a sort of nausea came over him. of the faithful Higgins; and his letter "I don't know. Nobody knows. But Then he became conscious of her dark was long and brilliant, touched with eyes, level and calm, upon his face and that cheer and hope, that light of awakening strength and ability which was beginning to stir his heart to its foundation.

majesty of the hills under the intimate "Ah!" said Mr. Wilton Sandry when With a new interest he picked up gray sky, the girl in her trim, sensible he got that letter, looking down on the pageant of Riverside drive in its winter livery. "what a boy he is! What a the wild about her, combined to sug son! The metal is beginning to ring." (TO BE CONTINUED.)

So a Bolt Can't Slip.

More Trouble.

"Got seven in my family "

"Why do you never take your fam-

"Well, you have a seven cassenger

A method of locking a but upon a bolt in such a way that it cannot work loose is the object of a palent granted to William Johnson of Pittsfield Mass The bolt is the ordinary screw bolt but nos a flat edge down one side Upon this a washer, made of spring steel is places. The straight edge of the hole in the washer lits that of the bolt, thus making it immovable.

punched with round bosses. The un der surface of the nut is bored with the same number of boles as there was given to the jury, who brought | are bosses and of equal size. When the not is screwed down the bosses yield under pressure until the nut is driven home, when they ht mto "Something from overbeard," timor a smile and feeling particularly good the noise. The nut cannot work loose ously replied William Asterson able on that particular day, considered how but can be removed easily with a it ne did not behave nimsell he would It was a flying fish, and not a large put nim out. To which the prisoner

Yes, and when it's full people think I'm operating a jitney bus."

The next few days were crowded or less gets a bargain. (Sgd.) S. Advertisement.

Nolle Prosequi.

Rastus had caught Sambo red handed. "Ab'm gwine hab yo' arrested 'foh stealin' mah chickens yo' Sambo Washin'ton-dat's jess what ah'm gwine to do." said Rastus.

"Go shead, niggah " retorted Sambo, "Go ahead and hab me arrested. Ab'll mek you prove whar yo' got dem chickens yo'self!"

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Unit Spots. There's no longer the slightest need of foregrighten othing-double strengthese surrates to remove these homely gots. Timply get an ounce of othing-double strength-from your druggist, and apply a fitch of it night and morning and you hould soon see that even the worst frechies have begin to diappear, while the lighter one have whilshed entrely. It is selden have begin the skin and gain a beautiful one then we curve in medic to com-the entre the skin and gain a beautiful one and to eak for the double greength

De sure to eak for the double strength othins, on this is sold under guarantee of mony back if it fails to remove freekles-Adv.

The Ready Reply.

Fair Customer-But the hairs are coming out of this muff.

The Salesman-That, madam, is a peculiarity of the animal; it always sneds its fur at this time of the year. -Judge.

KIDNEY TROUBLE NOT RECOGNIZED

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview of the abject, made the as-tonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are re-jected is because hidney trouble is so com-uon to the American peerle and the mon to the American people, and the large majority of these whose applica-tions are declined de not even suspect that they have the disease.

According to this it would seem that a medicine for the kidneys, possessing real healing and curative properties, would be a blessing to thousands.

a blessing to thousands. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp.Reot, the well known kidne?, liver and bladder remety is remarkably successful in suckness caused by kidney and bladder troubles. It is mild and gentle in its action and its healing in-fluence is soon noticed in most eases. There is no other remedy like Swamp-Rot. It will surely and effectively ever-come kidney, liver and bladder troubles-and you can depend upon it. Go to any drug store and get a lightle son s to start treatment today. You will som see a marked improvement. marked improvement.

However, if you wish first to test this Kilmer & Co., Birghamton, N. Y., for s sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.--Adv.

Most Unkind.

"Miss Sereleaf says she is going 10 marry one man in a thousand "The last one?" asked Miss Cuttem.

No man with a poor memory has any mainess to become a liar bargain. The flying fish and the black eve were brought into port here one day inst week by Mr. Shively, who proposes to keep the first and is making every effort to rid himself of the lat-The surface of the washer is Rivers' good launch Yankee lazily slid ter. The flying fish had its nose through a succession of oiled waves broken in the encounter and only lived Bin' and Skipper Jerry Shively at the a few minutes-Los Angeles Times.

Had a Right to Be There A man arrested for stealing chickone was prought to trial. The case him in guilty, and the judge sentenced he arose to bis feet and glared down num to three months imprisonment. The failer was a lovial man, fond of sell insulted when the prisoner, look wrench A few turns of the wheel and the ing around the cell, told him it was fly out in your car?" CHE