Kunyan the Lye Man

At Harrisonville Thursday P. M.

McConnellsburg Friday and Saturday April 28 and 29,

N. H. Peck and son Harry, of Needmore, were in town Mon-

New goods at Mertie E. Shimer's store. Watch for ad next week.

Ex-sheriff J. J. Harris and family spent Monday very pleasantly in a little trip to Chambersburg.

Ex-sheriff Frank Mason was up street Monday afternoon, the first time he has been away from his home for fifteen weeks.

George H. Reisner, a Pennsylvania State College junior, spent a few days during the past week in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reisner.

Farmer William Secrist of the Cove will take his family in an Oakland now; for that is the name of the big touring car he purchased from the Linn Gar age West Lincoln Way, last Saturday.

HIDES .- Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

George O. Plessinger and his brother Russell C. Plessinger came to town last Saturday and each treated himself to a brand-Emory Diehl of Whips Cove.

Our friend C. W. Crouse of Webster Mills was in town last Saturday. Neal is a regular first of April visitor, but on account of being housed nearly all winter with a stubborn attack of rheumatism, his plans have been somewhat knocked out. We hope he may find a remedy soon that will make him good as ever.

John Hann, of Pittsburgh, spent a few days during the past week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hann and other relatives in this community. John is just a young man, but he has seen three years service in the 12th U. S. Cavalry, two years on the State Constabulary force, and is now serving on the special police force in Pittsburgh.

A letter from Davidson Flora received by M. M. Bender a few days ago says that Mr. Flora's sister, Mrs. Waddell, new in the 100th year of her age met with an accident on the 1st day of of bed, her foot caught in a rug and she fell breaking her left leg above the knee. The fracture was set successfully and she is doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Winter and children Guy and Maryall of Everett-motored to Mc-Connelisburg last Sunday and spent the day with Mr. Winter's sister Mrs. Chas. D. Hixson. They were accompanied by Mr. Chas, Hixson who also spent the day with his family on East Lincoln Way, Charlie is improving his property by building a front porch to his residence.

HAVE YOU BEEN SICK?

Then you realize the utter weakness that robs ambition, destroys appetite, and makes work a burden.

To restore that strength and stamina that is so essential, nothing has ever equaled or compared with Scott's Runulsion, because its strength-sustaining nourish-ment invigorates the blood to distribute energy throughout the body while its tonic site sharpens the appetite and restores tealth in a natural, permanent way.

If you are run down, tired, nervous, werworked or lack strength, get Scott's imulaion to-day. It is free from alcohol.

FOR DELIVERY TO AMARANTH AND NEEDMORE, PA.

The undersigned, realizing the inconvenience, on account of the long haul, for the people north of Amaranth and Needmore to haul their ties to Hancock, Md., will accept ties delivered either to Amaranth, Pa., or Needmore, Pa.

Arrangements have been made for ties to be piled along the County road both at Amaranth and at Needmore, and tie producers may begin to haul their ties to either of these points at once. Sign boards have been creeted describing manner in which ties should be piled and tagged, namely: "All ties must be piled in alternate layers of two and seven, the bottom layer to consist of two ties. Each pile should be tagged with owner's name and address."

Beginning April I, 1916, the Western Maryland Railway Company's Inspector will take up all ties properly piled, both at Amaranth and at Needmore, on the 1st and 15th of each month thereafter until otherwise advised.

Checks will be issued and passed to the tie producer the following day after ties have been taken up by the Western Maryland Railway Company's Tie Inspector at the following
