HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do colds settle on your chest or in your bronchial tubes? Do coughs hang on, or are you subject to throat troubles? Such troubles should have immediate treatment with the strengthening powers of Scott's Emulsion to guard against consumption which so easily follows. Scott's Emulsion contains pure cod liver oil which peculiarly strengthens the respiratory tract and improves the quality of the blood; the glycerine in it soothes and heals the tender membranes of the throat. Scott's is prescribed by the best specialists. You can get it at any drug store. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Mr. Fraker is a splendid gentleman, right in the prime of life, and while there is no salary in this job, Mr. Fraker will appreciate the honor of a solid vote from his "ole hum town."

Recent Weddings.

BRANT—LAIDIG.

On Tuesday of last week Mr. Dallas Brant and Miss Sarah Laidig, made a quiet little trip over to Harrisburg. Of course they visited the Capitol and other attractive buildings, but none looked so good to them as a modest little Methodist Parsonage. When the visitors timidly rang the bell, the door swung open, and there stood the parson smiling, for the young couple looked good to him. He invited them to step into his parlor. They stepped. The door closed. When they were passed out a few minutes later. The parson had an extra "tenner" and Mr. and Mrs. Brant had a certificate that cost about 25 cents—but you couldn't have convinced them it was not worth the ten-spot—O no!

The groom is a former teacher, and a son of the late Casper M. Brant near West Dublin, and is now one of Taylor's progressive young farmers. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Laidig, near Laidig Post Office, and possesses those qualifications of mind and heart that will make her a true helpmeet to the man of her choice.

The News with a large circle of friends joins in wishing them bon voyage.

MASON—HAWK.

A spring wedding of more than local importance was the marriage Saturday, May 6, of Jessie Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mason, to Wilbur D. Hawk of Cleveland, O. The wedding which was of a simple nature was characterized by the double ring ceremony performed by Rev Edward Jackson.

The bride wore a blue traveling suit and carried a bouquet of orchids shower with lilies of the valley. Miss Mason who is well known locally is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State Normal and has many friends in Western Pennsylvania. Mr. Hawk who is a graduate of Grove City College, was formerly Superintendent of Schools at Vandergrift Heights, Pa., and is now employed by the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., of Akron, O.

Immediately following the wedding breakfast the young couple left on a western trip. After May 15 they will be at home at Wichita, Kan., where Mr. Hawk will represent his company.

SPROWL—HIXSON.

On Wednesday, May 3, 1916, Mr. Ernest Rudolph Sprowl and Miss Ada Birden Hixson, were united in marriage at the Presbyterian parsonage, Cumberland, Md., by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Muffett, D. D. The groom is the second son of ex-County Commissioner William L. Sprowl, of Wells Tannery, a highly respected and popular young man employed in Baumgardner's store. The bride is the second daughter of the late John N. and Annie Hixson of Akersville, and is a young lady of charming personality. The bride was gowned in a white silk marquisette, elaborately embroidered. Mr. and Mrs. Sprowl will reside in Wells Tannery, and they enter upon their married life with the kindest wishes of a host of Euliton County friends.
