

"DON'T SUFFER ANY MORE"

"Feel Like a New Person," says Mrs. Hamilton.

New Castle, Ind.—From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it, and now I feel like a new person. I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month.—Mrs. HAZEL HAMILTON, 822 South 15th St.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, it is not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Keeping house is hard enough when well. The woman who has a bad back, blue, nervous spells, and dizzy headaches, has a hard lot, for the family tasks never let up. They are as harmless as they are effective and may be used for children with weak kidneys, too.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR MAY 14

LO, WE TURN TO THE GENTILES.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 13:32-42. GOLDEN TEXT—I have not seen thee for eight of the Gentiles, that they should be for salvation unto the uttermost part of the earth.—Acts 13:47.

In the unfolding and ever-widening of the program of power we are again confronted with a crucial event. It is suggestive that at this time Paul, whose name has just been changed from Saul, now assumes his place of leadership, succeeding Barnabas. Pergo, the capital of Pamphylia, was on the southern coast of Asia Minor, and Antioch, the capital of Pisidia (southern Galatia) was 90 miles north. He is now in full control and no other man save our Lord has so deeply impressed human history.

I. Paul's Opening (vv. 13-15). We are not told why John Mark returned to Jerusalem. He may have objected to the changed leadership; there may have been sickness involved; as a Jew he may have objected to Paul's zeal. His subsequent missionary zeal restored him to Paul's favor (II Tim. 4:11). Departing from Perga (v. 14), perhaps on account of an attack of fever (Gal. 4:13, 14), the party ascended to the higher altitude of the important city of Antioch, the site of which is now marked by extensive and impressive ruins. After finding lodgings they repaired to the synagogue on the Sabbath day. Here they could meet the people and would be given opportunity to speak of Jesus. Paul put himself in the way of opportunity and opportunity beckoned to him. They did not demand this privilege because they were Christian workers. Their participation in the service and other actions commended them to the respect of the leaders of the synagogue, which was the great democratic forum of the Jewish nation. The place to begin a reform is not to set up a counter organization. The best channel wherein to begin a successful evangelistic campaign is that of the visible church of Christ. Any professed Christian leader who has not a visible church relation has a doubtful value and standing.

II. Paul's Sermon (vv. 16-41). Paul began his remarks, even as Peter did at Pentecost, by quoting the Old Testament and referring to Jewish history, using the same to lead up to his testimony about Jesus. (Matt. 5:17.) "It is ours to show wherein Christ fulfilled the law, the obligation resting upon us by reason of his covenant of grace, and the blessings which issue therefrom." This is one of Paul's three recorded missionary sermons (see also Acts 14:15-18; 17:22-31). The last two were to Gentiles only. This is a scriptural discourse. (1) Messiah's people and ancestry (17-23); (2) Messiah's forerunner (24, 25); Messiah rejected (26-29); (3) Messiah risen from the dead (30-37); (4) Jesus the Justifier (38-39); (5) the application, a word of warning (40, 41). There must have been some evidence of restlessness in his audience, hence his sharp warning (41).

III. Paul's Declara (vv. 42-47). After the separation of Jews from Greek proselytes the latter besought Paul to continue his testimony literally "the Sabbath between," perhaps at the mid-week meetings. Questions and discussions were the order in the breaking up of the synagogue service, and as Paul and his company departed they were accompanied by some who had believed (v. 43). Knowing the testing which would follow, Paul and Barnabas did personal work with those, exhorting to steadfastness (John 8: 31, 32; Col. 1:23) in the grace of God (v. 38, 39; Rom. 3:24; Eph. 2:8). It is only in grace that any are able to "continue" (Rom. 5:2; Gal. 5:1, 4). It is personal work which gathers a crowd and such was the method of Paul and Barnabas during the intervening week. So well was the work done and so great was the power of their testimony that "almost the whole city" gathered the next Sabbath to "hear the Word of God." Such evident interest in this new teaching aroused the jealousy of the Jews. Years of Jewish proselyting had never secured such a result as this one address of a doubtful stranger produced. But back of this jealousy was the greater sin of unbelief. To hear the Word of God (II Titus 4:2; I Thess. 2:13) does not necessarily produce obedience and faith (Luke 8:5-7); not always the greatest number of hearers will produce the greatest number of conversions. To interrupt a speaker is not unknown in synagogues today. The opponents "contradicted and blasphemed," doubtless contending that all who hang on a tree are accursed (Gal. 3:13) and they produced a wild attempt of voices and confusion. One by one they tried to destroy the work of Paul and Barnabas could save these Jewish leaders. Human nature is the same everywhere. Let a stranger draw a crowd in any community where interest has been small and results meager and someone's envy and jealousy is sure to be aroused.

Paul and Barnabas thrived upon opposition. We believe they foresaw this development and were prepared for the emergency (v. 46). Because of long training the Jews were best fit to receive the Gospel. It was no accident that the first apostles were Jews, but it is serious business to reject the Christ, and the history of the Jewish nation since rejecting Jesus has been written in blood and tears. Paul's "Lo we turn" (v. 46) marked the Rubicon of spiritual history. Christianity is to become world wide, not by means of the Jews, but in spite of them. Paul quoted Isaiah 49:6 and Luke applies the same words to the beginning of the life of Jesus (Luke 3:22).

Questions of Man—Replies by God

By REV. B. B. SUTCLIFFE, Extension Department Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

TEXT—Only believe.—Mark 5:35.

Suppose a minister is preaching on the word "believe." A member of the audience suddenly begins to ask question and the minister answers in words from the Scripture. The first question is: Whom Am I to Believe?

"If we receive the witness of man the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his son." I John 5:9. It is not the church, nor the minister, nor any company of men the sinner is to believe, but it is God himself as he speaks concerning his son. There might possibly be some hesitation in believing what man would say, but there can be no hesitation in accepting the testimony of such a credible witness as God. The sinner is asked to believe none except the God of the Scriptures. Then another question is immediately asked, viz:

What Am I to Believe? God's own answer to this is "he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave his son. And this is the record that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his son." I John 5:10, 11. That record is the gospel concerning God's son, Jesus Christ, who was delivered for our offenses, who died for our sins according to the Scriptures, who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, and who was raised from the dead the third day according to the Scriptures. This is what God declares concerning his son, and this is what the sinner must believe in order to have God's gift of eternal life. I am to believe, on the authority of God's own testimony, that Christ died for my sins and that he rose from the dead and ever liveth to make intercession for me.

The questioner asks a third question, viz: Why Am I to Believe? Because God commands it. "And this is his commandment, that we should believe on the name of his son, Jesus Christ," I John 3:23. Again, because a refusal to believe is the same as calling God a liar—"he that believeth not God hath made him a liar," I John 5:10. Again because it is the only way to please God—"for without faith it is impossible to please him," Heb. 11:6. Again because the refusal to believe seals one's own doom. "He that believeth shall be saved and he that believeth not shall be damned," Mk. 16:16. When the people gathered to Jesus and asked him saying, what must we do to work the works of God? He answered, "This is the work of God that ye believe on him whom he hath sent," John 6:29. When the jailer asked what he must do to be saved he was told "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved," Acts 16:31.

Still another question is asked, viz: God's answer to this question is very direct, for he says, "Now is the accepted time, behold today is the day of salvation," II Cor. 6:2. Again, he says, "Today if ye will hear his voice harden not your heart," Heb. 3:7. We are continually warned not to procrastinate, "Hoast not thyself of tomorrow for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth," Prov. 27:1. "Not today" has brought many a soul to cry "To late." "Many will seek to enter in and shall not be able when once the master of the house has risen up and hath shut to the door," Mk. 13:24, 25. Not tomorrow, but today is your day of salvation.

Another question is then asked, viz: May I Believe as I am? God answers this by saying, "Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out," John 6:37. "To him that worketh not but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly his faith is counted for righteousness," Rom. 4:5. Again he says, "Whosoever will may come and take of the water of life freely," Rev. 22:17. The only class who can be saved is sinners. If one waits to become good before believing that, one will never be saved.

But another question is asked: Can I Be Saved If I Don't Believe? As we listen God replies, "Without faith it is impossible to please him," Heb. 11:6. When Peter stood before the leaders in Jerusalem they suggested practically the same question and the reply was then and still is, "Neither is there salvation in any other for there is none other name whereby we must be saved," Acts 4:12. "He that believeth not shall be damned," Mk. 16:16. There is none saved except through faith for "By grace are ye saved through faith," Eph. 2:8.

One last question is asked, viz: Can I Be Lost If I Do Believe? And to this God answers, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved," Acts 16:31. "He that believeth on the son is not condemned," John 3:18. "He that believeth hath everlasting life and shall not come into judgment, but is passed from death unto life," John 5:24. If any believing soul is lost God's word will be found to be untrue and God himself a false witness.

My unsaved reader, you are to believe God concerning his son, who he says died for your sins. God commands you so to believe and that, today. You can believe on him just as you are, there is no other hope of being saved, but once you believe you will never be lost.

Temperance Notes

(Conducted by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.)

CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION.

(Anna A. Gordon, President National W. C. T. U. and One of the National Prohibition Amendment Commission.) In order to win national constitutional prohibition two-thirds of the members of the United States senate and house of representatives must vote in favor of a bill referring the question to the various states for ratification through their legislatures. When 25 of our 48 states through a majority vote of their legislatures ratify the measure thus referred it is adopted and becomes a part of the United States Constitution. Such a prohibitory amendment is surely in harmony with the spirit of the Constitution of the United States, which, as its preamble declares, was established "to promote the general welfare and secure the blessing of liberty to ourselves and our posterity."

Nineteen commonwealths have already gained the high ground of statewide prohibition. Six states—Nebraska, South Dakota, Montana, California, Idaho and Michigan—vote on the question on November 7. Idaho in the endeavor to change its statutory prohibitory law to constitutional prohibition. The territory of Alaska also closes a prohibition campaign on November 7. If we can win this additional prohibition territory and call a roll of 25 prohibition states we shall be within ten states of our national goal. The fact that more than half the people and more than three-quarters of the area of this country are under prohibitory laws is assurance that we are fast nearing national constitutional prohibition.

All states will benefit by the amendment. All will still have power to go just as far as they desire in prohibiting any phase of the liquor traffic and will have the aid which comes from a national policy. Our greatest difficulty today is the difference in policy between the nation's government and the prohibition states. With a similar prohibition standard in the nation and the states federal and state officers would furnish "a frank and candid co-operation for the general good."

FOR THE SAKE OF BOYS.

Rev. John Empringham, an Episcopal clergyman of New York, became, as he expressed it in an interdenominational meeting of 500 ministers, filled with the thought of "how much power might be added to the anti-liquor forces if the Episcopal church would lend some of its strength," and, realizing that "none of the present antiauthority speakers have the entree to its pulpits," volunteered for the work. He said to his wife: "For the sake of our five boys, I am going to wage war against the liquor business." She replied: "My sister in Canada has sacrificed her two boys in the trenches for England. The foe destroying this country is more dangerous. I am willing to make any sacrifice." "Three of those five boys," said Mr. Empringham, "are preparing for West Point, and if the need ever came, I would be willing to see them give up their lives in defense of this country, but I am not willing to see them go down to the gutter, victims of the saloon."

RUSSIA'S FOUNDATION.

Pierre L. Bark, Russian minister of finance recently declared that Russia's prosperity is rapidly on the increase.

"Russia's finances rest upon the most solid foundation in the world," said Mr. Bark. "The economic prosperity of the Russian people is now greater than was ever conceived possible before the beginning of the war. There is nothing illusory or specious about Russia's prosperity. It rests upon the incontrovertible fact of the Russian people's increased earnings and savings. When a year ago the savings banks showed a monthly increase in deposits of 50,000,000 rubles, it was regarded as phenomenal. But that was only the beginning. Savings deposits have increased over 1,000 per cent under prohibition. This greatly changed condition of Russian finances, Minister Bark explains, "is accounted for principally by the growing thrift and economy of the peasants since the enforcement of prohibition."

CURSE OF MISSIONS.

In China the government is careful to label all poisons and it is stated that the liquor shipped from this country is labeled "The Jesus Poison." In Japan drunkenness was practically unknown until after the revolution of 1868, and now when a drunken man is seen on the street the natives say, "Here comes a Christian."

THIS IN CINCINNATI.

When the National Lumbermen's association held their annual banquet recently in Cincinnati no liquors were served. The menu card pictured three beer steins, and under them were the words, "Nothing Doing!"

GREATEST ENEMY SLAIN.

When the province of Alberta, Canada, went dry, the leaders of the prohibition forces sent the following message to Hon. Lloyd-George: "England's greatest enemy has been slain by the voters of Alberta."

SELF-PROTECTION.

There are companies and individual employers who threaten to discharge employees for drinking alcohol at any time. They do not care if that is social and economic slavery. Their main object is to protect their pocketbooks.—The Brewers' Journal.

HIGH TAXES.

Nine times out of ten taxes are higher in license territory than in prohibition territory—a fact of which anyone may convince himself upon investigation.

If you Suffer from Backache, Lumbago, Kidneys or Rheumatism, Take Hot Water and "ANURIC"

American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health. When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, when your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night, when you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your druggist—"ANURIC." Because of uric acid in overabundance in the system, backache, pains here and there, rheumatism, gout, gravel, neuralgia and sciatica result. It was Dr. Pierce who discovered a new agent, called "Anuric," which will throw out and eradicate this uric acid from the system. Dr. Pierce believes "Anuric" to be 37 times more potent than lithia, and consequently you need no longer fear muscular or articular rheumatism or gout, or many other diseases which are dependent on an accumulation of uric acid within the body. Send Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package or $1.00 for full treatment "Anuric."

Bumper Grain Crops

Good Markets—High Prices. Prizes Awarded to Western Canada for Wheat, Oats, Barley, Alfalfa and Grasses.

The winners of Western Canada at the Soil Products Exposition at Denver were easily made. The list comprised Wheat, Oats, Barley and Grasses, the most important being the prizes for Wheat and Oats and sweep stake on Alfalfa. No less important than the splendid quality of Western Canada's wheat and other grains, is the excellence of the cattle feed and fattened on the grasses of that country. A recent shipment of cattle to Chicago topped the market in that city for quality and price.

Western Canada produced in 1915 one-third as much wheat as all of the United States, or over 300,000,000 bushels. Canada in proportion to population has a greater exportable surplus of wheat this year than any country in the world, and at present prices you can figure out the revenue for the producer. In Western Canada you will find good markets, splendid schools, exceptional social conditions, perfect climate and other great attractions. There is no war tax on land and no conscription.

SUFFERING BABY RELIEVED AT ONCE

Mr. H. J. Lamar, Macon, Ga., writes: "We used Hancock Sulphur Compound on our one-year-old baby who was suffering intensely from prickly heat and a half dozen applications, in the course of 2 days, entirely relieved her. When we first applied it, she was broken out almost over her entire body, causing fretfulness and loss of sleep, but she has not suffered since. You should recommend the Sulphur Compound strongly to mothers as many children suffer so much from heat. We also used a tablespoonful in her bath for 3 days and it proved very soothing." Return to Flint and Steel.

On account of the steady increase in the price of matches, flint rocks and steel are being sold in large quantities at Soochow, in the Shanghai consular district, according to Consul General Sammons. A large number of shops are now selling these substitutes for matches, and many peddlers are also making a living disposing of these articles in and about the district. This business has been so successful that some of the Chinese retail dealers believe that, in due course, flint and steel may ultimately supersede matches, particularly so long as most of the products of this kind are imported from abroad. The imports of matches into China decreased from $4,700,000 in 1913 to $3,300,000 in 1914, Japan furnishing approximately 75 per cent of this supply.

Asking Too Much for It.

"Do you advocate peace at any price, Mr. Dubwaite?" "I do not," replied the eminent pacifist. "Then I have misunderstood your attitude." "So you have, sir. There is a disposition nowadays to make the price of peace prohibitive."

One Exception.

"All roads lead to Rome." "Not Hampton Roads. They're where the ships stop going to roam."

GLASS OF WATER Upset Her.

People who don't know about food should never be allowed to feed poor with weak stomachs. Sometime ago a young woman who lives in Me. had an attack of scarlet fever, and when convalescing was permitted to eat anything she wanted. Indiscriminate feeding soon put her back in bed with severe stomach and kidney trouble.

"There I stayed," she says, "three months, with my stomach in such condition that I could take only a few teaspoonfuls of milk or beef juice at a time. Finally Grape-Nuts was brought to my attention and I asked my doctor if I might eat it. He said, 'yes,' and I commenced at once.

"The food did me good from the start and I was soon out of bed and recovered from the stomach trouble. I have gained ten pounds and am able to do all household duties, some days sitting down only long enough to eat my meals. I can eat anything that one ought to eat, but I still continue to eat Grape-Nuts at breakfast and supper and like it better every day. "Considering that I could stand only a short time, and that a glass of water seemed 'so heavy,' I am fully satisfied that Grape-Nuts has been everything to me and that my return to health is due to it.

"I have told several friends having nervous or stomach trouble what Grape-Nuts did for me and in every case they speak highly of the food." "There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
