RESULTS TELL.

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in McConnellsburg.

Results tell the tale. All doubt is removed. The testimony of a McConnellsburg citizen.

Can be easily investigated. What better proof can be had? Mrs. D. Keyser, Main St., McConnellsburg, says: "My back ached constantly and the pains in my loins were so severe that it was almost impossible for me to bend over. I had but little strength and my housework became a burden. Just one box of Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Trout's Drug Store, cured me."

Over two years later, Mrs. Keyser said: "Doan's Kidney Pills completely cured me of kidney trouble. I am in good health now."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Keyser has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches, or pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-purifying properties of Scott's Emulsion which is food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

"There's a good Farmer!"

As you drive through the country it's easy to pick out the farmers who are progressive and prosperous. A shiftless man allows his buildings to become shabby and weather-beaten. The thrifty farmer keeps everything neatly painted with

TRUER NATIONALISM INCLUDES SUFFRAGE ROOSEVELT DECLARES

As an "out-and-out" for nation wide woman suffrage—one who has been and may again be President of the United States, takes his stand. He is Theodore Roosevelt and, here, with rings his appeal for "Truer Nationalism—Voting Not Abridged on Account of Sex."

I believe that the time has come for a greater and truer nationalism in this country. I believe in the nationalization of the issues which affect not only men, but women also.

The great problems of our country are national. In the matter of the railroads, for example, 46 different sets of laws for their regulation merely check and handicap their development and management. A universal Federal law is essential for railroads. In the same way, the question of the enfranchisement of women has become national and demands Federal action.

I therefore, heartily endorse any Federal amendment which shall substantially provide:

(1) That the right of the citizen of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States on account of sex.

(2) Congress shall have power, and it shall be the duty of Congress by appropriate legislation, to enforce the provisions of this article.

"Former President Roosevelt's announcement is particularly gratifying," the Pennsylvania State Suffrage president, Mrs. George B. Orady, said at Harrisburg, when she received the news. "because it shows that at least one man of presidential timber is fearless enough and progressive enough to stand for what he and all other leaders know truly is the 'truer nationalism,' a nationalism that bars no one from the ballot because of sex—a nationalism that gives every person a voice in the government that governs women as well as men."

John Wesley's Wife.

John Wesley married a widow Mrs. Vezile, who grew tired of his restlessly laborious life and complained. He paid no attention, and from complaint she went on to jealousy, thence to fury. He rebuked her sternly: "Do not any longer contend for mastery, for power, money or praise. Be content to be a private, insignificant person. Of what importance is your character to mankind? If you were buried just now or had never lived, what loss would it be to the cause of God?" She left him, taking with her a large number of his private papers, and he dismissed the subject by writing in his journal: "I did not forsake her. I did not dismiss her. I shall not call her back."

Little Edwin's Plan.

Little Edwin's weekly allowance was 1 cent each day, provided he took his cod liver oil each morning regularly, and each Sunday the 7 cents which he saved during the week was put into the contribution box at Sunday school.

One Monday night Edwin rushed breathlessly in from school and climbing into the cupboard he got the bottle of much despised medicine and took it to his mother, saying: "Ma, I guess I'll take this week's physic in advance. Bill Brown an' I's goin' to the movies tonight, an' I need the money."—Judge.

Bismarck's Philosophy of Life.

With dutiful trust in God, dig in the spurs and let life, like a wild horse, take you flying over hedge and ditch, resolved to break your neck, and yet fearless, inasmuch as you must some time part from all that is dear to you on earth—though not forever. If Grief is near, well, let him come on, but until he arrives do not merely look bright and blossomed, but be it, too; and when sorrow comes upon you bear it with dignity—that is to say, with submission and hope.—From the "Love Letters of Prince Bismarck."

Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Stiver and their daughters Louise (Mrs. A. A. Burke, of Altoona,) and Miss Margaret, accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Ayres and little daughter Betty, of Bedford were guests in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Nace and the Editor and his wife, Monday night and Tuesday. They were accompanied home Tuesday evening by Mrs. Nace, who will remain with them until next Sunday.

LESS WORK - More Done - Greater Leisure. Illustration of a woman cooking.

Perfection is always ready to boil, fry, bake, roast—to do any kind of cooking without any preliminaries. Have your dealer show you its fireless cooker, its separate oven and all its other refinements. And it burns kerosene, the cheapest of fuels—burns it slowly. But don't be satisfied with just any kind of kerosene. For just as butter differs from oleo, Atlantic Rayolight Oil excels ordinary kerosene. So to get best results from a Perfection, use Atlantic Rayolight Oil, for it's the kerosene that gives the most heat to the gallon, that burns without sputter, smoke or smell. That is always the same. Buy it from the dealer who displays this sign. Costs the same as the unknown, unreliable kerosene. New PERFECTION Oil Stove. Illustration of the stove. In short you will find the White reliable and desirable from every point of view. Be sure to see the White dealer who will be glad to show you how good a machine the White is. If there is no White dealer handy, write us direct for catalog. We do not sell to catalog houses. Vibrator and Rotary Shuttle Machines. WHITE SEWING MACHINE CO., CLEVELAND, O.
