CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Mr. S. A. Nesbit attended the Perry County S. S. Convention at Blaine last week.

All kinds of feed from Wellers Mill for sale at all times at George B. Mellott's Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Knepper and family made a trip to town last Saturday in their Studebaker.

Mrs. Nellie Peck and son Robert who had been in Philadelphia during the past three months returned to their home in this place last week.

Mrs. Annie De Hart, of Mercersburg, and her daughter Lillian (Mrs. J. B. Doyle) of Harrisburg came yesterday noon to spend a few days among relatives in McConnellsburg.

Mrs. A. J. Fisher, of Foltz, spent the time from Saturday until Monday in the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Druggist and Mrs. Leslie W. Seylar, North Second street.

Levi Hinsh, of Bedford County and Clara Ritchey, of Wells Tannery were married in McConnellsburg, yesterday by Justice-of-the-Peace Amos D. Peightel.

Mr. O. E. Hockensmith, of Cameron, Ill., and his brother John, of Saluvia, were in town yesterday. O. E. has been home since last December, but is going back to Illinois for the summer, to-day.

Mrs. Martha McIntyre and sister Miss Nettie Knauff were among the one hundred seventy-six guests that attended the Knauff and Fraver reception, May 6th, held at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fraver, near Waynesboro.

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Yearick are spending ten days visiting at the former's old home in Center county, Pa. They expect to return Sunday, May 27th in time for evening service in the Presbyterian church. There will not be any services on Mr. Yearick's work here next Sunday. Mr. Yearick has not entirely recovered from the effects of the grip he had in the winter.

SALUVIA SUMMARIZINGS.

Miss Maria Betz, of Harrisburg, J. W. Hoop and daughter Miss Sallie of McConnellsburg, Mrs. I. W. Schooley and Mrs. Richard Y. Schooley of this neighborhood spent the time last Monday in the cemeteries at Asbury, Greenhill and Siloam, cleaning up, grading, and sodding the graves of deceased relatives.

Andrew S. Brant, with his grandson James Kellar at the wheel, recently visited Andy's brother George near Williamson, Franklin county. They invited Mrs. J. A. Stewart and daughter Miss Sara to a seat in the car who accepted, and in this way were able to have a very pleasant visit in the home of Wm. J. Brant and family, near Lemasters. They returned home Monday afternoon after having had a most enjoyable trip.

Lewis H. Wible, of the Agricultural Department, Harrisburg and his brother David, of Otto, recently paid a visit to the home of J. A. Stewart and family at Greenhill, and to the home of their parents, Benjamin Wible and wife, and other relatives at Knobsville. On his trip Mr. Wible is making observations on the crop prospects of cereal grains and fruits in Licking Creek and Todd townships.

What may truthfully be termed the greatest invasion of caterpillars known to residents of Licking Creek Valley, and from reports—throughout the County is now infesting fruit trees of all kinds, as well as the Wild Cherry and young Chest trees. This plague will undoubtedly injure—if not totally destroy—many valuable fruit trees, unless farmers and orchard men put up a vigorous fight, and get busy quick. The writer has destroyed more than one thousand nests of them and has waged a relentless war against them since their first appearance. The best remedy we know of since the nests are so large—is to soak corncobs in kerosene, and burn the nests, care being taken not to burn the tree more than can be avoided.

Memorial Day.

The observance of Memorial Day will be such that probably no old soldier's grave in the County will be neglected. The Odd Fellows are warming up to their task of having a Red Letter Day at Warfordsburg. Dr. Remsburg will deliver the address of welcome; Rev. Charles Beard, the response; and addresses will be made by Hon. S. W. Kirk, Miss Jennie Smith, and Rev. C. W. Taneyhill. Mr. Kirk and Mr. Beard are well known locally, and Miss Smith is a railroad evangelist of national fame, and is one of the foremost platform orators in the United States.

McConnellsburg will have formal services that day. A meeting of representatives of King Post, G. A. R., the Sons of Veterans, and the Ladies Relief Corps, met and outlined the following arrangements: Rev. Jackson will preach the Memorial sermon in the auditorium Sunday morning, May 28th; and at 1 o'clock on Memorial Day, at the Auditorium there will be a mass meeting when Parker R. Skinner, of Chambersburg, will deliver the Memorial Day Oration. Of course there will be the usual program of music, recitations, &c.

The ceremonies at Union cemetery will be held at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Special memorial services will be held at Zion church on Timber Ridge on Decoration Day. Meet at the church at 10 o'clock. Good speaking, music, and recitations.

Birthday Party.

A preaching appointment took Rev. and Mrs. John Mellott from home on Saturday and Easter Sunday. When they returned home Easter Sunday evening they were not a little surprised at seeing so many persons about the house. The first thought that shot through their minds was, that something terrible had happened. Mrs. Mellott was taken from the buggy and rushed into the house by Frank Skiles and Sheridan Hann; but when the door was opened and she saw a well filled table with everything ready for a big feast, it occurred that her friends were pulling a joke over on her, for then she remembered that it was her fiftieth birthday. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. John Mellott, Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell Truax, Mr. and Mrs. John Strait, Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Hann, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mellott, Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Truax, Mr. and Mrs. David Hann, Mr. and Mrs. Brether Waltz, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Garland, Mr. Jordan Deshong David Hollenshead, Andrew Swope, George Mellott, Roy Truax, Charlie Hann, Calvin Mellott, Frank Skiles, Judson Deshong, Webster Mellott, Roy Mellott, Mrs. Hester Mellott, Gladys Deshong, Nellie Garland, Jessie Truax, Rhoda Garland, Barbara Garland, Thesta Deshong, Laura Mellott, Verna Garland, Grace Garland, Viola Mellott, Bertha Garland, Mary Mellott, Esta Waltz, and Nevada Mellott. Mrs. Mellott was the recipient of several beautiful and useful gifts.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

Max H. Sheets took Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Reisner, and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reisner, and their daughter Miss Minnie over to Everett last Sunday afternoon in his Overland for a little outing which they enjoyed immensely. The party thought the Lincoln Highway just "great" from the summit of Rays Hill to Everett.

GRANT BAKER.

A. L. WIBLE, Auctioneer.

N. A. Baseball Number.

Connie Mack and Pat Moran are the star contributors to The North American's twelfth annual baseball supplement, which appears Sunday, May 21.

These famous managers, in specially prepared signed articles, discuss the building of championship baseball teams, a subject which they should know, since between them they have produced in the last fifteen seasons more pennant winners than any other city has had.

In that interval Philadelphia has had six championships in the American League and one in the National, as well as three world's titles. Father Penn, as the city of baseball supremacy, is the subject of the attractive first page in color, the work of Artist Morris Pancoast.

James C. Isaminger, The North American's noted baseball humorist, presents an entertaining article, in which he deals with the foibles and personality of the fan. Joe Cannonball, cartoonist and conductor of the Dumbies Pezzie Department, illustrates Mr. Isaminger's articles.

George M. Graham, sports editor of The North American, draws a picture of what happens on the bench during the excitement of big league contests, all the heat of play, the grim humor, the lightning flash of the players' minds, all being brought vividly to the mind of the reader.

Ross E. Kauffman is there strong with a couple of pages of school and college baseball. There is the usual roster of local clubs, announcements by the minor leagues and illustrated forecasts of many teams through the state.

Feed for Young Pigs.

Before weaning young pigs it is well to accustom them to a grain mixture or a slop of sweet milk combined with grain. The Pennsylvania State College Agricultural Experiment Station has obtained excellent results with a grain mixture of corn meal four parts, and tankage one part. The addition of skim milk increases the rate of gain. If skim milk is fed with this grain mixture the amount of corn meal may be increased to six parts. Other mixtures recommended are corn meal eight parts and tankage one part, or skim milk three parts and corn meal one part.

If possible pasture crops should be used for growing pigs. For quick growth of pigs, two to four pounds of grain per hundred pounds live weight daily in addition to pasture crops is required. The amount of grain fed should be governed largely by the appetite of the pigs. They should be fed all they will consume without waste twice daily.
