Runyan the Eye Man at

Harrisonville, Monday, July 17th
Saxton, July 18 and 19.
Coalmont, July 20.
Three Springs, July 24.

Rev. J. L. Grove's two congregations voted him a month's vacation last Sabbath.

Twin Gypsies were born while a band of these nomads were encamped near town last week.

The Oak Glen Concert Band will hold a festival on Saturday evening, July 22nd, at Siloam.—Committee.

The Boy Scouts held a festival last Saturday evening in front of the Court House. They cleared between $35 and $40.

Last Saturday, 500 factory employees at Hagerstown, were vaccinated, one of the employees had contracted smallpox.

Mr. and Mrs. Logue Wink, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Mellott, of Needmore, were among the distant shoppers in town Saturday.

Mr. James A. Stewart, Green Hill, took advantage of an opportunity to make an easy trip to town by auto last Thursday, and said "Howdy" to the NEWS office.

Walter Shepherd, of New Concord, Ohio, is expected to arrive in Big Cove to-day, to be the guest of his grandfather, Mr. David M. Keddall, for a part of the summer.

Hon. Peter Morton and youngest son recently took the largest drove of stock to Fort Loudon that has crossed the mountain for many years. The drove consisted of thirty-odd cattle and over a hundred sheep. The stock was loaded on cars at Fort Loudon.

A few days ago, John Mellott son of Jacob Mellott, was thrown from the rear end of their auto as it rounded Horse Shoe Curve on the west side of Cove mountain, at a rapid rate. John was hurled across the road and received many severe cuts on his face.

Prof. Ira L. Peck, who during the past year has been principal of the Leech Business College at Indiana, Pa., is now at Bowling Green, Ky. At the recent meeting of the Zanerian Penmanship Teachers' Association, in Columbus, O., Ira was on the program for one of the discussions.

A few weeks ago, the newspapers of the country were unanimous in their agreement that the present presidential campaign would be clean, owing to the gentlemanly dispositions of the two candidates. They were right—as far as they went, but why are the organs making it "dirty"? We have not seen a single argument offered by either side that would change the vote of any thinking man. On the other hand, the general tone tends to belittle Americans in the estimation of foreign countries that are now watching us as never before. Better let up, gentlemen, on so much about "National Honor," and study the effects of our word tending to "National Dis-Honor" or else be consistent and throw dignity to the winds.
