Engineer F. M. Taylor came home for a breath of Valmont pure air last week. It is pleasant up there "In the shade of the old apple tree." McConnellsburg is surely blessed with pleasant retreats within easy reach.

In company with Samuel W. Hart and family, of Kennett Square, Pa., the Editor and his wife had the pleasure of visiting Thomas R. Starr and family at their home in Eastern Shore Maryland. Mr. and Mrs. Starr went to that section more than a dozen years ago, and have had no reason to regret the step. They own a fine truck farm, and are handy to market. As a side line they conduct a nice little country store.

Our friend John Keebaugh, of Hustontown, spent a few hours in town last Saturday. Mr. Keebaugh is a veteran of the Civil War, and while he is in his 78th year, he is as active as one many years younger. He enlisted in the fall of 1861 and saw four years' service. He was in Captain H. S. Wishart's company, and he fought under Buell in the battle of Pittsburgh Landing, and in many other battles. Like many other boys from the country John was used to handling a gun before he went into the service, and it was the country boys that made the most effective marksmen.

Return Day.

It is getting to be popular in some localities to observe a day each year on which all borrowed articles are to be returned to the rightful owners. What a commotion would be created in McConnellsburg if such a day should be faithfully observed here! We fancy the scene would be about as follows: With blushing faces, Mrs. Judy would send home Mrs. Purdy's flat irons; Mrs. Purdy would hasten to return Mrs. Jinks's kettle and the eleven cups of sugar that she borrowed at that many different times. Jinks would suddenly think of the books she "borrowed" from Mrs. Shakespeare, and Mrs. S. would run ker-plunk into Mrs. Jasper as each hastily turned the corners to return the dress patterns borrowed from the minister's wife. The air would be full of umbrellas, dishes, garden tools books, magazines, brooms, groceries, spices, and even money would now and then be seen slyly passing from hand to hand. A day like that in McConnellsburg would be funnier than a box of monkeys.

Rev. Horace Sipes, of Blairsville, brought his niece Erma Kennedy, home last Monday after she had spent two weeks in the Sipes home.

We are selling more corsets since we handle Warners than we ever did. When people come in and tell you that they never had a corset to fit and wear like the Warner, and the price isn't any higher than for goods that are no good 50, 95c and $1.25, try a Warner and you will not wear any other.

The time of year is here for flies, and the flies are here. We have the goods that will fix them—SO-BOS—SO—75c. gallon. Cyclone lawn fence, cheaper than pickets and paint, at 10c foot.

We still have a few sets of buggy harness at old prices. They are going to be higher.

Screen doors well made at $1.00 and $1.25 each.

Steel spring hinges at 9c pair. Men's 36 and 39 inch work shirts we are still selling at 45c. Overalls haven't advanced with us yet. We have a good stock. Also, shoes at old prices. We anticipated an advance in shoes and did buy a nice lot.

Thanks for the nice increase in our business. Call and be convinced that we can save you money.
