Family Reunion.

Recently, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Baker, at Clear Ridge, had been improved by a new yard fence, cement walks, paint, and other touches of the artist's hand until it was very neat and attractive. A family reunion was then suggested, and Friday, August 18th was the day selected. The weather man was kind and gave them an ideal day for the party. Forty-one sat down to a grand dinner. Four generations were present. John Henderson, of Mapleton, aged 85 years, was the oldest. Next were his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Baker, who gave the party. Mr. Baker is 68 years of age, and his good wife is 62. The names and location of Calvin and Mrs. Baker's children are as follows: Hester, wife of John Evans, Weyers Cave, Va.; Myrtle wife of Frank Madden, Maddensville; Rae, wife of Philip Hileman, of Altoona and not present on account of Mr. Hileman being in the hospital; William and wife, of Juniata; Elsie, wife of Jesse Bloom, of Tyrone; Nellie, wife of Howard Everhart, Wood, Pa; Miss Dorothy, of Dixmont, Pa; Miss Jemima, of Juniata, and Clair, of Pittsburgh.

Grandchildren of Calvin and Mrs. Baker are as follows, Lillian, Fred, Mary, Clarence, Richard, Vaughn, and Robert Madden. Elsie, Calvin, and Freda Hileman none of the Hilemans being present on account of Mr. Hileman's illness. Don and Mildred Baker, and Althea Bloom.

Other relatives present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Conner and son Frank; Mr. and Mrs. Will O'Conner; Mrs. George Wagner and daughter Phillis; Mr. Joseph Baker and son Harry; Mrs. Susan Baker, and Mr. R. N. McCare—all of Mapleton, Pa. Miss Alice Powell, of Philadelphia; Mrs. J. A. Henry and daughter Jessie; Miss Alice Kerlin and son Arthur; Mrs. Lewis Winegardner and children—all of Clear Ridge, and Miss Emma Kerlin of Pittsburgh. John Evans was not able to be present, on account of pressing business. Mr. and Mrs. Baker's pastor, Rev. George B. Reidell, of Hustontown, was one of the guests.

This was the first time in many years that a majority of the Baker children have been at home at one time—all being there except Rae as stated above. Before leaving for their respective homes, Rev. Reidell made a very appropriate short address.

Governor to Be Here.

Chairman of Farmers' Institutes, Mr. Frank Ranck, has been notified by C. E. Carothers, Director in the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, that Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh will start on September 12th to make a three weeks' tour of the State in the interest of agriculture. The Governor and his party will be in McConnellsburg on September 26th, and Mr. Ranck has requested that as many farmers and others as possible meet the Governor's party on top of Tuscarora mountain and escort them to town where Mr. Brumbaugh will deliver an appropriate address. Mr. Ranck thinks that the Cove farmers should by all means arrange to escort the party as far as Webster Mills and back, to show them the fertile farms of that section. Speaking editorially, we know that the wonderful producing power of the farms in Big Cove is a revelation to outsiders, and that whenever strangers are introduced to the pleasing home conditions of the Cove they advertise us in no uncertain manner. The Governor and his party are out to learn facts concerning all sections of the State. Do not let them pass by the very door of one of the most wonderful spots without seeing it.

Lake--reagley.

On August 22, 1916, at the M. E. parsonage, in McConnellsburg, Mr. Bruce C. Lake and Miss Maud Feagley were united in marriage by Rev. Edward Jackson. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lake, near Needmore, and the bride is a daughter of Mr. William Feagley, near Big Cove Tannery.

Birthday Party.

Last Wednesday evening while Mr. Frank Deavor and Mr. Norman Gladfelder, of Clear Ridge, were out trying one of Frank's new cars, a crowd gathered at Norman's place, and when they returned home and saw so many people it reminded Norman that it was his 20th birthday.

Those present were: Miss Lulama Laidig, Mrs. H. C. McClain, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Chesnut and daughter Helen; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fisher, Mrs. B. H. Shaw, Mrs. Harry Wible, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deavor and son Herbert and daughter Veda; Goldie Reeder, Sallie Fields Pauline Kirk, Chloe Chesnut, Mame Wink, Sarah Mellott, Mrs. Simpson Mellott, Edna Winters, Wilma Winters; Miss Howard, Lona McElhaney, Minnie Gladfelder, Mrs. Drew Laidig, Fern Lamberson, Minnie Denisar, Grace Gladfelder, Mr. and Mrs. John Gladfelder; Geo. Mumma, Jamie Keller, Fred Lamberson, Gerald Fix, Johnie McElhaney, Norman Gladfelder, John Sipe, Harmon McElhaney.

The evening was spent in roasting corn and playing games. Ice cream and cake were served. Norman received many nice presents one of which was a 25-dollar gold piece presented to him by the Sunday school class of Hustontown. At a late hour they departed for their homes wishing Norman many more happy birthdays.

George W. Reisner & Co.,

McConnellsburg, Penn'a.

An Example of Pluck.

George L. Reisner, son of our townsman J. G. Reisner, made up his mind several years ago that he would master the science of agriculture. Since then, he has been attending State College where, under instructors at the Agricultural Experiment Station he has made great progress. A part of the course consists of actual work on the farm during vacation. Each summer finds him hard at work at every variety of hard, easy, nice, and nasty jobs on a farm. This summer he spent his vacation on a big farm near Clear Spring, Md., and on Thursday of last week, he returned to McConnellsburg in great feather and feeling as fine as a fiddle. He will return to State in about two weeks.

We have recited this story for the encouragement of other young men of Fulton county. Not all of them can take the long courses followed by Mr. Reisner to prepare himself for superintendency and advisory duties, but not one boy in the County is too poor to get in touch with the College by mail, at no cost, and by using the "old farm" for the basis of practice, he can obtain a complete scientific education that will prove of incalculable value to him later. Education will be the foundation of future leading farmers just as surely as it is now the foundation for the Bar, the Pulpit, and the management of great business interests.

From Our Exchanges.

While John Morgart, of near Gapsville, was driving a team of four mules from one farm to another two weeks ago, lightning struck a tree near where the team was passing, knocked all four mules down and killing one of them. Mr. Morgart was riding one of the mules and his son another, but, fortunately were not hurt.

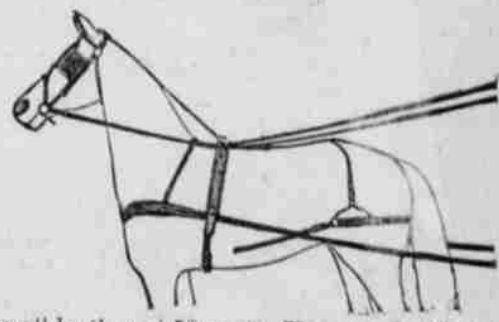

John A. Cessna, manager of the Arandale Hotel, Bedford, was found dead in bed Thursday morning of last week. He was 74 years of age.

of Frank P. Lohr, 'East End, Bedford county, died last week from having eaten poisonous mushrooms.

Have you a boy or girl who is "backward" at school? Did you ever try to find out if the unfortunate one could see to study the lessons? Surprise yourself by finding how many boys and girls are afflicted in that way. They do not know it. It is up to the parent to find a remedy. It would be criminal to neglect to do so before another term opens.

Juniata College.

Forty years of successful history and usefulness. Nine buildings of brick and stone with modern equipment, on grounds of twenty-three acres. New Science Hall with laboratories of Physics, Biology, Chemistry and Home Economics. Faculty of College and University trained teachers. Eight courses of study leading to diplomas. The spirit of the College is culture and Christian. Its aims are practical; Vocational Studies emphasized.

Dormitory life. Gymnasium and Athletics. Emphasis on Public speaking. Strong record in intercollegiate debate. And important for most parents and for the self-supporting boy or girl--the rates are quite moderate.
