Readie--Bell.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Readie, San Bernardino, Calif., on Saturday, July 12, 1916, Miss Laurella Sophia Readie was married to Mr. Raymond C. Bell.

There were no attendants. The bride wore a wedding gown of white crepe de chine, with the skirt in small box plaits, with hemstitched hem, and the bodice with deep yoke effect of cream color lace, one of the lovely designs made on the Island of Malta. Below the yoke the fullness was smocked and held with tiny pearl beads. The bride carried no flowers, but wore as her chief ornament with very tender association of memory, a beautiful gold bar pin, on which is mounted two handsome diamonds, the stones being large and very beautiful, the pin being the gift of her father, who has been in government service in Panama for several years, and was unable to come north at this time, as he is returning next year.

The bride's mother was a Miss Greer, who several years ago lived near Knobsville.

WEST DUBLIN.

Lloyd King tried to drive a rusty shell into an old revolver. The shell exploded severely injuring Lloyd's eye. Dr. McClain took Lloyd to Philadelphia one day last week to have the eye treated. It is hoped that the eye will not be permanently injured.

Monday and Tuesday of last week were the warmest days of the summer. Somewhat of a difference between those days and the corresponding days of this week.

Last Friday morning four dusty (not dusky) maidens from this township might have been seen on a hike to the reunion. They did the hiking for exercise. In the evening they returned by auto.

Elliott Kirk is getting ready to build an addition to his barn.

Those of our farmers who had not finished plowing for wheat found the ground too dry the latter part of last week. The rains Saturday and Monday were quite welcome.

For the land's sake our farmers are hauling lime. Some are hauling from Everett and others from the Martz kiln in Dublin township. Lime is what pays.

Ira Lake had a carload of phosphate shipped to the Ruchley Sidings in Wells Valley last week. He expects another car shipped to the siding on Lincoln Highway Sidling Hill.

Church Notices.

Preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning. At the Hebron Reformed at 2:30, and in the evening at the Reformed church in town.

Rev. Jacob Powers will preach at Laurel Ridge the first Sunday in September at 10:30. [Editors note:—Sunday school was also announced for 9:30. But since Sunday schools for children under 16 years of age may not be held in this state before September 18th, the school announcement was probably an error.]

Rev. Croft will preach next Sunday at Siloam at 1:30; Ebenezer at 2:30, and at Asbury at 7:30.

Opening of Schools Postponed.

The following communication has been received by County Superintendent Thomas, from Samuel G. Dixon:

"The State Department of Health of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has decided that all schools, public, private and parochial in this State be closed until Monday, September 18, 1916, with possible readjustments then with reference to geographical position, age, and attendance of resident pupils."

Appreciates Donations.

Mrs. Mary Campbell, near Knobsville, is rejoicing because of the free-handed kindness of a lot of neighbors who gave her a surprise party on her birthday, August 28th. Instead of bringing good wishes only, they brought butter, coffee, corn, wheat, and many other presents, all being mixed with liberal quantities of that ingredient, the love of which is the root of all evil, but nevertheless, acceptable to rich and poor alike. Mrs. Campbell hopes that the Giver of all good may prosper these friends an hundred fold.
