A social will be held in the grove at Dublin Mills, Saturday evening, September 9th. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. Grace Bender is improving her property on north Second street by the addition of a nice bath room.

Mrs. Frank Mason went to Mercersburg Thursday of last week to stay over night with a nephew, and next day she went with a party to Gettysburg.

The Licking Creek, Brush Creek and Belfast Sunday School Convention will be held at Green Hill Presbyterian church, Sunday October 8th.

Mrs. Emma Robinson received a telegram last Saturday from her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Elder, of Albany N. Y. announcing the birth of a little son.

Miss Olive Pittman entertained a few friends at tea last Friday in honor of Rev. and Mrs. J. V. Royer, of Millinville, who are spending a short vacation in McConnellsburg.

The Port Royal, Pa. Fair will be held this year September 12 to 15 inclusive, with the last three days as the "big days." Children under 16 years of age will not be admitted.

J. Newton Morton came home from State Forestry Academy last week and received many congratulations for having successfully passed the requirements of the State in that institution.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

Mrs. John Castle, of Beach, N. Dak., in remitting the cash to make her subscription good to 1918, says that the crops in her state are not nearly so good this season as first reported. Owing to severe hail storms, and the presence of black rust, there is not more than half a crop.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Shaffner entertained the following friends from Sunday until Tuesday. A nephew, Mr. A. V. Shaffner and his wife of Huntingdon; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hammer, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Elsie Peoples, of Washington City. On Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Shaffner and their house guests went to Gettysburg.

What a happy combination when a lady owns a nice car that behaves well and lets her run it! Such seems to be the case with some of our friends—one in particular, Mrs. Marshall McKibbin of Washington City. Her latest treat to friends was a trip to Hancock last Friday, when she took a party composed of herself and son George McCaulley, and Mrs. Wilson L. Nace and daughter Helen, and Blanche Patterson to spend the week-end with their friends.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is a food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

Surprise Party.

The pastor and members of the City A. M. E. church decided to have a surprise party for Miss Nora Watson, so laden with baskets containing such delicacies as these good ladies know how to prepare, they assembled at her home last Thursday evening and with Prof. Howard, of Steelton, Pa., at the organ, the evening was most pleasantly spent. At a late hour the guests returned to their homes, carried with them the deep gratitude of the hostess, and feeling that it was good to be there.

Miss Watson is one of Delaware's successful teachers, and she will return to her school September 29th.

Is Very Sick.

Mrs. William Tauscher, of Roulette, Pa., was in Buffalo last week to consult a specialist, who found her condition to be quite serious. She returned home in the evening of the same day.

Mrs. Tauscher was formerly Daisy Polk, of Knobsville, and an efficient nurse at the County Home in Potter county. She has many friends who will be grieved to learn of her delicate health and who will hope that she may recover.

Concrete Popular.

Amos Peightel and Robert Flemming are having the concrete walk extended from the Hoke-Henry property to the blacksmith shop, and all three properties have had some concrete work done inside the yards and at the rear of the buildings. E. R. McClain had the blocks removed from front of his residence on north Second street, and a solid pavement laid. The blocks were used in the rear of the building for new walks. Contractor Ralph Reed has had his hands full this summer doing concrete work.
