Closed to Hunting.
Twenty-six counties in the State are closed to hunters for seasons of various lengths. The counties closed are chiefly those recently re-stocked with game and fish, the object being to enable the game and fish to multiply to an extent that the natural increase may offset the numbers killed each year hereafter.
For several years, especially since the advent of the swift auto, Fulton county has been the Mecca for hunters from every county west of us. Great quantities of all kinds of game were taken out. This cannot possibly go on indefinitely without depleting our stock of game. We venture the assertion that there is not a spot of like extent in the State that is hunted as hard as Fulton county, and at the same time there is no county in which the local hunters have done as little to coax their share of attention from the State Game Commission. Last spring, six Ringneck Pheasants and twelve native quail were turned loose near McConnellsburg, and to the best of our knowledge, this is all we have received for the $1,800 turned in during 1914 and 1915 by the local hunters.

*Born 'neath
Virginia's sunny skies*

From the sun-bathed fields of Virginia comes the finest-quality cigarette tobacco on earth. Tobacco experts say so.

And it is this highest-grade Virginia tobacco that is in Piedmonts—they're ALL Virginia! Golden, lively, mellow as Virginia's sunshine itself.

That refreshing liveliness in a cigarette, that is known as character, is present from tip to tip in Piedmonts—because none but Virginia tobacco can give this character to a cigarette.

VIRGINIA TOBACCO PAYS NO DUTY—
ALL THE VALUE IS IN THE CIGARETTE.
"A package of Piedmonts, please".

Leggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

An ALL Virginia cigarette—
Piedmont
The Cigarette of Quality

Monticello, Thomas Jefferson's residence in Virginia

NOTE:—The duty on the Turkish tobacco that goes into a 5c package of so-called blended cigarettes is greater than the cost of the tobacco itself. But Piedmonts, made of highest-grade Virginia tobacco, have all the value in the cigarette—because there is no duty on Virginia tobacco—no ocean freight—no marine insurance, no wasteful handling.

What It Costs.
About this time of year many of the people are figuring on what it will cost to keep a boy in college. That is just the point. When the liability rests upon the parent, the cost may be rather high, but when it rests upon the boy, matters are different. If the boy is interested he finds ways to cut down expenses and earn revenue, and look after his end of the account. There are cases in this neighborhood in which boys have gone through college and come out with money in their pockets and no debts over their heads. Nearly every college has a series of scholarships which may be won and ten there are jobs which go begging for some one to take them.

District S. S. Conventions.
The Sabbath School Conventions held on the 16, 17, and 18th at Pleasant Grove, Ft. Littleton, and McConnellsburg were great successes. The various organizations are thus rejuvenated, and plans laid for attendance at the York State Convention, October 11, 12, and 13th. All persons wishing to attend this Convention should call on or correspond with the County Secretary W. C. Patterson, McConnellsburg, who will furnish Delegate Cards and give any information needed.
