Will Visit Our Town Every Month.—Rubin and Rubin Harrisburg leading Eye Specialist will be at Seylar's Drug Store Tuesday and Wednesday October 3 and 4. Will examine your eyes free. No drops used. Gold Filled glasses guaranteed, as low as $1.00.

Bruce Stoner erected a neat sign last week for Druggist Seylar.

Mrs. George Morton and Miss Murnie Rummel were shopping in Chambersburg last Friday.

Attention is called to the changes in the time table of the Western Maryland Railway in this issue.

The very best "mixer" in our town is Ralph Reed's concrete machine. Its company is greatly in demand.

The powder works at Mt. Union experienced its first serious accident last week when an explosion killed six men.

Wonder who got it "in the neck" this week for killing game out of season. "Little Birds" seem to have a fashion of telling tales out of school.

It is hoped that there will be no more beastly slaughter of female deer and fawns this fall before or after the season opens, as there was last fall.

Nick Roettger, who is employed in Chambersburg, spent the week-end with his family in this place. He was accompanied by Mr. Edwards, a friend from Richmond, Va.

Roy Deshong in his auto, brought John Calvin Horton and H. L. Wishart—all of Wells Valley, to McConnellsburg last Friday to attend a Democratic committee meeting.

With loaded shells so much higher in price than in former years, hunters should try to make every shot count this fall. But who ever thinks of cost as long as game is in sight?

A hot-air heating plant placed in the Fulton House will replace stoves throughout the building. This of course, is modern. But many patrons enjoyed the cozy wood fires in their rooms.

Real Estate Agent D. H. Patterson, of Webster Mills, on Monday sold the C. Murray Ray farm in Ayr township to Hoyt Glenn for $5,650.00. Possession given the first of next April.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipea pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

Mrs. Clarence Gobin and children Charles and Katharine, and Miss Etta Snyder, all of Knobsville, were among the busy shoppers in town last Friday, and they did not forget to call at this office.

This is the glad time of year when we may see and measure the fruits of our summer labors. Even the wild things of the woods and fields seem to rejoice and revel in the abundance of food and comforts.

Mrs. Welles H. Greathead and the twin son and daughter came home from the Chambersburg Hospital last Saturday. The little strangers are named respectively Wellesley Hux, Jr., and Edna Virginia. Mother and children are enjoying good health.

A petition to Town Council was circulated this week requesting the abatement of certain automobile nuisances, namely, that speed be limited to 15 miles an hour, cutouts be kept closed, and lights be dimmed, and that engine testing be prohibited outside of the garages.

METZ

The Quality Car, The Car that Won the Last Glidden Tour, With a Perfect Score and Still Retains It.

The car that any man or woman can drive with safety. The car that has been thoroughly tried on mud hills and rough roads. The only car that could go down the Grand Canyons and come up under its own power. The car that won the hill contest at Uniontown, Pa., in Australia, N. Y., and many other places. The car that has an axle that cannot be broken—no clutch to slip, no gears to strip, seven speeds, a speed for any hill. There is no hill too steep for a 1917 Metz with the silent chain. The Metz is the car that will run 25 miles on a gallon of gas, 80 to 100 miles on a pint of oil. The car that has a one man mohair top, electric lights and starter, both large and small lights, dash lights, 108 inch wheel base, wire or wood wheels, 32x3 1/2 inch tires, clincher or demountable rims.

This famous car which recently sold for $600.00, now sells for $545 F. O. B. Waltham, Mass.

AGENTS WANTED.

Here's a mighty good proposition for you. It makes no difference what your occupation is, you can clean up a lot of nice money, handling the Metz, and at the same time help your friends to get the best car at the least money. Write for further information or catalogue to the
