Tag Day.

Last Thursday McConnellsburg enjoyed its first "Tag Day." Tag days have become popular in many towns. It is a favorite way of collecting funds for purposes of a public nature. Nice young ladies (the prettier the better) are given a handful of little tags, and one is fastened to every person met on the street that day. The tagged person is then supposed to contribute something toward the desired fund. The Civic Club of McConnellsburg collected a little more than forty dollars on Thursday. The money will be used in some manner for the greatest benefit to the town. The ladies who collected the funds are to be congratulated for the zeal displayed in the faithful performance of the arduous duties, for it meant a hard day's work.

A REAL MAN

It is pretty hard to assert your independence and defy the world, when you have an empty stomach and an empty pocket book. If your bluff is called, then what?

The prudent man who has saved a little, who has a reserve at the bank to tide him over a month or two, isn't so afraid of sickness nor such a coward about being out of a job. A bank account is a stimulant to real manhood. The larger the account the firmer the footing. It breeds self-confidence, is a proof of efficiency, and an ever-present resource in time of need. It's not what a man earns in a year, that gives him a surplus at the bank, it's what he saves.
