

Pictures of World Events for News Readers

In This Department Our Readers in Fulton County and Elsewhere May journey Around the World With the Camera on the Trail of History Making Happenings.

STATE NEWS BRIEFLY TOLD

The Latest Gleanings From All Over the State.

TOLD IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Harrisburg's new hotel is to be called the Penn-Harris.

C. M. Schwab is having a new private car built that will cost $50,000.

By a vote of three to two, Chester voted to borrow $500,000 for new school buildings and equipment.

The State Treasurer received a check for $108,000 from James B. Sheehan, Register of Wills of Philadelphia.

The weather through the Lehigh coal fields has been so abnormally warm for this time of the year that May flowers are again in blossom.

Golden Thompson, employed at the Baker quarries, Billmyer, was badly injured when he was caught between cars.

The bond issue to increase Mahanoy City indebtedness to $70,000 to equip the fire department, carried by a 2 to 1 vote.

By a vote of 4 against 1 for, the voters of Topton opposed a loan bill calling for $25,000 for erecting a new town hall, water and electric light plants.

Reuben E. Miller, 78 years, a retired drover, is dead at his home at Packerton, after a lingering illness. He was one of the wealthiest men in Carbon county.

While Mrs. Rudolph Granzow was cleaning the stairway of her husband's shoe store, at Asbland, she tripped and was precipitated to the bottom of the stairs. She was killed outright.

Mrs. Frank Pardee, of Hazleton, wife of the retired millionaire coal operator, has inaugurated a series of bridge parties to raise funds for Red Cross war relief in Europe.

A large addition is being built to the Mauch Chunk Silk Mill, one of the business industries in Carbon county and which has been running night and day for many years.

The State Industrial Board Approvals Committee at a meeting received numerous applications for approval of safety appliances, a number being for moving picture machines.

A fatal sunning accident occurred near Townville, when Frank Wood received a charge of birdshot in his left side from a gun fired by his brother on attempting to shoot partridge.

Statistics prepared by the Anthracite Bureau of Information show a decrease in anthracite shipments for October, this year, as compared with the same month last year.

The number of subscriptions secured in the Cumberland Valley practically have assured the construction of the new Dickinson Law School Building. Ground will be broken this fall and the building completed in time for a dedication next August.

With the lighting of the fires at North Cornwall furnace, the last of the nine blast furnaces in Lebanon county, was put in operation. North Cornwall stack was virtually abandoned fifteen years ago, when the Lackawanna Iron and Steel Company took over the three furnace plants of the Freeman estate at Cornwall.

Mrs. Rachel Smith, the widow of the late Peter Smith, of Lansford, who died on October 1 as the result of being struck by an automobile occupied by George, James, Charles and John Breslin, of Condale, had warrants sworn out for their arrests. She charges them with deliberately running down her husband with their auto.

Out of sixty-three members of John M. Good Post, No. 502, Grand Army of the Republic, organized at Elizabethville, only three remain. The Post was chartered November 12, 1885, and the survivors are Dr. Nissley, H. C. Reem and G. M. Hornafus. The Post was named after John Good, who was killed in the battle of Petersburg.

Amos Frederick, while in the woods near Dalmatia hunting game, was about to climb over the trunk of a tree when a squirrel appeared in front of him. Before he could bring his gun to action another hunter close by opened fire on the squirrel, most of the shot striking Frederick. He was removed in a critical condition to the State Hospital.

The turkey crop in Berks county is normal. Farmers have been selling a few during the last week at prices ranging from 30 to 35 cents live weight and 40 to 42 cents a pound dressed. The turkey crop fared well in their growth during the dry fall months, but the wet weather during spring was rather hard on the young birds and quite a few died. Those that survived are nice and fat.

The Hon. William D. B. Ainsley, of the State Public Service Commission, will be the principal speaker at the tenth annual meeting of the Cumberland Valley Federation of Women's Clubs, which will meet in Mechanicsburg, November 16.

Farmers near Conspport say that many elk are visiting their farms daily, and feeding on their crops. The elk are supposed to be those placed in the State Game Preserve at Hickory Run, which frequently scale the enclosure and roam about.

SCHOOL FOR FOREIGN EMPLOYEES OF HOTELS

Under the direction of the board of education, a school to educate the foreign bus boys, kitchen men and waiters of the large hotels, has been opened in New York. Mrs. Florence Anglo, a teacher in the public schools, is in charge. It is the purpose of the board of education to train them in all branches of English, particularly elementary grammar. The class meets daily in a room in the Hotel Majestic.

NIAGARA FALLS ILLUMINATED AT NIGHT

Niagara Falls in all its beauty illuminated at night. The picture was taken from Goat Island, and shows the brink of the American falls. The picture is considered a remarkable photographic achievement. About 50 feet behind the position of the camera is a bank of 30 arc lights, and to the left of the picture, directly at the foot of the falls, there are two banks of lights.

CENTENARIANS, BORN IN SLAVERY, HOLD REUNION

Former slaves held their fifty-fourth annual reunion in Washington the other day, and former slave owners met with them. In this group, from left to right, are: Luis Martin, one hundred years old, born in King and Queen county, Virginia; Martha Elizabeth E. Banks, one hundred and four years old, born in King and Queen county, Virginia, and owned by the late Jim Tribble; Amy Ware, one hundred and three years old, born in King George county, Virginia, and Rev. S. P. W. Drew, born free.

GREEK REBELS IN FRENCH UNIFORMS

Greek rebel troops, dressed in French uniforms and carrying French rifles, marching through a main street of Saloniki to meet the king's loyal forces.

SHELL CASE IS HIS CUP

A drink of cool, fresh water often helps in the midst of battle. As about the only drinking utensils are instruments of war, the soldier isn't particular what he uses. The old shell case that this soldier is using answers the purpose very well.

BELGIUM'S MEDAL OF GRATITUDE

The Belgian government, to show its appreciation of the acts of kindness that have been bestowed on the war-ridden country, has created a new war decoration to be known as the Queen Elizabeth medal. The government states, in announcing the issuing of a new medal, that it will be conferred without any distinction of nationality.

MRS. THOMAS A. EDISON

New and hitherto unpublished photograph of Mrs. Thomas A. Edison, wife of the "wizard of electricity," taken at her home at Llewellyn Park, N. J.

DESTRUCTION OF ZEPPELIN OVER BELGIUM

This picture shows how Lieut. L. J. Richards of the Royal Flying Corps is alleged to have destroyed a huge Zepplin over Belgium. While doing scout duty, Richards discovered the Zepplin over the German lines, and, rising high in the air, he gave chase to it and managed to explode the petrol tank of his victim. The picture is alleged to have been made from an airship belonging to the allies that witnessed the great battle in the air.

IN THE NEULLY HOSPITAL

A scene in the American ambulance hospital at Neully-sur-Seine, France, showing a wounded French soldier taking his first steps after a long convalescence, under the direction of one of the many charming American nurses who are performing their mission of mercy in the French hospitals. There is a crying demand for more American girls in these hospitals.

Unforeseen Accidents.
Two true types of near accidents are mentioned in a recent issue of the National Safety Council. One can be made harmless by proper safeguards; the other type is seemingly unforeseeable, and unpreventable. The first is the bursting grinding wheel, which injures no one because of the use of safety flanges. The second was an actual accident in a manufacturing plant, in which the head of a sledge hammer, long in use, broke in two lengthwise and flew off violently, narrowly missing a man's head. In this instance there was no flaw visible on the outside of the hammer head, and although the surface of the break showed the rust of time, all along its edges was a narrow margin of clean gray metal.

PREMIER HUGHES AND HIS FAMILY

An attempt was made recently to assassinate William M. Hughes, the Australian premier, at his home in New Victoria. While the premier and his family slept it is said a man forced the window of the bedroom and fired a shot. The bullet did not take effect. The assassin escaped.