Coming.

Harrisburg's Leading Eye Specialist will be at Seylar's Drug Store, McConnellsburg. For one day only, Tuesday, December 5th, from 8 a. m., until 9 p. m. They will fit you with a pair of gold filled glasses to suit your eyes for far or near, in gold filled frames either nose glasses, spectacles, or straight frames for $1.00.

Hon. John P. Sipes sold his farm in Cumberland county last Saturday.

Mrs. John P. Conrad got out of bed and sat in a chair a short time last Saturday—first time for four weeks.

Mrs. Sue Bivens returned home a few days ago after having visited her daughters in Ayr township for a week or ten days.

Preaching services next Sabbath in the Presbyterian church in the morning, at Hebron at 2:30 and in the evening in the Reformed church.

Rev. W. M. Cline, of Fort Littleton, recently purchased the lot on which DeKalb Wilt's house was burned in that village. Rev. Cline intends to build a neat cottage on the lot.

The Ladies Aid Society will hold a box social at Knobsville, November 25th, for the benefit of the M. E. church. Everybody come and have a good time by helping the cause along.

Taking advantage of the school vacation in Chambersburg caused by the County Institute, Kathryn and Floella Finiff, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. N. I. Finiff, are spending this week with their Fulton county relatives.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

Miss Jessie Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gray, of Bethel township, is suffering from a sore on one of her feet caused by chafing of a shoe. All efforts to heal the sore have failed and Miss Jessie's condition is serious.

Sam Mellott had 26 'coons, fully that many 'possums, 7 minks and 6 skunks to his credit last Saturday, and expected to add several more 'coons that night. Several days ago, Sam was offered $300 for his pair of 'coon dogs. He refused the offer. Mr. Mellott's fur sales will amount to a sum that justifies the refusal of $300 for his dogs.

Miss Elsie Grove, niece of Rev. J. L. Grove, spoke to as many people last Sabbath evening as could be crowded into the U. P. Church. Miss Grove returned on furlough last summer from the Egyptian Sudan in which country she had spent four years as a missionary. She presented her subject in a convincing manner, leaving no doubt in the minds of her hearers that the women of the Sudan are entitled to help from the men and women who were born in Christian America and of Christian parents, not because of any personal merits superior to those of the Sudan women, but because it just "happened."

License Notice.

IN THE COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS OF THE PEACE OF FULTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA.

It is ordered that all applications for license for the sale of vinous, spiritous, malt or brewed liquors, wholesale or retail, for the year 1917, will be heard on Tuesday, the 14th day of January, 1917, at 10 o'clock, a. m. of said day, at which time all persons applying or making objections to applications, will be heard by the court, petition, remonstrance or counsel.
There must be no communication at anytime on the subject, with the Judges personally either by letter or in person. The petition, verified by affidavit of applicant, shall be in conformity with the requirements of the act of Assembly. Judgment bond shall be executed in the penal sum of two thousand ($2000) dollars, with not less than two reputable freeholders of the county of Fulton as sureties, each of them to be a bona fide owner of real estate in said county worth over and above all incumbrances, the sum of two thousand ($2000) dollars or one sufficient surety where the same is a Security. Trust or Surety Company organized and existing under the laws of this Commonwealth or under the laws of any other state of the United States of America, duly authorized to do business within the State of Pennsylvania by the Insurance Commission or thereof, to be approved by the Court granting such license and to be conditioned for the faithful observance of all the laws of this Commonwealth relating to the selling or furnishing of vinous, spiritous, malt or brewed liquors, or any admixture thereof, and to pay all damages which may be recovered in any action which may be instituted against the licensee, under the provisions of any Act of the Assembly, and all costs, fines and penalties imposed, upon said licensee under any indictment or verdict of any Act of Assembly relating to selling or furnishing liquors as aforesaid. If any person is surety on more than one bond, he shall certify that he is worth not less than ($4,000.00) dollars over and above all incumbrances, and over and above any previous bond he may be on as surety. The sureties may be required to appear in Court and justify under oath.
The Court shall in all cases refuse the application, whenever, in the opinion of the Court, having due regard for the number and character of the petitioners for and against the applicant, such license is not necessary for the accommodation of the public and entertainment of a large and traveling, or that the applicant is not a fit person to whom such license should be granted.
Petitions must be filed with the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions not later than Saturday, the 18th day of December, 1916. Objections and remonstrances must be filed with the Clerk of said Court not later than Wednesday, the 27th day of December, 1916.
Upon sufficient cause being shown or proof being made to the Court that the party holding said license has violated any law of the Commonwealth relating to the sale of liquors, the Court shall, upon notice being given to the person licensed, revoke said license.

By the Court,
DONALD P. McPHERSON, P. J.
Attorney,
B. FRANK HENRY, Clerk Q. S.
Nov. 28, 1916.

First in Franklin

Edward B. Diehl plowed the Gen. Dixon farm near St. Thomas last week with a three-way gangplow and a tractor. The gasoline driven steel "mule" pulled the triple sheared plow along at a fast pace and turned loam up from quite a depth. The citizens of that advanced agricultural community were greatly pleased with the tractor and its work. This is said to have been the first tractor owned and operated in Franklin county.

The pupils and teachers of the public schools of McConnellsburg bought very handsome flowers and floral designs for Roy Lininger's funeral which took place last Sunday. Roy was a member of the intermediate grade of the school.

THE FARMER.

The farmer is the man who feeds us all. If the farmer should quit work the whole world would have to go out of business. He is the important factor in the world to-day—always has been—always will be.
This bank has many farmer patrons. Farmers are conducting their business along modern lines these days, the same as other business men. They are the solid, reliable men of the community and every bank has reason to feel proud of its farmer friends. The accommodations of our bank are always at the disposal of the farmers. You are invited to make our bank your headquarters when in town. Our interests are mutual, and we will be glad to serve.
