Hon. D. H. Patterson and family have removed from their old home at Webster Mills and taken apartments in the Post Office Building, where they will reside until the completion of their new house in South Extension.

Last Saturday evening two persons were run down on the streets of Chambersburg by automobiles. In both cases it appears that the drivers of the cars were not blamable, the persons injured not heeding the signals of the traffic officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Winters, Thompson township, spent a few hours in town shopping Monday, and were pleasant callers at the NEWS office. They told us that the typhoid fever patients were all convalescing, but that the community was in the midst of an epidemic of measles.

The monthly meeting of the Civic Club will be held at the home of Mrs. B. W. Peck, Friday evening at 7 o'clock. All persons interested in making the town a better one to live in are invited to unite their efforts with this club, and be present at its meetings. It is a matter that should interest every citizen in the town and community.

December 20th.

Owing to the advance in the price of the NEWS from $1.00 to $1.50 a year on and after December 20th, quite a bunch of new subscribers have been added to the list. You, people, who have been intending to subscribe for the NEWS but have just put it off, had better get in before the 20th and save a half a dollar. It is also hoped that every one in arrears for subscription will get squared up by that date. It will be better for us all around.

Pigs and Kerosene
Agricultural colleges experiment to ascertain the best feeding methods for pigs. By scientific study they determine what will practically assure success and profits.
What has this to do with kerosene? Just this: scientific research by experts has produced a kerosene for you to feed your lamps and oil stoves—a kerosene so highly refined, so pure in form, that it is called to distinguish it from ordinary kinds. It will not smell, smoke or char the wicks. You can have a brilliant yet soothing light and a steady, room-filling heat without fussing with burners, trimming wicks and turning the flame up and down. When used in lanterns it gives a clear, far-reaching light. And it costs not a penny more than ordinary kinds. Always ask for it by name.

Watch for the sign—Atlantic Rayolight Oil For Sale Here. You're likely to find it a reliable place to do most of your buying. When the wind howls, and the snow packs along the windows, it's a heap o' comfort to have a barrel of Atlantic Rayolight Oil on hand. Don't take it home unless the brand name is on the barrel.
