Preaching December 10.—Asbury, 10:30 Ebenezer, 3 p. m. Siloam, 7:30

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson L. Nace spent Thanksgiving with friends in Hancock.

Those who spent Sunday in the home of C. E. Goben and family were: Mr. Wm. Secrist, wife and three sons Samuel Ellis and John, Big Cove.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

Advertisement.

Clarence Cooper moved last week from the Gilbert farm, now owned by Harry Hamil, to the S. A. Nesbit farm in Todd township and Robert Hamil, moved into the house vacated by Clarence Cooper.

Mr. Sheridan Deshong and family of Pleasant Ridge motored to Bedford last Saturday and spent the time until Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowser, South Richard Street. Mrs. Bowser and Sheridan are sister and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan W. Deshong were in town last Friday with a load of marketing and to do some shopping. They had some fine pound apples, and they were "pound" apples for they easily weighed sixteen ounces. Mr. Deshong had several apples with him that were second-crop apples this season. The first crop matured about harvest, and the second crop set and grew to considerable size, when their growth was arrested by the cold weather. Mrs. Deshong has been in poor health for some time, and part of her errand to town was to consult one of our local physicians.

Our room is 27 ft. wide by 60 ft. long. So you can imagine it is hard to name and price many things. But one visit to our daylight store, will convince you like it does convince some every day, what it means to deal at the Goldsmith Store. Nearly every day some customer says, I have been dealing at such and such a store and didn't know this big store was in town." We don't give tickets, but let you take with you, the same in value.

Don't Be Deceived.

You get the papers, and you know different from what you did a few years ago. Our Store is opposite the Public School, McConnellsburg. GOLDSMITH & COMPANY.
