

Housework is A Burden

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ills life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many McConnellsburg women. Read what Mrs. Clevenger says:

Mrs. Lucinda Clevenger, McConnellsburg, says: "My back ached badly and I couldn't do my housework. I had dizzy spells and chills and was annoyed by the kidney secretions. Often swellings appeared under my eyes and I was very nervous at night. I was troubled by rheumatic twinges. Doan's Kidney Pills removed all signs of the trouble. I procured them at Trout's Drug Store."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Clevenger uses. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Missionaries Returning.

After an absence of almost seven years as missionaries in China, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Humphrey left Ningyunfu, China, on the eighth of November for a return trip to America for the accustomed seven-years vacation. As they do not have any Chicago Limiteds in China, it will take them until the 1st of March to reach Shanghai, and by the middle of April, they will have crossed the Pacific and be under the parental roof of Mrs. Humphrey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baumgardner at Wells Tannery.

Wells Tannery, lying at the head of a beautiful valley nestled in the foothills of the Alleghenies, may well be proud of the fact that it is the home of two missionaries—Mrs. Humphries (Maud Baumgardner) just returning from China, and Miss Alice Wishart who spent several years in India.

Strait—Theobold.

Mr. David E. Strait, of Hustontown, and Miss Ida Theobold, of Greensburg, Pa., were united in marriage at Hustontown on Wednesday of last week by Rev. Geo. B. Mc. Reidell, of the M. E. church. The bride is a skilled trained nurse. Mr. and Mrs. Strait have the best wishes of their friends.

New Milk Service.

On Monday, January 1st, Geo. K. Nelson will begin a daily milk service to the people of McConnellsburg. The price will be 3 cents a pint. Seventeen pint tickets will be sold for fifty cents.

Sale Postponed.

Owing to circumstances that have arisen since advertising for a sale to be held on Wednesday the 20th of December, Bryan Mellott, 1 mile west of Pleasant Ridge has postponed his sale indefinitely.

An auto-party composed of Mr. and Mrs. John Carmack and son Ellis, Mrs. Jesse Carmack and daughter Laura, Miss Olive Wible and Vernon Kerlin—all of Clear Ridge—drove to McConnellsburg last Thursday for the entertainment at the Auditorium.

The Laurel Ridge Christian Sunday School will meet at the church on Sunday, December 24th at 10 o'clock to receive their treat.—Nellie Hess, Secretary.

Peace in Sight.

The world is rejoicing on account of the fact that on Tuesday, Germany, together with the allied central powers, proposed to treat for peace with the entente allies. The United States, Switzerland, Spain and the Vatican are suggested a Committee to bring about a settlement that will make for lasting peace. As a result of this announcement by Germany, the bottom fell out of the industrial issues in the stock market, and grain and cotton got a severe jolt.

Wm. L. Spade, aged 36, son of John G. Spade near Hancock, died in Nebraska, on the 2nd inst. His remains were brought home and laid to rest at the Lutheran church Buck Valley. Fuller notice next week.

Mrs. Emma Kendall Henderson, of Tarkio, Mo., is visiting her mother Mrs. Margaret Kendall and other relatives in the Cove.

RECORD OF DEATHS.

MRS. RACHEL HUGHES.

Mrs. Rachel Hughes, widow of the late James Hughes, died at her home in Pigeon Cove on Thursday, December 6, 1916, aged 76 years, 10 months, and 4 days. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. Dr. Webster, of the Presbyterian Church Hancock, took place on Saturday, and her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at the Presbyterian church at Warfordsburg. She had been afflicted with rheumatism and heart trouble for a long time, and death came suddenly.

Mrs. Hughes was a Presbyterian and an excellent woman. She is survived by one son and five daughters, namely, William at home; Sallie, wife of Frank T. Fost, Sideling Hill; Catherine, wife of Ellsworth Hendershot, near Warfordsburg; Margaret, wife of Leonard Eichelberger, Hagerstown; Mary, wife of David Kerns, Warfordsburg, and Jeanette, wife of a Mr. Ward, residing at Pattersons Creek, W. Va.

MRS. JOHN A. DESHONG.

Mary E., wife of John Adam Deshong one mile east of Andover, aged 52 years and 4 days, died Monday night, December 4, 1916, as a result of an attack of pneumonia, contracted after she had recovered from measles.

The deceased was a daughter of Jacob M. and Delilah Deshong. She is survived by her husband and four children, namely, Allison J., Dotte, wife of Todd Carbaugh of Big Cove; Beckie J. and Pleasant at home. She has one sister, Harriet.

The funeral was held on the following Wednesday, the services being conducted by Rev. Nathan T. Bishop, of Hustontown, and interment was made in the cemetery at the Sideling Hill Christian church.

MRS. RACHEL SHIVES.

Mrs. Rachel Shives, widow of the late B. F. Shives, died at her home on Laurel Ridge in the lower end of Ayr township on Thursday, December 7, 1916, aged 54 years, 10 months, and 26 days. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. Leidy Yearick, of the Reformed Church, McConnellsburg, took place the following Sunday morning, interment was made in the cemetery at Damascus church in Thompson township.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Andrew Shives of Thompson township and was an excellent woman. She is survived by two children, Raymond and Miss Florence at home. Mrs. George B. Evans, of Sharpe, is a sister.

W. S. CRAWFORD.

Walter Scott Crawford, aged 31 years, 1 month and 25 days, died at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Levi Crawford in Buck Valley on Sunday December 3, 1916. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. John Bennett, of the Brethren church, and interment was made in the cemetery at Mayes Chapel in Bethel township. His death was the result of an attack of typhoid fever and he was ill only a few days.

Besides the parents he is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Howard of Williams; Mrs. Browning, Williams; Mrs. Theodore Fletcher, Crystal Springs; Curtis, Guy, Mary and Ida, at home.

MRS. M. L. KIRK.

Fannie, wife of M. Luther Kirk, died at their home in Hustontown early Monday morning, December 11, 1916. While she had been in somewhat frail health for a long time, she was only seriously ill since the preceding Friday. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon and interment was made at Fairview. She is survived by her husband and one daughter Essie.

Mrs. Kirk was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Copenhaver, and she was born in Wells Valley. She was a member of the Presbyterian church, and a most excellent wife and mother.

JERE KOPE.

Jeremiah Kope, aged 67 years, died at the home of his brother John L. Kope near Burnt Cabins on Sunday, December 3, 1916. The funeral took place on the following Tuesday, the services being conducted by Rev. Kauffman, of Fannettsburg and interment was made at Dry Run. Mr. Kope was unmarried and he died as the result of a stroke of paralysis.

Educational Meeting.

A local institute was held Friday evening, December 1st, at Scott's school, at which the following questions were discussed: 1. Giving and with-holding assistance. 2. What makes a good teacher? 3. Grammar, How taught? The following teachers were present: Misses Erma and Vergie Gress from Bethel; Mr. Wilmer Mason from Licking Creek; Mr. John Kelson from Dublin; Miss Mason, and Messrs. Wagner, Kerlin, and Mock from Todd.—Lois Mason, Secretary.

Miss Emilie Reiser and Miss Edith Martin of Chambersburg visited Miss Mildred Mock from Thursday until Monday.
