Published Every Thursday.

B. W. PECK, Editor and Proprietor

McCONNELLSBURG, PA.

JANUARY 4, 1917

Published Weekly. $1 50 per Annum in Advance.

Entered at the Postoffice at McConnellsburg, Pa., as second-class mail matter.

Twice Proven.

If you suffer backache, sleepless nights, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's McConnellsburg evidence—doubly proven.

Mrs D Keyser, McConnellsburg, says "My back ached constantly and the pains in my loins were so severe that it was almost impossible for me to bend over. I had little strength and my household became a burden. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Trout's Drug Store, cured me."

Doan's made a cure. Over two years later, Mrs. Keyser said: "Doan's Kidney Pills completely cured me of kidney trouble. I am in good health now."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Keyser has twice publicly recommended. Foster Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

BRUSH CREEK.

Mr. M. A. Barkman spent part of last week in Whips Cove where he visited the schools.

Mr. John Truax, of Wells Tanery, spent latter part of last week in the home of Mrs. George W. Hixson.

Miss Lena Williams is spending a few days with her sister Mrs. N. B. Hixson.

Miss Elizabeth Hixson spent latter part of last week in the home of her uncle M. J. Hixson and family.

Mr. J. R. Jackson returned from the hospital, last week greatly improved.

Proverbs of Savages.

The proverbs of savages are shrewd and pithy. The Basutos say, "The thief catches himself," the Yorubus, "He who injures another injures himself," the Wolofs, "Before healing others heal yourself." In Accra they say, "Nobody is twice a fool," among the Oji, "The moon does not grow full in a day." "The poor man has no friends." A Pash to proverb says, "A feather does not stick without gum." Others are, "A razor cannot shave itself," "Cross the river before you abuse the crocodile," "Perseverance always triumphs," "The thread follows the needle," and "Preparation is better than afterthought."—Westminster Gazette.

Thought Well of Themselves.

Gibbon wrote in his diary: "I am the greatest historian that ever lived. No one can equal me in this direction."

Victor Hugo wrote to Bismarck: "The giant greets the giant, the foe the foe, the friend the friend. I hate thee furiously because thou hast humbled France. I love thee because I am greater than thou art." And Wordsworth said of the "swan of Avon": "There is an immensity of trick in all he wrote. If I had a mind I could write exactly like Shakespeare."

A Grudging Spirit.

Much depends on the way a thing is done. An act which might be taken as a kindness if done in a generous spirit, when done in a grudging spirit may be felt as harsh and even cruel. When Ben Jonson lay ill in poverty the king sent him a paltry message, accompanied by a gratuity. The sturdy, pain-stricken poet's reply was: "I suppose he sent me this because I live in an alley."—Samuel Smiles.

A Change.

"That young Stebbins boy says he's going to the city to make a name for himself," said the village gossip.

"I don't blame him a mite," said the village postmaster. "I always said his parents had no right to saddle a youngster with such a name as Adoniram Ebenezer."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

One Disadvantage.

Potts—"It is a great deal better to own your own home and not have to pay rent, isn't it?"

Lotts—"Well, yes, in a general way it is, but it has its disadvantages. A fellow can't go round driving nails anywhere he pleases in the woodwork of his own home, you know."—Boston Transcript.

Subscriber for the "News" only $1 50 a year

JANUARY HONOR ROLL.

Names of New Subscribers and Others Who Paid Subscription During the Month of December.

The News has "sure some" Honor Roll this month, for which it takes pardonable pride, and it greatly appreciates this evidence of loyalty and support to the FULTON COUNTY NEWS.

The subscription price of the NEWS is now $1 50 a year in advance. The high price of everything connected with the production of a newspaper is such that no man can get out a weekly the size of the Fulton County papers at a dollar a year without a financial loss on every copy. There are a few tender-foot publishers that are struggling along in hope that something will turn up by which they will be relieved the unpleasant task of increasing the price. But business is business. When the time comes that farmers cannot afford to sell wheat at a dollar a bushel, eggs at 12 cents a dozen, butter at 10 cents a pound, ham at 8 cents a lb at $5 a ton, they just don't do it, and they ask more money. There is nothing unreasonable about the advance in the subscription price of newspapers, and wide-awake publishers everywhere are advancing the price.

Prior to 1899 everybody that took a Fulton County newspaper paid $1.50 a year for a paper only half the size of the present papers and thought nothing of it. They did this when it took more of every kind of produce a farmer had to sell to make $1.50.

Seventeen years ago the Editor of the NEWS gave the people of Fulton County a newspaper at a dollar a year, and the price has remained at a dollar since that time. But now conditions have changed. The paper, upon which the printing is done, cost at that time 2 cents a pound; now it costs 6 1/2 and still advancing. Ink has gone from 4 to 14 cents, type is out of sight, and still advancing. There is simply nothing else to do, than put up the price or get out of business.

And just a word more in this connection. We waited as long as we possibly could to make the change, in the hope that the war would be over or that something would happen by which prices of other things would come down. It has been with mature deliberation that the price has been advanced. And now that it has been done WE WANT TO BE FAIR. It would not be honorable to charge one person a dollar, and another a dollar and a half. So kindly DO NOT ASK US TO LET YOU STAY IN AT THE OLD PRICE. Of course, you may have been a playmate of the editor's grandfather or you may have made chestnut whistles for the editor when he was a boy; you may have been one of those very much appreciated friends who gave the NEWS a boost when it started and when the editor very much needed friends; but YOU WOULD LOSE RESPECT FOR HIM, if you knew he let somebody else have the paper for a dollar, and charged you a dollar and a half. If you find that you cannot really afford to pay $1.50 just tell us kindly to discontinue the paper and we promise not to feel sore about it. The editor has to do the best he can to make a living and he wants to give everybody else the same chance.

Look over this list and if you find that you are not credited up right, kindly notify us at once.
