WHAT MILITARY TRAINING WILL DO FOR BOYS

The photographs of two enlisted men taken before the enlistment and after five months' service, Lieut. Col. James B. Allison of the Second South Carolina Infantry, now in the federal service at El Paso, Tex., shows these photographs as the most pronounced evidence of the good in universal military training. From left to right: Private Tobe White, Company K, First North Carolina Infantry, who comes from Buncombe county of that state, and Private W. C. Bryson of the same company. The photograph on the left was taken last August while the one on the right shows the same men January 20, 1917, five months later at Camp Stewart, Texas, showing White a gainer of 80 pounds and Bryson heavier by 50 pounds.

TORPEDO STARTING ON DEADLY MISSION

Wonderful photograph showing a torpedo just leaving the tube on its deadly mission. It is not often that the camera catches the torpedo as it comes out of the tube, probably headed for an enemy craft. All matter concerning what description of vessel the torpedo is being fired from, and of what navy it is a unit, has been withheld.

RECORD BREAKER OFFERED GOVERNMENT

Carl G. Fisher, shown at right of illustration, has offered to the government his express cruiser Shadow III, which is capable of a sustained speed of miles an hour and is an ideal craft for chasing submarines. Mr. Fisher, a well-known amateur sportsman of Indianapolis and the builder of the Shadow III, is in that city.

Got Her Share.

Evangeline was home from college for a vacation. Late one afternoon she came in during a downpour of rain. "Evangeline," said her mother, "were you out in all that rain?" "No, mother," said Evangeline. "I was merely in a portion of the rain that descended in my immediate vicinity."

INAUGURAL COURT OF HONOR ILLUMINATED

PROPOSED NATIONAL MONUMENT TO BUFFALO BILL

The national monument to Col. William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) will be modeled on the figure shown in this photograph. The site of the monument on Lookout mountain, Denver Mountain parks, upon which the figure stands, has been dedicated for that purpose by the city of Denver. The mounted figure of Colonel Cody is a reproduction from the Pappacena painting, executed by the noted Italian artist, which Colonel Cody preferred even to the canvas painted by Rosa Bonheur.

STEEPLEJACK'S RISKY JOB

Taking chances with his life is an old story to Steeplejack Louis Bingham, and he made light of the job of untangling a flag on a pole jutting out from the twenty-first story of the Municipal building in New York. A fairly heavy snowstorm at the time made Bingham's job a bit uncomfortable, but he finally succeeded in untangling the torn flag.

MERRY MUSIC MASKED AGONY

Sir Arthur Sullivan's Self-Mastery is Cited as an Eloquent Inspiration to Others.

At the time that he was composing the music for "Pinafore," one of the merriest of operas, Sir Arthur Sullivan was suffering from a most painful disease. There was hardly an hour while the work was on that he was not at the verge of fainting. If Sullivan could keep his labors unaltered of groans, how much easier it must be for us who seldom experience such sufferings. It takes but little self-discipline to keep irritation to oneself, to force cheerfulness to maintain the upperhand of depression, to present a brave face to all about us. The person who says that come what may it shall find him unafraid has won the greatest thing in life, the mastery of his own spirit.

WOMAN COULD HARDLY STAND

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Fulton, N. Y. — "Why will women pay out their money for treatment and receive no benefit, when so many have proved that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will make them well? For over a year I suffered so from female weakness I could hardly stand and was afraid to go on the street alone. Doctors said medicines were useless and only an operation would help me, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved it otherwise. I am now perfectly well and can do any kind of work." — Mrs. NELLIE PHELPS, care of R. A. Rider, R.F.D. No. 5, Fulton, N. Y.

We wish every woman who suffers from female troubles, nervousness, backache or the blues could see the letters written by women made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 Cent Bottle of Danderine Right Now—Also Stops Itching Scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, luster and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp. Not Attracted. "Some day you'll be rich enough to retire from business." "Give up my nice, pleasant office and stay home?" rejoined Mr. Growcher. "I should say not."

The bee is never too busy to administer a stinging rebuke.
