There was a geneal turn-out at Pine Grove last Sunday to hear the new M. E. preacher Rev. Frownfelter. His sermon was inspiring and full of gospel messages.

WHIPS COVE.

Abner Mellott and Simon Layton are on the sick list. Mrs. Elizabeth Mellott, of Hancock, visited friends in the Cove last week. Nathan Mellott and wife visited D. C. Mallott's last Sunday. Minnie Diehl and Ethel Hoopengardner visited Belle Mellott last Sunday, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Diehl and son and daughter Marshall and Rintha, were at Carey Layton's. Homer Mellott will soon have his garage finished when he will be ready for the auto repairing business.

D. C. and M. H. Mellott are enthusiastically engaged in the poultry business. They are each keeping their zinc hens on the nest all the time. Rev. E. F. Mellott filled his appointment at Yellow Springs, W. Va. last Sunday, after an interim of two months. Alfred Layton made a hasty trip to Bedford county last week with his car well filled with Whips Cove people. Jacob Miller is wearing a broad smile. It's a boy. Vernon Mellott had a heater to get its leg broken a few days ago, and as a result he had to butcher it. We are glad to report that Mrs. Nathan Mellott is able to be around again after having been housed up all winter with a broken ankle. The men are busy in the fields and the women, in the garden. Wallace Mellott was breaking his 2-year-old mule last week. Marshall Diehl is expected to work at the auto-repairing business this summer. Chester Layton has purchased the Andy Mellott farm and expects to move upon it the middle of this month. Palmer gave an oyster supper at her home for the benefit of the Needmore Band. The proceeds were much appreciated by the "boys." Bennet A. Truax and wife visited in the home of Joseph Truax last Sunday. Mack Mellott and family spent Sunday in the home of Clayton Deshong.

WARFORDSBURG, R. R. I.

People have been trying to sow oats and make garden, but the cold weather has caused more time to spend chopping wood on the woodpile. Lewis Clark was a caller at Job Truax's last week. Albert Deneen is making an addition to his poultry house. William Clark and mother and sister Annie were visitors at Stephen Fischer's one day last week. Samuel Truax is burning a two-eye limekiln. Mrs. Ada Clark was a visitor in the home of her father Lewis Clark a few days ago. Hazel and Dell Carnell were at Alfred Peck's last week, and Wilbert Layton and wife and son were at the same place Sunday. The Easter services at Pleasant Grove were well attended. Alfred Crawford has moved his sawmill to Mr. Downes' to do a job of sawing. We are glad to hear that William and John Truax are getting better.

Our old friend Uriah W. Kline, who has been spending the winter in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hess near Bethlehem church, has moved down on his old home place on Licking Creek where he and his son George expect to farm during the coming year. The farm is now owned by Frank Hess.

RACKET STORE G. W. Reisner & Co.

Well, last week we told you we had the agency for Dr. Hess's Stock Remedies—Disinfectants, Pan-a-cea for chickens, and all the rest of his remedies. We have heard of people who were not getting an egg a day, that after using a package or more, are now getting 8, 10, and 12 eggs a day. Isn't this paying? And hogs, sheep, and cattle—equally good results.

Shoes Shoes

As you all know, shoes are advancing in price, but we are glad to say that we are still able to sell a great many shoes at old prices. As long as we have them at the old prices we will sell this way, so we think it will be to your advantage to buy early.

Wire and Wire Nails.

We bought a carload of wire and wire nails last October which did not reach us until the 10th of January; and it was lucky that we did buy early, for the wholesale price has made several advances since that time. We are now offering wire fence to you at prices we would have to pay, if we were buying now. As long as this lot lasts you will get it at January prices.
