Air Resistance in Tunnels.
When a train goes through a tunnel the resistance of the air is an important factor, experiments having demonstrated that it measures 13.86 pounds per ton of train weight in the Simpson tunnel, as against only 8.8 pounds in the open air, a difference of over 50 per cent. This is when the train is running at 37 miles an hour in the direction of the ventilating air current; when running in the opposite direction the resistance increases to 20.46 pounds.

Business Head.
Cohenstein (to lawyer)—"My wife jumped in front of a railroad train and a policeman pulled her off der track. Could I sue der city for damages?"

No Rest--No Peace
There's no peace and little rest for one who suffers from a bad back, and distressing urinary disorders. McConnellsburg people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Be guided by their experience.
Riley Peck, shoemaker, McConnellsburg, says: "I was troubled with my kidneys and had soreness in my back. I was dizzy at times and it affected my eyes. I had to get up often at night on account of the kidney secretions and I was tired out in morning. The doctor gave me only a little relief. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Trout's Drug Store, gave me great relief."
Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the name that Mr. Peck had Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Faith Sublime.
We wonder if there ever was a woman whose faith in her husband was so absolute that when she found the small shreds of a letter in a feminine handwriting in his wastebasket she didn't try to piece them together but dismissed the matter from her mind with the reflection that of course it was a business communication.—Columbus (O.) Journal.

Thought He Might Be Curious.
One day when riding in the country with their parents the children were obliged to sit in the back of the buggy. It was quite comfortable if they sat still, but a trifle small for much turning about, so there were numerous cautions to be careful not to fall out. When little brother was observed gazing intently down the road his sister questioned him thus: "What you looking back for; to see if you fell out?"

May Be a Hairless Race.
The hair growth on various parts of the body is regulated to perform a specific purpose. When we tamper with this growth for centuries we develop new forms. Perhaps this is why baldness is a modern affliction, entirely unknown in primeval periods. Eventually the human race will probably be denuded of all hair.

Or Stored Hen Eggs.
A family in a small town kept a few chickens and often had eggs from their own yard. One morning as the seven-year-old of the family came to breakfast he noticed the eggs on the table and inquired, "Mamma, are these store eggs or hen eggs?"—The Christian Herald.

Consolation.
Little Joe's mother was the proud possessor of a new automobile, which she was learning to run with some difficulty. Watching her efforts to back the car out of the garage one day, Joe consolingly said, "Any way, mother, you know how to work the self-starter fine, don't you?"

Tongue Test for Diamonds.
Many diamond experts claim that they are able to tell a false from a real gem by simply touching the article with the tip of the tongue. It is said that a genuine diamond always feels noticeably colder than a paste article.

Why Not Swat Him?
Another form of the double-distilled essence of pest whose framework above his shoulders is composed of reinforced concrete, is the omnipresent nuisance who insists upon breasting the current of pedestrian traffic of a crowded street on the wrong side of the pavement.

Guided by Those Gone Before.
I know not what profit there may be in the study of history, what value in the sayings of wise men, or in the recorded experience of the past if it be not to guide and instruct us in the present.—Benjamin Disraeli.

And She Fell for It.
"I am not easily flattered," she said, indeed not," he replied. "It would be difficult to make you out to be more beautiful than you really are."

RIGHT in the midst of everything—a sudden thought: "Wonder how the fire is?" Then, it's leave your sweeping, run downstairs, rake and shake, shovel coal and trudge back again. Wouldn't it be fine to go right ahead and forget about the kitchen? It certainly would! And you can.
