SHERIFF'S PROCLAMATION TO FOREIGN-BORN RESIDENTS

"I, Job L. Garland, Sheriff of Fulton County, deem it wise in the present crisis, in this formal proclamation to assure all residents of foreign birth that even in the event of the United States becoming actively involved in the great European war, no citizen of any foreign power, resident in Fulton County, need fear any invasion of his personal or property rights so long as he goes peaceably about his business and conducts himself in a law-abiding manner.

"The United States has never, in any war, confiscated the property of any foreign resident unless by his own hostile acts he made it necessary.

"I take this formal means of declaring to all foreign-born residents that they will be protected in the ownership of their property and money and that they will be free from personal molestation, so long as they obey the laws of the State and Nation and the ordinances of the County.

"I urgently request that all our people refrain from public discussion of questions involved in the present crisis and maintain a calm and considerate attitude toward all without regard to their nationality."

Let it be understood that every citizen owes undivided allegiance to the American flag, that he is expected to loyally fulfill all obligations which citizenship and residence impose upon him, and that any act however slight, tending to give aid or comfort to the enemy is treason, for which severe penalties are provided in addition to that punishment which public opinion inflicts upon the memory of all traitors in all lands

HOW FAR IS KNOBSVILLE.

Not So Far That the Statements of Its Residents Cannot Be Verified.

Rather an interesting case has been developed in Knobsville. Being so near by, it is well worth publishing here. The statement is sincere—the proof convincing:

J. C. Fore, Knobsville, Pa., says: "A severe cold settled in the small of my back. My kidneys troubled me badly at times and the kidney secretions were painful in passage. I was lame and stiff from rheumatic twinges and my limbs and wrists became swollen. I got no relief from the doctor's treatment. Finally, I used Doan's Kidney Pills and after one box, I felt relief. Whenever I take cold now and am troubled by my kidneys, Doan's Kidney Pills always help me."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Fore had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Pleasant Motoring Trip.

Last Friday after the dinner dishes had been washed, Judge and Mrs. Peter Morton, their daughter Miss Joan, their sons McKinley and Peter, Jr., and Miss Nellie Palmer tucked themselves away in the Judge's new touring car, and headed it northward. The weather was ideal, and the car kept rambling along without showing any signs of weariness or stubbornness. In turn, Burnt Cabins, Shade Gap, Orbisonia, Mount Union, Huntingdon and Alexandria were passed and when they pulled up in front of the residence of Forester T. Roy Morton at Petersburg, Pa., Judge and his wife got out of the car to give the youngsters a little more room and to enjoy a little visit in the home of their son.

As the sun was still high in the heavens, the young people drove on to State College, where they spent the time very pleasantly until Sunday morning, when they returned to Petersburg, took dinner at Roy's, picked up Judge and Mrs. Morton, and returned to McConnellsburg via Huntingdon, Saxton and Everett, getting home in time for the boys to go to church in the evening.

When they reached State College, the Speedometer showed that 116 miles had been reeled off in the run that afternoon, and yet, it did not seem half so far.

Reeder--Welsh.

Clifton Reeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. K. Reeder at Hustontown was married at Fannettsburg on Tuesday, May 8, 1917 to Miss Alice Welsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Welsh, of Burnt Cabins. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Kauffman, of the Presbyterian Church.

Two Remarkable Horses.

About forty-seven years ago, there was foaled somewhere in the State a colt. Seven years later, she became the property of Rev. J. L. Grove, who was then pastor at Worthington, Pa. When this mare was fourteen years old, Mr. Grove brought her to McConnellsburg and used her until she was about twenty. He then sent her to a farm and she raised a colt. This colt "Dolly" is as gay, hearty and willing to-day as at any time in her life, although she will be twenty-two years old in June. It will be seen that with the exception of a short interval while the present "Dolly" was cutting her teeth, two horses served Mr. Grove for a period of practically forty years and both were sound and amply able to perform their work when "pensioned on the farm" by their owner.
