CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Manyan the Eye Man at McConnellsburg May 31 and June 1.

For a few days recently, the weather was making a noise like a steam engine on top of Cove mountain. Latter part of last week, Mrs. C. B. Stevens went to Harrisburg, remaining until fore part of this week.

Roy Mason and Geo. C. Sipes, of Thompson township, came to McConnellsburg in the former's car Monday and greeted many friends.

Mrs. Wilson L. Nace (Lois Caldwell) who has been confined at home with an attack of pneumonia, seems to have passed the crisis and is convalescing.

Ellis Lynch was a United States juror at Williamsport last week. On his return, Mrs. Lynch met him at Harrisburg and they went to Philadelphia for a few days.

Webster Mellott, Harvey and H. Mellott—all of Needmore—came to town in Webster's car Tuesday and spent some money with the Editor and other business men.

One of our ministers said a whole mouthful Tuesday morning, using the phrase "McConnellsburg's customary disorder at public meetings." "Customary" good—very good.

The Racket Store people have new advertisement this week in which special attention is paid to reasonable goods, at reasonable prices. Read it, and put it aside for reference.

Miss Cleo Bard, at the Mrs. D. Little millinery emporium, had a birthday on the 16th and she received 72 postcards—many more than one for each year of her age, say about five; but we're only guessing.

The annual picnic of the Rebekah M. E. Sunday School will be held in Prof. William Scott's grove on Saturday, July 28th. More extended notice will be given when arrangements are fully completed.

Matt L. W. Seylar's hundred-dollar pointer, died ten days ago Tennessee to which state he was sent during the last hunting season. Accidental poisoning was the cause. He was a present to Mr. Seylar two years ago.

Days Morgret, a Fulton countess, but now living in Pennsylvania, was in the County part of this week locating a site that are for sale. He drove his car across the Cove mountain alone for the first time.

Mrs. Morgan Winter (Orpha) of Needmore, and Mrs. Fred Layton (Lillie Wink) of West Grove underwent surgical operations in a hospital in Baltimore last week. At last information, both were getting along nicely.

Last Saturday, Frank, son of Bert Cutchall, of Ayr township while driving their Ford car near Andrew Washabaugh's residence west of town, met with an accident that caused the car to upset. No one was hurt, but the car was badly wrecked.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reeder of some Harry and Melvin, of Westtown, with Harry at the wheel, motored to Wells Valley Sunday to see their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Barnett. This was their first trip in the new touring car.

Robert Huston, wife, and children Ruth, May, and Blaine, accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Chesnut—all of Westtown—tried to start their car on a spin to McConnellsburg. Robert's visits to the place occur annually about once a year—last year it was May 27th.

Last Monday night, we were called on to blush with embarrassment for the lack of respect invited guests at the affair. Why must men make their mules shod with two-inch shoes when passing while speakers are on the platform? And why do men permit their meetings to be so late? The use of the time.

Mrs. J. W. Mosser spent Wednesday and Thursday in Chambersburg shopping and visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Beamer Gress returned yesterday after a pleasant little trip to Chambersburg.

W. M. Hann sprained one of his ankles quite seriously Tuesday while shearing sheep in the Cove.

Miss Mildred Mock and Mrs. Emma Rexroth were among the Fulton county shoppers in Chambersburg Tuesday.

Mrs. Joseph B. Mellott and her daughter Mrs. David Morton—both of Ayr township, spent Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Grace Bender.

Miss Margaret Jacobs will start a class in instrumental music June 1st. Any one wishing instruction will apply at once. Rates reasonable.

A few nights ago some person or persons visited the home of Richard Pittman west of McConnellsburg and stole the flour of ten bushels of wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Heefner and Mrs. Maria Doran—all of Taylor township had a very pleasant motoring trip Tuesday, swinging around by Spring Run, Fanettsburg and McConnellsburg.

Last fall, Harmon B. Hege, of Mercersburg, took a 25-cent chance in an $1800 auto at the Hagerstown fair. A few days ago he received word that he was the holder of the ticket that drew the car.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Layton and daughters Reta and Esther, of Amaranth, and Mr. and Mrs. James McKee, of Crystal Spring motored to Hustontown last Saturday evening and spent Saturday night and Sunday with Allison Sipes and family.

J. H. Brewer, Richard Johnson, Emanuel Keefer, Malachi Litton, and Willard Litton—all of Thompson township—made the round trip to Gettysburg last Saturday by way of Hagerstown and Chambersburg. They traveled in Willard Litton's car and stopped in McConnellsburg on the return trip.

An operation for appendicitis was performed upon Miss Lula Mellott, daughter of Joseph E. and Sebina Mellott, Needmore R. R. 2 on Thursday of last week by Doctors Stigers of Hancock and Oats, of Martinsburg, W. Va. The operation was entirely successful and the patient is doing well.

Shade Pittman, of Thompson township, ran his new Buick to town last Saturday as a sort of public conveyance. When he reached town he had in with him L. W. Funk, the piano man; Raymond Shives and G. J. Mellott—both of Ayr township, and a stranger whose name Mr. Pittman did not know.

The Rehoboth Sabbath School rendered a beautiful Mother's Day Program last Sunday to a large interested congregation. The beautiful white carnation, the emblem of Mother's Day, was given each member of the school and to all mothers present. Rev. Byron Kesecker, the junior pastor, gave a beautiful talk on the sacredness of motherhood.

An auto party that enlivened McConnellsburg Monday was composed of ex-Commissioner W. L. Sprowl, son Elmer, Miss Eleanor Sipes and H. L. Wishart—all of Wells Valley. Commissioner Sprowl has certainly done his "bit" this spring by ploughing all the lots in Wells Tannery, same to be planted to help feed the Allies who are fighting America's cause on the battlefields of Europe.

Ex Justice of the Peace, W. H. Peck, of Belfast township was in town Monday morning attending to business. Will said that the FULTON COUNTY NEWS was not delivered to his residence until Monday morning of this week. For the information of any others who did not get the paper until Monday, we wish to state that the three bundles that go to the Needmore post office were placed in the McConnellsburg post office before noon on Thursday of last week.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted during the sickness and death of our husband and father, Moses Hess, HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

United Presbyterian.—Beulah Johnston, May Pittman, Hazel McQuade.

Auto Wrecks a Bank.

Last Monday, Walter Seelar, of Pittsburgh, stopped at this office to pay his subscription. Walter is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Seelar and his mother's maiden name was Schenck. She is a sister of John Schenck, of Wells Valley. Walter is in the employ of the Murray Motor Company, of Pittsburgh, and his employers had sent him to Baltimore a few days ago to try to repair a wrecked auto that had wrecked a bank—literally speaking. The driver, in an effort to avoid running down a man, swerved the machine to the sidewalk, and before he could stop it he and the machine went through a big plate glass window of a bank and the driver landed on a pile on the cashier's desk to the consternation of the official who, doubtless, imagined that some new form of Prussian deviltry had been sprung on his place of business. Although machine and building were badly damaged no one was fatally injured.

The Selective Draft.

On June 5, 1917, every young man between the age of twenty-one and thirty-one must go to his election place and register. In the course of a few weeks he will receive notice from the War Department advising whether he has been selected, or exempted. If selected, he will be told where to report to be examined, equipped and sent to a camp. It will be well to remember that failure to obey the command to register will be punished by army officers.

A Giant Autotruck.

Thursday of last week, the Goodyear Rubber company, of Akron, Ohio, sent a load of 450 tires to their Boston branch, using a Packard 5 ton truck equipped with 4x10-inch pneumatic tires. On the return trip, the truck will be loaded with fabric for making tires. This giant truck was an object of admiration to Fulton county people as it rolled majestically over the Lincoln Highway in direct competition with the railroads and express companies.

Card of Thanks.

Joseph B. Mellott and daughters desire through the column of the NEWS to thank the neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of their beloved wife and mother.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Custer take this method of thanking the friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of their little daughter Gladys Irene.

MICHELIN

Extra Mileage You Can See and Measure

The extra thickness of the Michelin Tread—due to extra rubber and fabric—means additional mileage. Especially is this true since every ounce of rubber and fabric is the toughest that money, skill and experience can produce. Michels give so much mileage that they'd be economical even if high priced. But they're not high priced.
