Have you bought that Liberty Bond? If not, why not?

E. M. Kirk, of Taylor township, went to Baltimore last Monday to consult an eye specialist.

Miss Sadie Stewart, manager of the Green Hill House, near Harrisonville, took a few hours' vacation last Saturday and did some shopping in McConnellsburg.

Mr. Oliver Plessinger has purchased a building lot in Needmore, and is putting in a concrete foundation preparatory to building a dwelling house this summer.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

A flag flies from the highest peak in the Allegheny mountains—Blue Knob on the western border of Bedford county. The peak is 3,166 feet above sea level. The flag was purchased by popular subscription.

When viewed alone, an extra bushel of beans or potatoes does not look very significant; but when one million farmers each place an extra bushel side by side, what else could so effectively block Prussian brutality?

After having spent a few days at his home, Hon. Geo. A. Harris Pennsylvania representative of the Baltimore Federal Land Bank of Baltimore went to Pittsburgh last Sunday afternoon to attend to business connected with his institution.

Merchant Frank Bare, of Fort Littleton, passed through town early Monday morning on his way to Webster Mills in his big autotruck for a load of flour—said his customers were getting tired of living on corn meal and buckwheat.

By a little effort on the part of some popular citizen with an auto, money to buy a big flag for the Summit four miles east of town could easily be secured. Care for the flag has been guaranteed by Mr. Seylar at his restaurant up there.

On thin land, level cultivation with spikes no larger than harrow teeth will conserve moisture and produce bigger crops of corn than when torn up with big shovels and made into ridges for the sun to dry out. If you do not believe it, try an acre.

Take your stand on Memorial Square in Chambersburg any week-day and before long at least a score of Fulton county people will have passed your point of view. Hence the extensive Chambersburg advertising to be found in the columns of the NEWS.

War prices have made it quite the fashion to try to see how long that suit, hat, or pair of shoes may be made to "look decent" by brushing and cleaning. And it is astonishing to the inexperienced to find how long they will last. Grit to try it is all the recipe calls for.

Alfred L. Fleming, son of Editor Geo. A. Fleming of the Mercersburg Journal, has been transferred to the 26th Infantry. According to information received by his father, Alfred will be among the troops ordered to the front and may soon be on his way to France.

Last week, several thousand day-old Leghorn chickens were sent to the Agricultural Department at Harrisburg by poultrymen to be given free in lots of twenty to farmers who would sign an agreement that they would help to increase the supply of poultry in the State. Many peeps were dead when they arrived.

J. K. Johnston and daughter Miss Jean drove their car to Chambersburg Wednesday evening of last week, left it there and went to Philadelphia. Friday evening they left the city at 5 o'clock and were in McConnellsburg again by eleven. It all goes to show that people in Philadelphia and elsewhere need not feel that they are so far away from McConnellsburg if they have automobiles in which to come to see us.

"OLDEST AND STRONGEST"

Beer Philistine.

Professor Rudolph Eucken, possibly the greatest philosopher Germany has produced, declares that his country must give up beer, which "breeds the wretched type of beer-Philistine with which everyone is familiar."

The term, "Philistinism," as describing the intellectual desolation and brutalization resulting from the beer habit, is now universal. The Scientific American says:

"The most dangerous classes of ruffians in our large cities are beer drinkers. Intellectually a stupor amounting almost to paralysis arrests the reason, changing all the higher faculties into a mere animalism, sensual, selfish, sluggish, varied only with paroxysms of anger, senseless and brutal."

It also continues its unflattering remarks as follows:

"In appearance the beer drinker may be the picture of health, but in reality he is most incapable of resisting disease. A slight injury, a severe cold, or a shock to the body or mind will commonly provoke acute disease, ending fatally. Compared with other inebriates who use different kinds of alcohol, he is more incurable and more generally diseased. It is our observation that beer drinking in this country produces the very lowest kind of inebriety, closely allied to criminal insanity."

To Our Citizens.

You are invited, and expected, to be present on Friday evening to witness a test of Gould's Fire Resister Paint. You are expected, for you are interested in our old town, and in its safety and welfare. These are a great protection, so say the insurance agencies and fire departments of our great cities. They were demonstrated at Mercersburg last Saturday evening before a large crowd, and it was declared a great success, so says the editor of the Mercersburg Journal. The press everywhere speaks highly of these exhibitions.

Notice to Farmers.

As County Chairman of Farmers' Institutes, I am supposed to be at the County Commissioners' office the second Tuesday in June to receive applications for Farmers' Institutes the coming season. I have been there on several similar occasions and no one met me, but they sent their applications by mail. I will not be there this year. We have been promised three two-day institutes, and I will be pleased to have applications sent to me as soon as convenient.

Yours truly,
FRANK RANCK,
Hancock, Md.

Eat More Corn.

Ordinarily the quantity of corn produced in the United States is from three to four times the quantity of wheat, but only a very small portion of the crop—from 5 to 10 per cent—has been used for human food. This amount may be estimated in normal times at about 200,000,000 bushels a year. Not over 5 per cent has been exported in peace times. A relatively slight increase in the corn acreage, therefore, will place many millions of bushels more of human food at the disposal of the world without interfering in any way with the feed needed for the support of live stock.
