teen years can find pleasant and profitable employment at the Law Office.

Miss Olive Nelson, of Mercersburg spent part of last week with her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. William Fix.

Friday were three Brush Valley friends—James
McKee, R. H. Walters and W.
Clavenger.

the home of Mrs. S. L. Wink at McConnellsburg on Saturday afternoon, June 30th. All persons interested are invited to attend.

Lyrtle accompanied by Mr. Mc-

Successful fruit growers often pick off from one-half to two-thirds of the small, green peaches, apples, and other fruits from heavily laden trees and still get many bushels of fruit, but of poorly improved size and quality.

If a body kissed a body comin' from the rye that Mrs. Robert Mellott brought from a field at Laurel Ridge, neither the kisses nor the kisses would be viewed with critical eyes. Mrs. Mellott showed us several stalks which lacked but four inches of being eight feet in length.

Walter R. Sloan received a letter on Monday from Corporal Sloan thanking the local Red Cross for five dollars given him last Saturday night for his talk at the Auditorium. Corporal Sloan said that he liked to make Red Cross speeches, and also, that he had a wife and three children to whom five dollars meant much.

Southern Fulton county people are not the only people to suffer from flights of government planes. Probably 100,000 of the machines will be made and many of them sent to eastern states under their own power, above the Lincoln Highway route to be the safest route, as it has already been named the Air-Way.

As long as white people will continue to get lice, itch and other loathsome troubles from the flies, just so long will the country be subject to the pests. Last winter, Philadelphia cleaned out more than a hundred of the fortune-telling frauds to spread over the country and twice last week they were polluting our town with their presence.

Fisher came home Saturday to spend the summer vacation with her mother at the S.
Mellott residence. Mary has been visiting with her brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allison, at Salem, N. J., at the high school of which she is principal. We know many pounds and pounds of "grown" since she left McConnellsburg last

Tobacco—our heaven?

Dear Editor.—The question was asked me not long ago if I thought a person who used tobacco could go to Heaven. I told her I understood the Bible did not teach the doctrine that they could. In the first place, it is a useless waste of money—the money spent for tobacco would feed and clothe all the people in the world and some would be left with which to buy Bibles for the heathen. In Isaiah 55:2, we read "Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread?" Almost any tobacco user will tell you that it is a filthy habit. In Corinthians 16:17, we read that our bodies are the temple of God; that if any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy. In Revelation 21:27, we read that there shall in no wise enter in that which defileth. In Revelation 22:11—"He that is unjust, let him be unjust still; and he that is filthy, let him be filthy still." Therefore, if the tobacco habit is filthy, how can any one addicted to the habit get into Heaven? As we die and are buried, so shall we arise. Jesus arose with the print of the nails in his body; if we are buried defiled, we will arise defiled. Since anything defiled cannot enter Heaven, to me the answer to the question asked is most obvious.

The Correct Thing in Ladies' Footwear.

Your pretty frocks will scarcely be complete without the correct slipper or pump. In your grandmother's day, with just the tip of her shoes peeping from under her gown, footwear played no such important part in the scheme of correctness.

For you, however, Dame Fashion has decreed that your entire slipper be visible. So you see you must be more than ever particular in choosing footwear for summer.

There is nothing prettier than a white pump, and it is so appropriate the whole summer long. We have them in kid—buck—nubuck and fabrics—made plain, with neat narrow perforations and some with small, dainty ornaments at the instep. They are made with high and medium-high heels and wood with leather covering.

Make it a point to come in today if possible, or tomorrow anyway, just to slip on your size.

P. P. Shives and Howard Peck were among the Fulton county travelers to Chambersburg last Saturday.

Mrs. Allen Fromyer and son Tom, and Mrs. Charles Polly, all of Chambersburg, were week-end guests of Mrs. John Stunkard, a sister of Mrs. Fromyer.

Thomas Hollinshead, of Harrisonville, was called to St Thomas last Monday to see his sister, aged 80 years, who met with an accident resulting in a broken arm and shoulder. We do not know how the accident happened.

T. Roy Morton and family, State Forester located at Petersburg; Newton Morton, member of the government topographical survey, located at Millinburg; Grace and Elizabeth Crocker, of Johnstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Hendershot, of Clear Spring, Md., were among the guests at the Peter Morton home since our last issue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Daniels and little grandson Morris Deshong; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Linn and two children Ereda and Robert, are making a tour of Virginia in two automobiles. They started last Saturday and drove to Washington. From there they drove to Richmond, Va., and later, other large towns were visited. They expect to return Saturday.

The committees who have so faithfully worked during the past few days soliciting funds for the Red Cross Fund, desire us to say that they were not able to see everybody; and they ask that any who have not contributed, may send their contributions to either of the McConnellsburg banks and due recognition of the subscription will be made through the papers in the future.

Last Saturday morning, J. C. Patterson, of Clarksburg, W. Va., joined his brother W. M. Patterson, at Pittsburgh, and together they left that city in the latter's car at 5:30 a. m. Exactly five hours and ten minutes later, easy running time, they greeted relatives and friends in McConnellsburg and then went on to the home of their parents, Hon. and Mrs. D. H. Patterson, at Webster Mills.

Over 800 daily newspapers are reported to have gone out of business since the rise in paper prices began. A number of weeklies have suspended. The price of print paper is still away up in the air and the government commission has confessed inability to deal with the situation through public service commission channels. It recommends pooling of interests, interpreted to mean forced or accepted co-operation, or absolute federal control by fixing of prices.

At first thought it seems odd that our farms should be the chief weapon against Prussian barbarism and brutality, but no gun was ever so effective as the "bean shooter" wielded by the farmer in this war to prevent lack of food on the part of those who are holding back the horrible assassins. July first is not too late to plant field beans in Pennsylvania. Plant some more if seed can be had. For once the "bean shooter" is more deadly than 42 centimetre guns.

Jacob Yeakel and his son John, Thomas Truax and John Seerist—all in John Yeakel's automobile, came to McConnellsburg last Saturday morning and took dinner at Hotel Harris. While in town a deed was transferred from Jacob Yeakel to John Seerist for the former's property south of Center schoolhouse in Thompson township for a consideration of $1900.00. From McConnellsburg, Mr. Seerist went to Franklin county to spend a day or two in the home of his brother Charlie. Jacob Yeakel expects to go to Illinois in a few weeks to visit relatives.
