The Boy Scouts and the Camp Fire Girls pulled off a little performance in the forenoon of the Fourth that had not been heralded. The War Chest Fund.

The hundred-million dollars asked for by the Red Cross Organization of America under the supervision of the Congress of the United States met a most hearty response and Fulton County showed that she was possessed of the spirit. The very short time in which the work was done and the late hour at which the work was taken up here most of the money raised was contributed by Ayr, Todd and the Borough—making a total of about $1300.00. That the other districts in the County would have responded just as freely if they had been given the opportunity, goes without saying. We hope they will not worry, however, for if the war continues for a considerable length of time as it may do, every citizen—man, woman and child in the country will have an opportunity to "do their bit."

The Methodist Episcopal Sunday schools in the United States took it upon themselves to raise $100,000.00 of this War Chest Fund, and on last Sunday the McConnellsburg M. E. school "did their bit" by making a contribution of twenty dollars. As the average per school would be five dollars, the McConnellsburg school will help out some of those who may not be able to reach the average.

When we went to press last week we did not have all the names of those who contributed to the Fund, and published those reported up to Wednesday evening. Since that time the following persons have subscribed:

Scott Tittle, $5 00; Mrs. Amanda Unger, 2 00; J. S. Ewing, 1 00; Mrs. Annie Fulton, 2 00; Geo. Miller, 50 cents; A. K. Nesbit and wife—each, 2 00; H. C. Cooper, 1 00; C. B. Weller, 2 00; C. C. Crouse, 1 00; Lydia J. Martin, 5 00; D. A. Washabaugh, $25; Miss Annie Dickson, 5 00; Miss Minnie Dickson, 5 00; Mabel Henry, 25 cents; C. F. Nesbit, 5 00; Mrs. K. C. Johnston, 10 00; Lewis Butts, 50 cents; Rev. Henry Wolf, 5 00; John Stunkard, 5 00; Magsam Brothers, 5 00; B. C. Lamberson, 5 00; L. W. Seylar, 5 00; Mrs. M. W. Nace, 5 00; Geo. W. Hays, 5 00; J. W. Rumel, 1 00; Mrs. M. B. Trout, 5 00; E. L. Lynch, 5 00; D. L. Grissinger, 25 00; C. F. Jacobs, 5 00; C. S. Everhart, 1 00; Geo. B. Mock, 1 00; Mrs. Clara M. Greathead, 5 00; Chas. F. Johnston, 10 00, completing a total to the credit of this county of more than $1300.00.

TO ENLIST EVERY WOMAN IN HOOVER'S FOOD-SAVING ARMY

Every woman in the state of Pennsylvania will be asked to join a food-saving army. Each woman is to be an enlisted "soldier" for Uncle Sam and the allies. The commander who will direct this army is Herbert C. Hoover, the man who fed Belgium, and now Food Administrator at Washington, D. C.

The enrollment will be conducted by means of pledge cards similar to the one reproduced above. Read it carefully. Every housekeeper in Pennsylvania will receive one and will be expected to sign it before July 15 in testimony that full support will be given to the food conservation plan.

Every woman in the household is to sign this pledge whether a member of the family or an employe.

In addition to the million and a half Pennsylvania "soldiers," Mr. Hoover will direct more than eighteen million other women "soldiers" who are to be similarly recruited from the other states and territories. Each woman "soldier" will be assigned to the second line of defense to fight the waste of food.

Mr. Hoover's position with respect to those who enlist will be less that of a general than that of an advisor, who gives advice as to the best way to be followed. Enrollment compels no one to any course of action beyond conviction of duty. Each member of this army will do as much of what Mr. Hoover advises as her circumstances warrant, and her judgment dictates. In other words, all co-operation, even after enrollment, will be voluntary.

In connection with the activities of a food-saving army, President Wilson said:

"To provide adequate food supplies for the coming year is of absolutely vital importance to the conduct of the war. With very conscientious elimination of waste and a very strict economy in our food consumption we cannot hope to fulfill this primary duty and in no other direction can women so greatly assist as by enlisting in the service of the food administration and cheerfully accepting its direction and advice."

Mr. Hoover has appointed as recruiting officer for the state of Pennsylvania, Howard Heinz, Director of the Food Supply Department of the Committee of Public Safety. Mr. Heinz has asked the co-operation of the seventy local Public Safety Committees in various parts of the state in enlisting the housekeepers. Other agencies will also aid in the distribution of 1,500,000 pledge cards throughout the state. Dr. Nathan S. Schaeffer, State Superintendent of Schools, has written every county superintendent of schools in the state, strongly recommending the co-operation of local school boards in the work of registration.

Women's National Council of Defense and other women's organizations, Red Cross, Boy Scouts and civic and religious bodies have been asked to assist in making the registration complete.

Each card when signed will be forwarded by the local committees to Mr. Hoover, in Washington. The name of each signer will be recorded. Specific instructions will from time to time be forwarded from Mr. Hoover. Household tags which will serve as badges of enlistment to be displayed in windows will be furnished.

The slogan of the army is "Feed the allies out of what we save." Ninety per cent of the food consumed in the United States goes through the hands of women, and they may best "serve by saving."

If you do not receive a personal invitation to sign, consider this your invitation and ask your local Public Safety Committee for a card, or sign the form at the head of this article and mail it to your local Committee of Public Safety, or to the Food Supply Department, 1426 South Penn Square, Philadelphia.
