Secretary of Navy Daniels made the statement last week that he can increase the gas production in United States from 3,000,000,000 gallons to 9,000,000,000, a year, and can thereby furnish gasoline to the Government at six cents per gallon.

It is estimated that the stupendous sum of $350,000,000 was spent for automobile tires last year. Of this vast expenditure experts figure $105,000,000 was squandered by auto drivers through carelessness and ignorance in the use and care of tires.

Where the starting crank is not handy and the self-starter fails to work, the motor may be started by jacking up one rear wheel, throwing off the brake, and setting the gears at direct drive. By turning the wheel the motor will be operated in same manner as when crank was used. Caution: Do not lower jack until clutch is neutral.

One farmer, in Oklahoma, who had lost in failures of cereal crops during a series of years, decided to seed all his land to potatoes this year. His enterprise was successful, and two weeks ago he was paid $80,000 spot cash for the crop in the ground. Farmers are getting $2.60 a bushel for their potatoes, against sixty-five cents this time last year.

Every soldier who goes to France wearing the khaki of the United States army to face the fury of the Teuton steel will be given a pocket Testament to carry with him into the fray. This task has been undertaken by the members of the Pocket Testament League of that country. Orders have been placed with the Oxford Press in London for 250,000 of these pocket Testaments.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system. To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength. Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

Not Too Late to Plant.

F. F. Rockwell, author of "Around the year in the Garden" &c., says it is not yet too late to grow a good supply of vegetables, even if you have not had a garden this year; or, if you have some idle ground that you wish to utilize.

There is among amateur gardeners an unwritten tradition that gardens must be planted in the spring. As a matter of fact a fairly complete garden may be planted successfully as late as the middle of July. There are approximately 100 days of growing weather after that date, while the majority of vegetables require less than 90 days to be ready for use. It is a fact that Nature does most of her seed sowing, not in the spring, but during the summer and early fall. One of the chief reasons why summer planting is not carried on more extensively is that, in many sections of the country, we usually have at that time a dry condition of the soil that delays or interferes with germination.

This year fortunately, we have had abundant rains throughout June, so that the soil is just the right condition to assure the prompt germination of seeds planted now.

WHAT YOU CAN PLANT NOW.

The list of vegetables which can still be grown this year includes: Beans, Beets, Cabbage, Cauliflower, Celery, Sweet Corn, Lettuce, Peas, Radish, Squash (Summer) and Turnips. Of the above, vegetables, Cabbage, cauliflower, and Celery, may be obtained locally in plants already started. If you can get the plants, there is still plenty of time for tomatoes. They will be in their prime during September and early October, when the local crop is pretty well gone by, and both ripe and green tomatoes for making pickles and preserves are hard to get.

The other vegetables in the list above, should be started now from seed. There is one point about which care should be taken, however, that is:—For Late Planting use Early varieties. This advice may seem paradoxical at first, but will appear commonsense on a moment's reflection.

Vegetables and Fruits that Dry Well

In an article about the dried fruit industry in Farm and Fireside, a writer says:

"Vegetables like Irish and sweet potatoes, sweet corn, string and shelled beans, require particular care to prevent souring during the drying process.

"Raspberries, blackberries, loganberries, and huckleberries are usually overdried and become like shot in hardness and the quality suffers by thus overdrying. The right stage with berries is when they can be squeezed without showing stain on the hands.

"It is a safe precaution before storing all dried products to keep them in a screened, warm and rat-proof airy place like an attic, in baskets or other ventilated containers where they can be examined daily for a week or two to make sure there is no interior moisture that might cause spoilage were the dried products at once tightly stored."

The Boy Scouts

The Boy Scouts of America performed a notable service to the country in their campaign for the sale of the Liberty Loan Bonds. Through their efforts more than $25,000,000 of the bonds were sold directly. How many sales were due indirectly to their activity can not be known.

The Boy Scouts worked systematically and thoroughly and with an earnestness that was inspiring. They covered fields that could not have been well covered by other agencies and effected sales that would not have been made without their efforts.

The Scouts have not only proven their patriotism, they have shown their efficiency and their civic value.
