Housework is a Burden.

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ills life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many McConnellsburg women. Read what Mrs. Clevenger says:

Mrs. Lucinda Clevenger, McConnellsburg, says: "My back ached badly and I couldn't do my housework. I had dizzy spells and chills and was annoyed by the kidney secretions. Often swellings appeared under my eyes and I was very nervous at night. I was troubled by rheumatic twinges. Doan's Kidney Pills removed all signs of the trouble. I procured them at Trout's Drug Store."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Clevenger had Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

WEST DUBLIN.

Nevin Laidig and family, of Andover spent a part of last Sunday at Hiram Laidig's and attended the Sunday school at Laidig in the afternoon.

Elmer King spent last week with his father, George King at Minersville.

We were pleased to meet our friends George Laidig and wife, of Jeannette, Pa., at the picnic last Saturday. City life seems to agree with them.

Mrs. Minnie Buckley and her brother J. Frank Mayne, of Shelby, Iowa; Rev. Charles Mayne and son John, of Griswold, Iowa; Samuel Mayne, of Duncannon, Pa.; Varian Hoover, of Hustontown, and Miss Annie Mayne, of Fort Littleton, spent a short time last Sunday afternoon in the home of their aunt Mrs. Eliza Hoover. Frank has been in the West thirty-five years. He has a large hardware and furniture store in Shelby. Charlie farms during the week and preaches on Sunday. Mrs. Buckley (Minnie) is a sister of the Mayne boys and was a former Fulton County teacher.

Mrs. George Raker and children of Kearney visited the family of Mrs. Martha Laidig last week.

Stella Landers, of Gracey spent Sunday with David Hershey's family.

Norman Bricker, of Chambersburg spent a week recently with the family of David Hershey.

Dowling Johnson, wife and baby, of McKees Rocks; Lee B. Johnson and daughters Esther and Florence, Miss Lona Ward and Mr. Stahlman—all of Homestead—are spending a week at the Johnson farm near Laidig.

Davy Hershey has killed more snakes since our last report. He killed a rattlesnake and a copperhead on his mail route, and Grant Hoover killed a rattlesnake this week. This makes four each for Grant and Davy.

Leroy Edwards and family and Mrs. James Edwards—all of Johnstown spent several days recently with the family of Joseph Edwards.

The Sunday school picnic at Fairview last Saturday was a great success. There was a festival in the evening which was generously patronized.

Work of the Exemption Board.

The local exemption board composed of Frank M. Lodge, J. L. Garland and Dr. J. W. Mosser, with H. S. Alexander and Lewis Harris clerks, is putting in full time this week. The board completed the examination of 148 men last week, and will examine 150 more this week. From this number it is believed that 73 men will be found that will pass into the service and thus meet our present requirements.

The board expects by next week to be able to give the names of those who will be turned over to the final examiners.
