George W. Bishop and William C. Peck, of Thompson township spent a few hours in town on business Monday.

Master Billy Lynch returned home last Saturday after having spent ten days with relatives at Fort Loudon and Greencastle.

Prof. A. C. Garland and wife returned to their home at Lemasters, after having spent ten days among relatives in this county.

Mrs. Robert N. Shimer and children Marlin, Harry and Mildred are visiting friends in Waynesboro and Chambersburg this week.

Prof. Admiral Smith has returned to town after a six-weeks' vacation, which included a visit to a number of eastern cities and a trip up the Hudson. The Borough schools, of which he is supervising principal, will open next Monday.

Mrs. Lucina Forner spent several days last week visiting among relatives in Belfast and Licking Creek townships and attending Conference Sunday. Mrs. Forner had a post-card Saturday evening from her son Peter who is in France saying he was well.

Prof. Harper P. Barton and wife and sister Maye, of Hustontown, motored to McConnellsburg one morning last week where they were joined by Mrs. Watson C. Lynch of the latter place and Miss Freidinger of Shippensburg, and they all went to Tuscarora Heights, where they spent the day very pleasantly picnicking.

Miss Martha G. Kendall, who taught at Webster Mills last winter, is spending a few days with friends at Beaver Falls, Pa., before commencing work as teacher of English and History in the High School at Venice, Pa.

Mr. W. J. Brannan and daughters Mary and Edna, of Thompson township were in town last Saturday. Mr. Brannan with his family came from Webster county, W. Va., four years ago and purchased part of the John R. Paylor farm where he has since resided.

Fred Lodge, who had been visiting his mother Mrs. E. M. Lodge North Second Street, accompanied by his sister Miss Grace, went to Cossart, Pa., last week where they spent a few days visiting in the home of their brother-in-law and sister, Mrs. Harvey Clevenger, from Cossart, they went to Reading and visited their brother Charlie.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fields, accompanied by the latter's parents Dr. and Mrs. George F. Emerson—all of Oklahoma City, Okla., spent a few days in town last week. John is one of the boys that never goes back on his "old hum town," and to-day he would be governor of his adopted state if he had not been "bounced out" instead of being voted out.

Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Jacobs and family went to York, Pa., last Thursday to spend a week or two among their former parishioners in that city. Their daughter Miss Dorothy, who had been spending her summer vacation in the home of her parents, will resume her work as teacher in the public schools in York at the beginning of the ensuing year.

Mrs. Roy Daniels and son Marshall, arrived here Friday in Mr. Daniels' Overland touring car from Taylorville, Ill., a distance of 750 miles. Mrs. Daniels who encountered very few difficulties in making the long trip displayed remarkable courage in venturing upon such an extended tour, and that she reached home feeling none the worse for the wear, will be joyful news to her many friends.—Hancock News.

SHARPE, PA.
Mrs. John Everhart, of Baltimore, has returned to her home, after having spent two weeks with her parents.
Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Crouse and two children spent last Sunday in the home of the former's aunt Mrs. Amanda Lynch.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Godfrey and children, Louise, Gilbert, and Mira Maye, of Niagara Falls are visiting in the home of Mrs. Godfrey's sister Mrs. Mary Waltz.

Elmer Mellott and wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Mellott and daughter Rose, spent Sunday in the home of D. W. Mellott.
Those who spent Sunday in the home of Blair Waltz, were: Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Eversole and sons Roy, Guy and Alva and daughter Pearl, of Clearspring, Mrs. Mary Bivens, Mrs. Andrew Souders, Mrs. Thomas Truax, John Yeakle and wife, and David Bivens.

Miss Rose Daniels is spending some time in the home of her aunt Mrs. A. J. Peck.
Showing of Fall Millinery.
We are ready to fit you up with a fall Hat or Velour. We have a full line of shapes and colors to choose from. The materials are beautiful, and—best of all—the prices are right. We have just returned from the City and have a dandy line for you to choose from.

Come in and look before buying anywhere else.
MRS. S. MANNING,
North Main Street. Opposite the Post Office, Chambersburg, Pa.

Thanks.
Mrs. Katie Kelso and son John of Knobsville wish to thank in this way their many kind friends and neighbors for the valiant service rendered the night of Ed Fore's fire which saved their home from destruction.

SHOES! SHOES!
We have sold more shoes in one month this year than in last two years. Why? because we had them on hand and didn't advance the price and we are still doing the same thing.
The same is true of our clothing. We have a fine line at old prices and will sell that way until all sold.
