

Fine Feathers Make Fine Birds

Not always perhaps, but the world is inclined to treat the Robin or the Oriole better than the Sparrow and the Crow. Likewise the well dressed, well groomed, man or woman conveys an air of success and confidence that is a real factor in life. No one in Chambersburg or vicinity has any reason to wear clothes of poor material when by coming to the MILL they can get the finest fabrics of wholesale prices. Our Tailoring Department makes men's fine suits to order—complete and guaranteed to fit and wear—for $18.00 to $28.00. Our stock of fine dress goods and coating for ladies wear is larger than any retail store can offer.

New Advertisements.

That Chambersburg, Orbisonia and other neighboring towns appreciate the News as an advertising medium is proved by the quantity of space taken. Attention is called this week to the Racket Store, Leiter Brothers, Fulton County Bank, Atlantic Refining Company, Peters & Heintzelman, and C. F. Scott—on the 8th page; on the 4th page you will find Reisers', Hess's, Liggett & Myers, Henninger's and Zug Hardware Co., while on the 5th page you will find Home Woolen Mills, Howard Yeagers, Henderson & Mong's, Duffield Music Store and others. You soon get behind the times if you do not read all the late advertisements.

The Primaries.

Owing to the bum telephone service in this county, we are unable to give definite results of yesterday's contest. But from reports received from six of the twelve districts early Thursday morning it looks like Mock and Black are the leaders in the Associate Judge contest. We will give the official vote next week.

Sky Splitter.

Marcy, the highest mountain in the Empire state, was named in honor of Gov. William L. Marcy. Its Indian name is "Tahawas" (he splits the sky).
