How about that new Coat? Get it at Chas. Huston & Bro's, Three Springs, Pa.

Do you want to see life on the battlefields of Europe shown from original photographs, attend the Chautauqua.

Merchant R. C. Dixon and family of Needmore were guests last Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Runyan in this place.

Blankets and Underwear at J. K. Johnston's.

In response to a telegram, Miss Elizabeth Taylor left last Sunday for Charlestown, W. Va., to accept a lucrative position as special art instructor in the City High School.

New Line of Ladies' Coats at J. K. Johnston's.

Russell Nelson, who spent the past three years as supervising principal in the schools at Princeton, N. J., went to Kansas City, Mo., where he has a fine position as instructor in a private school.

A new line of Ladies' Coats, all new patterns, at money saving prices at Chas. Huston & Bro's.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli M. Peck and daughter Minnie, and Mrs. Wesley McKee, of Needmore, motored to McConnellsburg last Saturday. Eli said the big frost made a lot of soft corn in his neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Phenice and their son Harry and daughter Mae, of Sylvan, passed through town last Saturday going to visit the elder Phenice's sister, Mrs. F. S. Pennell, near Clearville, Bedford county.

Max H. Sheets in his Overland-six took Mrs. Josephine A. Sloan her son Alexander and daughter Harriet, and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sloan to Gettysburg yesterday, returning via Hagerstown.

W. Scott Dickson and his friend Carl Asman motored through from Flint, Michigan, arriving here last Saturday evening, and will spend a few days in the home of the former's sister Mrs. M. W. Nace.

Hon. and Mrs. John P. Sipes, accompanied by Mrs. James A. Stewart of Greenhill and Miss Cornetha Nesbit of this place motored to Camp Hill, Pa., last Thursday and were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Wible.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. K. Nelson and children Betty and Susan, accompanied by Mrs. Asenath Mentzer, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shimer and their little daughter Florence, and the editor of the NEWS, motored to Bedford Springs last Sunday.

A lawyer is something of a carpenter. He can file a bill, split a hair, chop logic, dovetail and argument, make an entry, get up a case, frame an indictment, impanel a jury, put them in a box, bore a court, chisel a client, and other like things.

Mrs. Angeline Sipes and daughter Miss Myrtle, West Walnut street, and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Staley, of Carnegie, Pa., motored to Chambersburg last Friday morning and spent the day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gilbert.

Earl Taylor, who during the past year has been with the New Jersey and West Virginia State Highway Department, is spending a few weeks in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Taylor, East Lincoln Way, for the purpose of recuperating his health.

NOT ENOUGH CHILDREN

ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

Memorial Square, Chambersburg, Pa.

Ladies', Children's and Misses Coats at Chas. Huston & Bro's., Three Springs, Pa.

You cannot afford to miss the great treat that is coming to McConnellsburg during Chautauqua week. Read the programs.

L. H. Wible, of Camp Hill, and Ed Shimer, Harrisburg, were here attending the Primaries yesterday.

Chautauqua tickets are on sale at the Central Station, Seylar's Drug Store; also may be obtained from the ticket selling committees.

Dr. Clarence N. Trout, of Red Lion, Pa., is spending a week's vacation in the home of his mother, Mrs. M. B. Trout. Clarence is one of the boys that never outgrows his "old hum town."

One motto for Chautauqua this year is, "No season tickets for sale after Chautauqua opens at noon October 3rd." They must all be sold before that time.

Mrs. James H. Irwin (Lou Michaels) and daughter Miss Lois, and two granddaughters Dorothy and Aloha Williams—all of Washington, D. C., are visiting in the home of Mrs. Irwin's sister, Mrs. George W. Hays, West Lincoln Way.

Season tickets for Chautauqua cost one dollar and twenty-five cents. That is the price before it opens. It will cost more after the opening.

Prof. N. E. M. Hoover, of West Dublin, is teaching at Woodvale, Huntingdon county this winter. He is in a new brick school house with all modern appliances, and will doubtless have a pleasant and successful term.

There is not a dollar profit in the Chautauqua course for any one or all of the guarantors. They simply agree to stand for the financing of the course. If there are not enough season tickets sold to meet this amount the guarantors are compelled to pay it out of their own pockets.

After having spent two weeks very pleasantly in the home of her old-time friend, Mrs. John H. Cessna in Altoona, Mrs. W. B. Stephenson, of Bengel, Washington, is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mason at McConnellsburg. This is Mrs. Stephenson's first visit to this county in 26 years. She will be numbered by the people in the western part of the county as Miss Ella ("Della") Mason.

The New Coats and Suits.

At Sollenberger's.

And you will miss a splendid treat, if you don't come and see them. We have been buying coats and suits for the past three months. These purchases are coming to us daily. Almost any day you will find something new in our coat and suit department. Coats and suits never were more attractive than this season. Our early purchase will save you money. Our coat room was crowded last Saturday afternoon and evening. Come in the forenoon and avoid the crowd. Our new alteration room is located on our second floor and is in charge of Miss McDonald. No charge for alterations. We are showing bargains in every department of our store.
