

Does Your Lamp Smell?

Don't put up with it as a sort of necessary evil. All kerosene lamps don't smell. Yours won't, either, if you use

ATLANTIC Rayolight OIL

Rayolight Oil is different from the ordinary kinds. It's so highly refined that it never chars the wicks or causes unpleasant odors and throat-burning smoke.

If your lamp does smell, try Rayolight Oil and you'll never be satisfied with any other. Look for the dealer who has this sign on his store: "Atlantic Rayolight Oil for Sale Here." Always ask for it by name. It costs no more than inferior kinds.

It's a scientific fact that, of any artificial light, a kerosene lamp is the most restful and pleasing to the eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Spangler and two children of Waynesboro, were guests last Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nesbit. Mrs. Nesbit and Mrs. Spangler are sisters—(Annie and Carrie.)

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Nesbit, John A. Nesbit, and Thurman Nesbit motored to Dry Run last Sunday to attend the funeral of their cousin Nesbit Elder, who died very suddenly on Thursday of hemorrhage of the lungs. The funeral was held at the home of Mr. Elder's sister, Mrs. Edgar Flickinger at Dry Run.

Mrs. Winifred Kendall, chairman of the Working Committee of the local Red Cross Chapter announces that the yarn and needles have been distributed this week to part of the knitters. It was found there was not enough to go around. When more material is obtained the rest of the knitters will be accommodated.

Mr. Ben Shimer and family and Mrs. Shimer's mother, Mrs. Winifred Kendall, returned last Thursday from Pennington, N. J., where they had been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Shope, near Pennington N. J., Mrs. Shope will be remembered as Miss Mary Kendall, of the Cove.

In response to a telegram from his home folks, Sergeant John H. Woodcock, now stationed at Camp Hancock, Ga., arrived at his home near Hustontown last Thursday afternoon. But his father had passed away a few hours previous to John's arrival. Sergeant Woodcock left yesterday for Camp Hancock. While calling a few minutes at the News office Monday, John said the other Fulton county boys (Sergeant Howard Hoke, Eng. Ben Fisher, and Corporal John C. Bishop) are all well and happy.

The Banana as Food.

According to a writer in the current issue of Leslie's the one billion eight hundred million pounds of bananas which the people of this country ate last year were not only good and economical food but stimulus to our growing trade with South America. Here is a food which is seasonable the whole year through. It is cheap as foods go nowadays and a great demand will tend to lower rather than to increase the price since the supply is bountiful. In South America and in the countries of the far east the banana is known largely as a cooked food. We have not yet made a general practice of cooking bananas and when we do the experts tell us we shall find a new food staple. There is no reason to doubt that the greater market here for bananas has a beneficial effect on our reciprocal trade with South America, and in this we gain a double advantage; since we buy a cheap food and sell our manufactures.

Fitting Corners.

When you put down new matting do not cut it to fit corners, but wet it thoroughly with a soft brush or cloth dipped in hot water, to which a cupful of salt has been added. When thoroughly soaked the matting becomes as pliable as rubber and can be turned under without breaking. This makes a neater finish than cutting and also saves the matting for use in a different shaped room.

To the Voters of Fulton County.

I desire, through the Newspapers, to thank the voters of the county for their kind treatment and favorable consideration in giving me the nomination on the Non-Partisan ticket as one of the candidates for Associate Judge, and I especially thank the voters of my own township for having given me 92 votes out of 139 cast I do this because of the widely circulated report that I would not receive a majority of the votes in my own township. I ask your support at the Election on November 6, next, and pledge to you that if elected that I will discharge the duties of the office to the best of my learning and ability.

Respectfully,
DAVID A. BLACK.

After Illegal Hunters.

From Everett Republican
During the past week Game Protector Eli Ritchey, of Everett assisted by Game Protectors C. B. Baun and J. B. Lightner, of Harrisburg, have collected fines from Ori Smith for killing squirrels and hunting without a license $40; Mason Linn for killing one squirrel and hunting without a license $20, Rush Smith for killing two squirrels $20. The above named persons reside in the vicinity of Clearville. John Carnell, of Franklin Mills, was fined $20 for pursuing wild turkeys out of season, and Raymond Garland, of Franklin Mills was fined $30 for killing a squirrel and hunting without a license.

Our Overheated Houses.

The fuel administrator has urged that as a measure of economy in the use of coal the American people reduce the temperature of their furnace-heated houses at least five degrees this winter, or from about 70 to about 65 degrees. This ought to involve no hardships or even discomfort for the public in general, the regular English standard being 62 degrees and foreigners in general regard American houses as uncomfortably hot in winter. Too hot they are in multitudes of instances, often registering a temperature of 75 or over. It is said that most medical authorities will enthusiastically endorse Mr. Garfield's recommendation, regarding a temperature of 65 degrees as much more wholesome than the higher temperature American householders usually bask in.

There are two reasons why this recommendation is not likely to be generally followed. One is that elderly and ailing people accustomed to 70 degrees will find it hard to adjust themselves to 65 even when heavily clothed. The other reason, and perhaps the one most difficult to deal with, is that nowadays all young and even middle-aged women, desire summer heat indoors in winter so that they can wear summer clothes which display their pretty arms and neck, trusting to furs and other heavy wraps when they go out.

Great Potato Crop.

State Agricultural Department estimates which have just been issued showing some tremendous crop increases are indirectly a tribute to the efficiency of the campaign inaugurated last Spring to interest the farmer in speeding-up production of non-perishable foodstuffs. In that Campaign the Pennsylvania Committee of Public Safety was practically a pioneer and through its State and local headquarters much effort was expended to promote increased planting of all essential crops.

One of the first publicity efforts of the Committee was an appeal issued through the Food Supply Department urging farmers to give special consideration to crops which would make-up for the wheat shortage. Corn and other food crops and particularly forage crops for cattle were recommended.

Estimates indicating a potato harvest of 32,000,000 bushels, a crop almost 40 per cent. in excess of the previous average for 5 years; an 11 per cent. increase in the corn crop and a 15 per cent. increase in oats are evidences of the loyal response of the State's agriculturalist to the call for more food to win the war.

Dry Candidates.

License was the dominant issue in a number of the judgeship contests at the Primary election, September 19th. The most conspicuous of these was in the Columbia-Montour District, where President Judge Evans was seeking re-election. He was supported by the temperance forces on the strength of his record in having cut the license list about two-thirds in the last four years. He was defeated by John G. Harman. Judge Prather, who made Crawford County dry, was re-nominated. Clinton, Warren and Forest nominated dry associate judges with the expectation that these counties will be put into the no-license column at the next license

Dusty Roads in Penna.

Report comes from Kansas that a special train will carry delegates from that State to the Anti-Saloon League Convention at Washington, December 10-13. Governor Capper will be in command with several ex-governors on his staff. A Pennsylvania Citizen has pointed out that upon entering Pennsylvania by the Fort Wayne Route, Kansas bunch will have to travel through dry territory has a distance of 50 miles; not being able to find a saloon until they reach Pittsburg. After leaving Pittsburg, eastward bound, they will be in the full enjoyment of regular Kansas drought for next 84 miles.
