MERESTING PARAGRAPHS

Lacal and General Interest, Gathered at Home or Clipped from our Exchanges.

Yeast Cakes at Runyan's.

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Campbell, Mt. Union, spent Sunday night the home of the latter's moth-Mrs. E. M. Lodge, North Second Street.

Best Bread at Runyan's.

Institute Boarders-A few schers may get boarding in rivate family during the County stitute by applying early to he NEWS office, McConnellsburg, Pa.

Mrs. Howard Swope and little hughter Gladys of Needmore R. 11 have returned home after aving spent the past week in he home of the former's father,

Mr. and Mrs. Paul I. Johnston est. ed little daughter Virginia Huns, of New York City, sre spendg ten days in the home of mi's father J. Kendall Johnon in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Loraine Madden. Hustontown, and Mr. and s George Fessler, of Three rings, motored to McConnells-rg last Saturday and spent a hours shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gladfelter daughter Rachel and son res, accompanied by Mrs. A. Bolinger-all of Taylor townin motored to McConnellsburg aday and were pleasant cal-nat the News office.

m ears 15 inches in length m in Path Valley this season.

real airplane was seen by a mber of our citizens on Tuesrevening of last week as it passing southward over Connellsburg and the Cove. persons who saw it are very that it was not Venus this were Mrs. Mary A. Ott, Mr. mation. Mrs. John W. Ott and chil--Rella, George, Howard, Dorothy: Mr. and Mrs. and Swope and daughoer dys, and Mr. Elmer Truax.

of C. Cromwell, the well

ary Suders and little son ared to McConnellsburg last may and in the afternoon rened to his home in Altoona mpanied by his mother (Mrs. We Suders) and his sisters and Eva, and his brother shall, who will spend some visiting relatives in the intain City.

H. Howard Peck, Warburg R R 1, spent a few lin town last Saturday. Mr. is an enthusiastic bog breedd handles good stock. One on his farm has given him V pigs in four years. The rear 7-7; the second 11-11; aird 14-12, and the fourth He has some fine regisstock for sale now.

Addier's Strength up stronger during the fear's service if he could the benefits of t fortifies the lungs loat, creates strength to suppe and pneumonia es rich blood to avert tendencies. a bottle of SCOTT'S a relative or friend

a the service.

Letter from Ada Decker Hanna.

DESHLER, O., Nov. 11,-Enone I know.

mile from the town of Deshler. cussion of the topics. We go to town to church and Sunday School. Our Sunday School to be discussed at the local in- organized to play some good liveclass alone, has an enrollment of stitute to be held at Maple Grove ly games.

acres husked; so you see it will work are invited to attend. take quite a while to get through. Well, as it is dinner time, I will close my letter by wishing the NEWS continued prosperity and hoping the folks will send

MRS. HARRY B. HANNA.

Rev. Yearick Resigns.

iod of six years-two years of tion of the 1918 Almanac. It is which he was pastor of the Re- now ready and is sold as before the Freshman class. pastor of the Reformed and Pres- AND WORKS is the name of the byterian churches in federation, monthly family magazine found-Sunday, tendered his resignation subscription price is $1 00 a year, to accept work in the Reformed including a copy of The Hicks Home Mission Field, and will be Almanac to the subscriber. Send located at Jenners, in the Somer- 5 cents for a sample copy. Write set County coal field. The re- | WORD AND WORKS PUBLI HING signation came as a surprise and Co., 3401 Franklin Ave., St. a shock to his federated congrega- Louis, Mo. tions here, as his work has been Lewis Mellott and family who eminently successful, and he and ne been living in Path Valley, his good wife are held in the moving to Lemasters, Frank- highest esteem not only by his County. Lewis says that congregations, but by the entire community. His pastorate in wup on the Sunnyside Fruit McConnellsburg will close with the end of the year 1917.

Church Notices.

McConnellsburg M. E. Charge Rev. Ed Jackson pastor. Services for next Sunday: Preaching at McConnellsburg and at Fort Littleton at 10:30; Evangelistic services at Knobsville at 7 o'clock in the evening. Theme for hose who spent Sunday in the morning service in McConnells-Mrs. Chas. D. Hixson, Mrs. Willof William Ott at Back burg, "Our Debt to the Refor- iam Black, Mrs. Katharine Vores, held in the Hustontown church Sunday morning. A feature of this will be an address by Rev. Lewis Wible of Dane. Preaching hours:-Maddensville, Saturm soft drink manufacturer day 7:30 p. m.; Clear Ridge Sun-Mercersburg is taking advan- day, 1:30; Fairview, 7:00. At of the off-season and has this church, revival services are ed his family to Woodvale being held nightly. Also coopatingdon county where he eration is asked every member give his attention to coal of this field in the Educational ing until the pop season opens Canvass. Gifts are being received and-this charge is desirous of making a good showing .-G. B. M. Reidell pastor.

PLEASANT RIDGE.

Last Saturday afternoon Rev. W. R. Truax and wife, Mrs. Dela Mellott, and Grandmother King and Mrs. Albert King, with Albert at the wheel, motored to Hancock, crossed the Potomac into West Virginia and returned home the same evening. The weather was fine and they had a very enjoyable trip.

Bernard McIlnay, of Yellow Creek is visiting in the home of Virgil Bard and family this week. Mrs. Della Mellott is visiting among her friends and relatives at Pleasant Ridge. Little Ruth Garland has been sick for a few days.

Mellott spent last Sunday at the new parsonage. Frank Skiles'.

Mrs. Simpson Mellott is visitenlisted man would ing in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland A. Sharpe.

Eye Injured.

While at play Sunday afternoon some mischievous boys threw burdock burrs at Edward Doyle, twelve years of age, one of the burrs hitting Edward in one of his eyes, which caused much pain. The lad was taken to the Chambersburg hospital Tuesday, and is now in that institution for examination and treatment. It is feared he may lose the sight of the eye.

Miss Emma Hess and Miss Fannie Hessler of Pleasant Ridge spent a few hours in town shopping yesterday.

The following is a list of quesis always something about some others interested in the cause of ownership. education, are invited to be pres-

Programs.

school Friday evening, Novem-

The Hicks 1918 Alamanac.

For more than twenty-five years the Hicks Almanac has ley. had a world-wide reputation. in more news of personal inter- The 1918 Almanac has been prepared by lri R Hicks Jr., assisted by Rev. John B Noyes, for many years the assistant day. editor associated with Rev. Irl R. After a pastorate in McCon- Hicks. Bigger, brighter, better nellsburg extending over a per- than ever is a concise descripformed church, and four years, for 35 cents postpaid. WORD Rev. J. Leidy Yearick on last ed by Rev. Irl R. Hicks. The Birthday Surprise.

A surprise party was given last Wednesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gillis East Lincoln Way in honor of their daughter Miss Mame's 23 Unger, Mrs. Lucinda Forner, are: Mr. and Mrs. John Gillis, Tena Rally Day exercises will be Deshong, Margaret and Josephine Mellott, Ethel and Henrietta Stevens, Hazel Elvey and Mame Educational Meeting.

The first local institute of Wells township held at New Grenada Thursday evening November 1st was called to order by the president Miss Alice Cutchall. The topics: (1) Responsibility of the Teacher, (2) Physiology and Hygiene, (3) Manners and Moralswere very thoroughly discussed by the following teachers: Mary Helman, Alice and Jessio Cutchall, Anna Howard, Elizabeth Hixson, Myrtle Alloway, Beatrice Mellott and Howard Knepper.

A very interesting program was rendered by the school which speaks well for both the teacher and the pupils. The next institute will be held at No. 3 school Friday evening November 23rd. All are invited to attend.—Elizabeth Hixson, Acting Sec.

Chicken and Waffle Supper.

Class No. 5, taught by Mr. John Comerer of St. Pauls Lutheran Sunday School will hold a Chicken and Waffle supper Saturday evening, November 24th Miss Nellie Palmer and Ray in the Shaffner house adjoining

Everybody invited and wel-

Christmas Entertainments.

The Antioch Sabbath school will hold their annual Christmas service on Sunday evening December 23rd.

The Needmore school will hold the Methodist Episcopal church at Needmore Monday evening December 24th.

Runyan the Eye Man at McConnellsburg Thursday afternoon, November 15th and Fri- one wanting regular work at exme now.

C. V. S. N. S. Notes.

On Wednesday of last week closed find check for another tions for discussion at the local the trustees of the Cumberland year's subscription to the NEWS. institute to be held at Clear Valley State Normal met Dr. Geo. We are always anxious when Sat- Ridge on Friday evening. Nov- Brecht secretary of the Departurday comes to get the paper it ember 23. 1. Discipline, Through ment of Public Instruction, and seems like a letter from home. Interest. 2. Child Study. 3. Deputy Attorney General Kesler, NOENSED FOR HURRIED READERS Although a great many times History and Biography. 4. Train- at Carlisle at which time the nethere isn't any news about any ing for the Rural School Teach- cessary papers are signed that of my personal friends, yet there ers. All teachers, patrons and transferred the school to State

Under the supervision of Miss We live on a farm about 11 ent and to participate in the dis- Conover, teacher of Physical Culture, hockey has been intro-The following is a list of topics duced, and class teams are being Pa.

The last and big game of foot-We have been having lovely ber 23rd. 1. Review Work; Ex- ball was played here last Saturweather here the past week, tent and Value of. 2. How Can day between the C. V. Normal tordsburg, Pa R 1. which makes it nice for corn We Improve the Writing? 3. team and the Millersville Normal husking. My husband has 65 Use of Incentives in School Work, team. The scorce was 32-00000acres of corn out and about 14 All interested in educational 0000! in favor of "us-ens." The boys who represent Fulton County in the foot-ball team are: Rush Henry, Gordon Charlton, Kalb Baldwin, and Marcus Mark-

> Miss Olive Lodge who had been at her home in McConnellsburg ten days on account of illness, returned to her classes last Mon-

Marcus Markley gave a comic recitation in Normal Society last er, Webster Mills, Pa. Friday evening. Mr. Markley was recently elected president of Rush Henry has been elected treasurer of the School Orchestra. Miss Esther Kendall recited 'Our Planting A Tree at Normal" at the recent Arbor Day exercises which were held in the school chapel.

Mrs. Lehman addressed the Normal, and the Philo, society last Friday evening relative to Red Cross work. Nearly one hundred girls responded to the appeal, and they will make surgical dressings three nights each

The March of Progress.

With the adoption of constitubirthday. Those present were: tional prohibition in Ohio and Mrs. John Doyle and children New Mexico last week twenty-Edna, Ethel and Helen; Mrs. W. eight of the forty-eight states of C. Lynch, Mrs. P. P. Shives, the Union are now dry, either by Mrs. Scott Alexander, Mrs. Lloyd legislative enactment or by con-Ray, Mrs. Ellis Unger, Mrs. stitutional prohibition. In addi-Vores and children, John, Charles tion, the District of Columbia, and Helen; Mrs. Frank Tritle, Porto Rico and Alaska territories Mrs. Joe Sowers, Mrs. Harvey are prohibition. The dry states W. Virginia

Maine Virginia Indiana N. Carolina Ohio Colorado S. Carolina New Mexico Georgia Arkansas Alabama Washington Montana S. Dakota Oklahoma

Iowa Idaho Kansas Utah Michigan Nebraska Oregon Arizona N. Dakota Mississippi Tennessee New Hampshire

New York is the twelfth state to grant full suffrage to women. by which two-million is added to the voting strength of the state. Others are Washington Oregon, Colorado, Idaho, Nevada Utah, Arizona, Montana, Wyom ing, California and Kansas, Women vote for president in Illinois, Indiana, North Dakota and Rhode Island.

In Arkansas women vote in the primaries. There the primary is equivalent to election, as there is virtually no minority

Three additional Pennsylvania counties will go dry early in 1918. They are Perry, Warren and Forest. In each of these counties an associate judge was chosen Tuesday. Each was a dry candidate.

Top Wages. Regular Work.

Hagerstown, Maryland, is the largest and most progressive city in the great Cumberland Valley. It is spending over one million doliars on its new Sewer System. This work is now beginning and will last several years. The contractors for this big improvement are The H. C. Brooks Company. They are pay a Christmas entertainment in ing top wages and giving regular work the year round. Boarding aud living in Hagerstown are very cheap, and much less than in most other communities. The use some good men as laborers and rock men at this time. Any. Maryland,-Adv.

Wanted, For Sale, For Rent, Lost, Found, Etc.

RATES-One cent per word for each nsertion. No advertisement accepted for less than 15 cents. Cash must acompany order.

For Automobile, fire and life nsurance, see JOHN R. JACK-SON, Agent. 6 28 17 tf

FORSALE -Six nice Pigs, soon be six weeks old .- MRS. ELIZA-BETH MELLOTT, Pleasant Ridge,

FOR SALE-Registered Poland China Hogs large type. Price right-H HOWARD PECK War-11 15 3t

BUCKWHEAT.-Bring us good milling buckwheat now. We pay $1 35 cash for 48 pounds. - HARRY E HUSTON, Saltillo, Pa. 10 18-tf FOR SALE -Fresh cow, two

Springers, and Brown Swiss Bull 2 years old -JOHN NEW MAN, Enid, Fulton County, Pa

FULTON HOUSE, McConnellsburg, Pa for sale. Apply to D H Patterson, Real Estate Brok-

11 6 t

OLD METAL WANTED -Why not haul your old castings to the Hancock Foundry and Machine Works, who will pay you 80 cents a hundred for plow points and id stoves, and a dollar a hundred for mill and machine castings.

FOR SALE-About 10 tons of hay-part, pure timothy, and part, timothy and clover mixedall good bright Hay; also, some corn fodder by the bundle.-W. H. WAGNER, 1 mile North of Knobsville.

AUTOMOBILE FOR SALE-One six-cylinder, 7-passenger, 45 horse power, Buick, 1916, good as new. Attractive price for cash, or will exchange for a light er car-Miss J. C. Cromwell, 57 East Shirley St., Mt. Union, MEN WANTED-Laborers, Carpenters Helpers, Mechanics Helpers, Firemen, Trackmen, Stock Unloaders, Coke Oven Men, and other help. Good wages and steady employment. Apply to COLONIAL IRON CO., Riddles burg, Pa.

LOST-Large hound, male, near Fort Littleton, black body, white legs and breast, white stripe across hips, white spot on right shoulder, collar tag and name Chas. Sheffield on him. If found, notify GEORGE SHEF-FIELD, Fort Littleton and reward will be given.

FARM FOR SALE containing 283 acres near Amaranth post office Fulton county, Pa, first class home and farm. Opening for a good cropper. Terms can be made easy. Write J. L. RICH-ARDS, Clarksburg, W. Va., or Attorney J. R. JACKSON, McConnellsburg, Pa. 10 25 8t

Private Sale.

The undersigned having been given power of Attorney, will offer at private sale all the valuable real estate of the late A. F. Baker, deceased, one farm containing about 160 acres more or less, sit uate about 14 mile south of Wells Tannery, Fulton County, Penna. This farm is one of the best wheat growing farms in Wells township, and it will be a bargain to a quick buyer. This offer good for only 60 days.

For price and conditions, call on or address

J. W. BARNETT, R. R. 2. Box 55, 9-20-9t. Hopewell, Pa

Use Sassafras for Spice.

A McConnellsburg lady made an accidental discovery recently that will help to solve the high cost of living. She told it as a joke on herself, but that was Saturday night. before she realized that she had innocently added to the sum total of our knowledge of the usefulness of one of our most common native products. The lady in question put up a lot of "spiced" pears and through mistake used have taken up their residence in contractors on this work could dried sassafras bark in place of Hagerstown. We are sorry to cinnamon. After she had been see these estimable people leave complimented for having such the Valley. fine pears she "let the cat out of day, November 16th until 2 cellent wages, combined with the bag." But please do not of Cumberland, spent part of last o'clock in the afternoon. No cheap living, should go to Hagers | tell Mrs. Woollet that we told on testing in Fulton County after town at once or write to The H. her. We think Food Commission- Hendershot. the first of January. Better see C. Brooks Company, Hagerstown er Hoover should hear of this 11 1 4t discovery.

gifts they buy that we are giving our best efforts toward making this the Gift and Art Shop

So many people want exclusiveness in the

of the Cumberland Valley. No more

EXCLUSIVE

are to be found anywhere. You cannot tail to find something at this shop to meet the taste of friend or relative.

No trouble to show you—No obligation to buy anything unless you want to.

OFFICE APPLIANCES KODAKS ENGRAVING

GET READY FOR Fall and Winter

by buying your Dress Goods, Ginghams, Outings, Blankets, &c., now. We bought all these goods very early and we know that prices have been wonderfully boosted since then, but we can and will sell a lot of goods this season at prices actually obtaining to-day. With no break in sight and the possibility of still further advances in some lines, it will pay you to see our stock before long.

Under Wholesale Prices

IN UNDERWEAR

our entire line, which is now in, comprises all the best standard makes, goods that will fit and wear, and much cheaper than we can get them now.

Shoes For The Family

This will be one of the hardest, if not the worst, proposition the buyer will have to face this fall, but we can ease the situation a great deal for you out of stock bought before the leather market got so wild.

That you should take this matter seriously, goes without saying. Come here and let us help you.

Geo. W. Reisner & Co., McConnellsburg, Pa.

LASHLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dawson and grand daughter, of Davis, W Va., are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stoner.

Mrs. George Hoopengardner is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lews Metz, at Cumberland.

We are sorry to note the death of our old friend and veteran Mr. Henry Lee. After a couple weeks' suffering, death came to his relief about 12 o'clock last

Miss Margaret Ritz, of War fordsburg is visiting relatives

The sale at Dr. McKibbin's was largely attended. Mrs. Mc-Kibbin and daughter, Miss Mary

Mr. and Mrs. George Screiver, week with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred

The farmers are taking advantage of this fine autumn weather, to husk corn and get in wood.

The first local institute of Union township was held at Excelsior School last Friday evening. The splendid literary program and the good attendance of patrons show that there is interest in school work in that vicinity.

Some of our young people are attending Revival Service at Mayes Chapel and Piney Plains. Word received from our soldier boys, says they are well and getting along nicely. A. J. Schetrompf and family will move into the house recently vacated by Mrs. J. M. Mckibbin. Mr. and Mrs. James Lafferty, of Clearfield, are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. Frank Stable. Mrs. John Hebner is visiting her daughter Mrs. Sheldon Hill (Nellie Morgret) in Baltimore.

HIDES .- Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellaburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

Advertisement.