THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS. McCONNELLSBURG. PA.

MASTERMAN'S LIFELONG ENEMY APPEARS AND THE FOR-MER IS SEIZED WITH A FATAL APOPLECTIC STROKE.

Naval Lieutenant Donald Paget, just given command of the F-55, a submarine, meets at Washington an old friend and distinguished though somewhat eccentric scientist, Captain Masterman. Masterman has just returned from an exploring expedition, bringing with him a member of the strange race, the existence of whose species, he asserts, menaces the human family. 'At the club, the "March Hares," Masterman explains his theory to Paget.

slight jar to the couch on which the MacBeard stooped hastily and was

"Excuse me, but is that not ad-

He was sure that he had seen his

MacBeard had placed his hand over the envelope, as if to hide the ad-

"I suppose that you are the man

profit by Captain Masterman's discov-

The insolent challenge, and the

"I am not accustomed to having my identity questioned," he answered.

'You'll hand over that envelope, and sneering tone awakened Donald's an-fell out of the dead man's pocket.

Donald intervened.

plied:

erles.'

is Paget-Lleutenant Paget."

CHAPTER II-(Continued.)

1000

1.

"I know it, my boy," the captain answered. "I've been called crazy ever since I saw the sen serpent off Aber-I have to thank MacBeard for deen. that. Ever since he learned that I was on the track of something blg. he has been trying to queer me. And when I discovered mammalian life on the sea floor, I was called an impostor, which hurt more. But as I see it, lieutenant, a man can only be true to himself, and I stand for truth and fair play, moderation and courteous dealings, not mudslinging and invective, and calling names, like that pigcon-brained, pot-faced porous plaster, all his acquaintances, MacBeard."

"But at least you won't mention haven't open minds," pleaded Donald. "No, sir. I wash my hands of them all. That's why I have told you about this. But if you don't listen, if you don't warn the world-

"I?" exclaimed Donald, "Good Lord, Masterman, you can't suppose that I am able to stake my professional career upon the retailing of such a story! Even supposing it true, the ger. He grasped the professor by the thing won't happen in our time. Why wrist which held the letter. should a world epoch terminate in this particular generation and another begin?"

Masterman leaped out of his chair and stood beside the lieutenant. He twined his fingers convulsively in his long beard, and there was a look of fanaticism upon his face.

"Because it has already terminated and begun," he shouted. "Because 1 have felt them !"

"Seen them, you mean !"

"Felt them, sir! Ocean men. Monsters, between the Shetlands and the Faroes, just where the continental shelf rises to a hundred feet-feet, sir, not fathoms-and then sinks to the uttermost physses of the sea. A natural ladder, sir, a mountain path up to the world. And if you won't tell the world-"

He broke off and stared at the door leading into the passage from which thoroughfare flanked by neat tw story houses. Each had a tiny garden surrounded by a high wall There was about it an atmosphere, if not of mystery, at any rate of the retirement common to such backwaters in the roaring streams of city life. The captain's was the last house in the street. It stood a little farther back than the rest, and was turned slightly askew, facing them obliquely, as though it knew itself to be out of place and was watching its neighbors apprehensively over its shoulder. There was no light behind any of the drawn shades. A small dome on a fint roof seemed to contain a tele-

Donald climbed a fence, walked round to the back, and went up the weed-grown path. The grass had not been mowed since it sprouted in spring; the garden was unkempt and ragged. Donald felt sure that there was nobody within.

As he trod the flags of the garden walk, he fancied he heard the footsteps of a man in the street, following He stopped and listened, but him. now no sound was to be heard. He peered back into the darkness, but saw nobody. Doubtless it was a hallucination; it was a place of echoes and hauntings. And it seemed singularly appropriate for old Masterman body had been laid, a bulky envelope to have had his lonely residence here, matching his lonely life.

As Donald had anticipated, the front about to transfer it to his own when door was locked, and the window of the living room was apparently nailed He traversed the narrow path up. dressed to me?" he asked. "My name that led to the back of the house. To his surprise, the kitchen window was open.

name upon the envelope, and it oc-Then it occurred to him that Mascurred to him that this must be the terman had, of course, gone directly document about which Masterman had home on his return from his last poken. Donald felt greatly touched earthly voyage. He swung himself o think that Captain Masterman had across the window sill and dropped to had him in his crazy mind, even bethe kitchen floor. He lit a match and fore their accidental meeting, out of found the gas. The yellow flare disclosed a very ordinary kitchen. Masterman's coat hung on a nall beside the window, and these matters to people who-who dress; but, seeing that it was impos- he had been cooking porridge upon sible to deny Donald's assertion, he re- the range. Donald went through into a room at the back of the house, which had apparently been built out at a you claim to be, and can prove it? A date subsequent to the completion of good many persons are anxious to the structure in its original form. He stopped short at the threshold, hearing the "swish, swish" of water. It was not falling water, but a gentle and continuous rippling. It occurred to him that it was, on a smaller scale, the sound that a seal makes in

> There was a palm tree in a huge pot on either side of what looked like an enormous goldfish bowl. Behind this was a second bowl, even larger. In the middle of the room was a complicated apparatus resembling a retort. He saw a chandelier close to the

Donald lit three gas-jets.

Approaching, he perceived that the top of the tank was covered with class. A slender tube of the same material entered the water from above, where it was supported upon an arm extended from a wall. There was a connection between the tube and another which ran upward from end of the war. the top of the retort. Presently Donald caught sight of a barometer attached to the front of the mechanism. Now he began to understand. The object in the tank, whatever it was, was under a pressure of a number of atmospheres.

Though by birth the mon in this group, photographed at a National army cantonment, are as diverse as one course possibly Imagine, they stand together in their readiness to fight for Uncle Sam. Chinamen, Italian, Greek, native American, Russian, and native of Turkey, they are one in their Americanism.

GERMAN PATENTS AID DYE INDUSTRY

Processes Built Up by Foreign Experts.

Americans Get Manufacturing Information Great Britain Has Obtained Since the War Started-Eu-

tions and for adequate compensation to make use of German patents during, and in some cases, after the war. complete lists of the patents for makfrom their German owners with the shortly after England entered the war. Parker. It was recently announced by the department of commerce that the Du CAPTURED 'ZEP' IS A WONDER CRAF Pont company intended entering upon the manufacture of dyestuffs on a large scale. According to representatives of the company, the Du Pont company in this country at freight and express terminals. Recently they have been ists have succeeded in duplicat- introduced all over England, the short ing on short notice many of the age of men making it imperative. Add processes which were built up by ing machines and calculating machines generations of German dyestuffs exwere almost unknown in England beperts. A greater impetus will be given fore the war. Now they are being put to the industry, according to American into use wherever they can to save ENGLAND GIVES THE DATA to the industry, according to American into use wherever they can to save patent laws places patented German farm machinery has, of course, been processes at the disposal of American introduced into farming in all parts manufacturers. There are 46 firms in of England, and in almost an equal this country in the new dyestuffs indegree the use of American labor-savdustry now pending 60,000,000 pounds ing devices has been introduced into of dyes a year. other industries. This is more or less

Without German Patents.

While the war has created this great true, likewise, of France, Italy, and industry for America and has multiother countries. American tool manu^J plied the output of many other indusfacturers have been virtually re-Washington .- Many of the larger tries, it has also taught Europe the equipping the industries of these counmanufacturing concerns in this coun- use of American labor-saving machintries. Before the war Germany was try have recently obtained through ery and of American labor-saving dea leader in Europe in labor-saving ma-British connections lists of the Ger- vices, according to Albert E. Parker of chinery and standardized methods, but man-owned patents which have been the firm of Marks & Clerk, English the other countries have been moderntaken over by British firms since the patent lawyers. Mr. Parker says that ized by the war in this respect. Inbeginning of the war. These lists American manufacturers in the past dustrial methods have been changed have been sought by manufacturers frequently failed to take out patents all over the world. The reports of the in this country in order to place hem in England and in other countries be- United States government abound in in a position to take advantage at once cause the patented article was proinstances of it. For example, it is of the provisions in the Webb bill on duced in this country on such a scale stated that motor lorries have been intrading with the enemy, which enables that there was not the slightest fear troduced in considerable numbers into American firms under certain condi- of competition abroad. the Federated Malay states. Even

"American manufacturers should re- China has entered upon an era of manmember that the war has resulted in ufacturing and is producing many introducing American methods and manufactured articles which were Through British representatives 15 machinery all over the world and is previously imported. It is plainly in-American dyemakers have received educating workmen so that it will not dicated that after the war all counbe safe to rely, after the war, on the tries will put forth their best efforts ing dyestuffs, which British firms took belief that American machinery can to do their own manufacturing, and continue to offset the cheaper labor the whole world is being educated, authority of the British parliament bosts in foreign countries," said Mr. largely by the United States, to use better industrial methods.

37% More

For Your

Money

office boy. "Shall I show him in?" "Not on your life !" exclaimed t junior partner. "I owe him ten d lars."

"Show him in," calmly said the set or member of the firm. "He owes r twenty-five dollars."-Harper's Mont ly.

If your eyes smart or feel scalded, man Eye Balsam applied upon going to is just the thing to relieve them. Adv.

Long Distance Cry. Mamma-Now be a good little r and stop crying.

Ruth (three years old)-Me wo "Before the war, for instance, stop crying till papa hears me. ever saw in England the electric hand Mamma-But he can't hear you; h trucks and motor trailers which arin New York. used to expedite the handling of good

Ruth-Den me'll dest have to c frou ze telefome.

SWAMP-ROOT FOR KIDNEY AILMENT

There is only one medicine that stands out pre-eminent as a medic ailments of the kidneys curable and bladder.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root stands highest for the reason that it has to be just the remedy needed in ands upon thousands of distressing smaps upon thousands of mescriptic special discusse, makes friends quick cause its mild and immediate effe soon realized in most cases. It is a tle, healing vegetable compound. Start treatment at once. Sold drug stores in bottles of two sizes, um and large.

However, if you wish first to test great preparation send ten cents to Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., I sample bottle. When writing be sure mention this paper .- Adv.

FAULT-FINDING BAD

is King of Indoor Sports But Ca Others Displeasure and Gains Critic Nothing.

Fault-finding is perhaps the kin indoor sports. Or should it be ogued as the queen? It is one simplest of pleasures. There are Bons of people who think they cr play their superior taste or knowl tinding fault. The coffee is not right. My about coffee, therefore, is super more delicate than that of There is something lacking in the rations or the furniture. My jud therefore, is somewhat superior other man's. This habit of fault-fit lingereenble one-bae, too, that unless effort is made to overc

declares a writer in the Milw

Journal. It never appears to oce fault-finders that they them

may be lacking in taste or abil ening the pleasures of others in possessions or actions? One a always can find something to mend. And if there is nothing ever, one would be well to be get criticism, or else say nothing.

are countless little things we may were different, but it is not ge keep pointing them out. Silence trifling things that one does not

Let us guard our tongues useless fault-finding. Let us tri selves to the best model we ca

and remember we are not resp

for the conduct or the works world at large. The world a wrong sometimes. But it ma quently he right when we th wrong. And we ourselves ha claim to perfectness in judge

Suit Case-Ever travel South

Alligator Bag-Sure thing; f

"In most case

of Dyspepsia

Coffee Doe

Not Agree"-

says a well known

Many who use co

fee - not knowi

that it aggraval

stomach troubles-

could still enjoy

delicious hot tab

cape coffee's effec

by a change to u

wholesome, pu

cereal drink-beverage and authority.

& Col

f Hore

FURS

ny old home, you know.

From Florida.

a virtue.

taste.

What is the need, anyway, of the course of its ceaseless peregrinations around its tank.

wall.

The light flickered and sputtered as the air rushed out. Then, when it had grown steady, Donald saw that a sort of photographic lens was attached to a box in front of the apparatus, directed toward the great tank between the palms.

Chemists Duplicate in Short Time America in 1914. American chem-

they had entered the cardroom. A man was standing there. He was perhaps fifty years of age, short, rather chubby, his round face covered with a sparse, prickly growth of hair. His figure was rotund, and like many short, round men with sparse beards, he had an appearance of pompous dignity.

Somehow Donald Imagined that he had been behind the door for a long time, and that his entrance had been prompted by curlosity so uncontrollable that it overcame all sense of shame or fear of discovery.

"MacBeard !" ejaculated the captain quickly. "Donald, my lad-Donald-" He stopped and looked at Donald in a dazed way. He put his hands to his head, a look of bewilderment succeeded that of anger, and he sat down again heavily. His features were suffused with blood. Donald sprang toward him. "Captain Masterman! Are you Ill?" he cried, shaking the old man by the shoulder. MacEeard came into the room and stood beside him, looking down at the captain. Donald was conscious, even In that moment, of a strong personal antagonism toward this man.

"I am afraid he has had a seizure," said MacBeard.

Capt. Jonathan Roderick Masterman looked into the lleutenant's face with an expression of pathetic helplessness, smiled, sighed very deeply, stretched out his legs, and died.

CHAPTER III.

The House in Baltimore.

Life was extinct, and the doctor who was hastily summoned could only confirm what all perceived. He gave it as his opinion that heart disease was the cause of death, and stated that there would be no need of an, coat just as MacBeard returned. inquest.

"Was he excited just before his seizure?" he inquired of Donald.

"Yes," answered the lieutenant, "He was worked up about a theory of his

OWD. The doctor nodded. "A very happy death." he said. "He didn't suffer. I suppose you know where his relatives are to be found?"

Donald was entirely ignorant. The little group that had gathered about the body, their own theories temporarily laid aside, were equally in ignorance. Nobody was much interested held from Byam's undertaking estabin anyone else at the Inventors' club. Then Professor MacBeard stepped forward.

"I had some acquaintance with Capthin Masterman," he said. "In fact, ald. we were strong friends, although our the interment and to take charge of you good evening," said the profesany papers that my old colleague may sor cordially. have left, pending the appointment of Donald took the proffered hand and an official trustee."

was hardly ten minutes since Muster- station. man had denounced him in his char-

A Man Was Standing There.

afterward I will submit my proofs to whoever is qualified to receive themand you can do the same."

MacBeard's hand opened and Donald took out the envelope.

"Why, my dear sir," said the professor with an embarrassed laugh, "I really had no intention of withholding anything that is legitimately yours. I assure you, nor of questioning your good faith. I was a little startled at the moment. Perhaps, as mutual friends of the late Captain Master-man, we may take care of his interests jointly." As Donald made no reply of any nature, MacBeard turned to the physician, and had soon completed the arrangements for the removal of the hody. Then he went to the clerk's desk

He held the envelope in his hand still, and he was about to place it in his pocket when his glance fell upon a sentence of the manuscript within. Donald drew it forth and read:

In the event of your hearing of my sudden death you must not delay a moment, but go to my house at 166 street Ealtimore. Above all, beware of Macstreet Beard. He is an enemy of the human race. So much I have learned, but-

Donald thrust the loose sheet into his trousers pocket and replaced the envelope, containing the rest of the mark: manuscript, in the inner pocket of his

He would go to the house in Baltimore, and see what there was to be done. He knew Masterman had lived there alone for years, in the intervals between his voyages. MacBeard came up to Donald with smile of affected friendliness. "I understand that there is no record of our friend's address," he said

"Poor Masterman was a very retiring man. No doubt we shall learn from his friends in a day or two. I will have an announcement published, and have arranged for the funeral to be lishment the day after tomorrow at noon. Is there anything further to dle ends, or other paraflin material. be done?"

"I hardly think so," answered Don-

"Then if you can look in here toviews were divergent upon certain morrow at cleven, we may talk mat- inder which can be used for heating subjects. I shall be happy to see to ters over. And now permit me to wish food in the field.

Liontenent Paget was consideed of the Hmp fingers. He strode out of ity)-"Oh, charge it. I've no desire to that MacBeard was lying. Why, it the club and took a taxicab to the reduce your profit."

The Baltimore train was just about acteristically unmeasured terms! And to leave. Late that night Lieutenant at that moment, apparently by coinci- Paget found the captain's house. It a food conserver. Have you got any Frace, but doubtless on account of a proved to be in a little old-fashioned old food you don't want wasted?"

American manufacturers, according to He approached the tank and walked the department of commerce, have so round it, peering into it from every far invested more than $200,000,000 in side. He saw the ripples on the wathe manufacture of dyestuffs, and are ter, and there was a faint sound as of now producing dyes in greater quan a fin brushed against the glass. But titles than they were consumed in he could see nothing in the nature of a living thing.

WINS WEALTHY BROKER Lieutenant Paget sees a specimen of the strange race which Masterman has described.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

MISTAKEN FOR GRAND DUKE

"God Forbid, I Am an Honest Man!" Replied Russian Army Leader, in Reply to Salutation.

An amusing story is going the rounds In Petrograd just now concerning General Brusiloff, who can be very direct and brusque in his manner when he chooses.

The army leader happened to be in the capital on business-this was before the revolution-and was mistaken by an officer passing for a certain grand duke of notoriously pro-German sympathy.

Coming smartly to the salute, the officer, who probably, judging from his manner, had some petition for preferment to present, led off with the re-

"Pardon me, sire, but I believe I am addressing the Grand Duke So-and-

"God forbid !" replied General Braslloff, "I am an honest man." And saluting gravely in his turn he passed on.

Portable Fire for Soldiers.

A compact portable material for building a small cooking fire is a blessing to the soldier in the field in winter. The Italians have devised a home-made "fire ration" which the people at home prepared last winter for the men in the cruel Alpine passes. The fire ration is made from old newspapers, and can-The newspapers are cut into little cylinders, which are afterwards bolled in the parafiin. This produces a highly compact and combustible little cyl-

Her Generusity.

Jeweler-"For cash, madam, I give felt a sense of disgust at the touch 5 per cent discount." Customer (air-

Fee to Waste.

"Are you a tramp? "No, mum, I'm

Make Thorough Investigation

WHEEL WOUNDED TO SCENE mit this. In spite of this handicap

Learning Airplane Construction in Practical Way.

Field Headquarters of the American Army in France.-The stray Zeppelln, L-49, that was downed by the French near · Bourbonne-les-Bains, while trying to get back to its base, was 600 feet long and the envelope was 60 feet in diameter.

a thorough examination of the great craft, but the civilians were held around the dirigible.

The gondolas are connected by a leated cock-walk and the whole construction of the craft was said by her examiners to be wonderful. The outer cover is of delicate texture, double riveted and soldered. She was equipped with a wireless outfit.

Gun in Each Gondola.

The machinery is highly complicated and the driving motors were equipped with 12 cylinders. There was a machine gun in each of the gondolas and the rear one was equipped with hammocks for the crew. Apparently, however, the forward gondola was fitted up as a cabin for the commander. The lower upper part a dull gray. On one side was painted a small fron cross.

in the craft, but the forward gondola had been wrecked in descent.

he craft be sent to the Invalides Palace in Paris.

After inspecting the balloon the American officers were returning to own just as the Zeppelin's prisonered crew was being transported

Miss Belle Ashlyn, once the wife of Billy Gould, who is to wed Alanson Follansbee, head of one of Chicago's leading brokerage firms. He is now at the officers' school at Fort Sherithough made by a sword welt. The of the owners of the dogs.

dan.

Correspondent Narrates a Queer War Adventure, Which Some Probably Will Doubt.

London .- A naturalist correspondent narrates a queer war adventure he had with a menagerie recently. Elephants, parrots, monkeys, a pair of leopards and some antelopes were stowed on a big steamship which two may deny it as a cause-the German friend, alleging that the sailors were torpedoes luckily missed. But the vessel had a gun, and it went off. So, as trumpeted, and kept it up, and the big hotels of Machine. So far the dye industry in this country has been built up without the aid of German patented methods, because the laws of the country did not per-

> Several Hundred Americans, Commanded by an Aviation Officer, Are

French and American officers made back by ropes that were stretched ation school.

portion was painted black and the chines are built until they are ex-

There were no builet holes visible It has already been suggested that brough the crowded streets.

The commanding lieutenant looked footed guests for an airing in a park downhearted and disgusted. Another near the hotel, and it is said the "rate" officer was a typical old Prussian for the aristocratic animals furnishes non-com with a scar on his nose as a substantial increase in the hotel bill

U-BOAT RUNS INTO MENAGERIE | it were, did the menagerie. You may | cats, monkeys and parrots made at not believe all this naturalist says, noise "like fiends coming up for the any more than the tales of an angler or a golfer; you may refuse to accept the showers of eggs from the frightened parrots, or that the leopards changed their spots, which are now of a decidedly paler hue. But from his amused horror about it there is no doubt that the menagerie went mad, and that-though the ship's gunner wife of one plaintiff and the other a able scale without waiting until the French and American Officers men were well built and wore leather jackets.

> It was reported here that another Zeppelin was captured several kilometers away when the forward gondola crashed into a tree, dumping part of the crew to the ground. The Zeppelin, relieved of this load, then rose, tilted unsteadily and caught ffre.

The Zeppelin brought down intact, near here carried only incendiary bomba apparently for the purpose of self-destruction in the event of cupture. All the explosives evidently had been dropped in England.

The French evidenced the greatest interest in the prize, and many wounded were wheeled to the scene in chairs.

Several hundred Americans, commanded by an aviation officer, are learning airplane construction in the most practical way possible a# a French camp a few hours' ride from General Bullard's student avi-

French planes of all types wrecked, or damaged at the front are shipped to this camp and are taken apart by the Americans under French instructors. They are learning how to make repairs and to build new motors as well. Each student spends half a day learning the theory of airplane construction and the other half in actual shop practice taking down motors of all types and rebuilding them.

The French instructors frequently remove a piece of the mechanism and then ask the American what is missing. Similar instruction is given in assembling machines. When this educational training is completed the men enter the factory; where maperts in all lines of airplane construction and repair.

Cares for Canine Guests.

Denver, Colo .- Although Denver's leading hostelry does not allow dogs in its rooms, they provide kennels in the basement for the care of canines brought to the hotel by guests.

The kennels are neat, roomy and "individual," fitted up in rows neur the basement entrance. Bellboys can be seen each morning taking the four-tel is the defendant in four damage suits, involving $20,000, brought by two sailors and two women, one the U-boat disappeared. The elephants ejected from the dance floor of the

POSTU "There's a Reaso

