Only One Sack.

Local Food Administrator John R. Jackson calls the attention of flour dealers, and the public, to the ruling of the United States Food Administration which prohibits dealers in towns or cities from selling more than 24 pounds of wheat flour, and dealers in rural communities more than 48 pounds, at one time to individual consumers. This does not mean that a consumer can purchase one or two sacks of flour, as the case may be, walk out of one store into another and purchase the same amount. This ruling was made to prevent hoarding of flour.

Consumers should have on hand only sufficient flour for their own immediate needs. Those having more than a reasonable amount are violating the Hoarding Act. Flour can only be purchased in equal quantities with wheat substitutes as mentioned in other notices.

One Cent More Today.

Today it costs $4.13 to buy a five-dollar savings stamp—a baby bond—and that rate will continue until the end of February. It is only a cent more than in January, which few will miss, but a cent will be added every month during the remainder of the year. If you do not own one of these little bonds of the government you are doing yourself an injustice. You may buy one outright or obtain it by accumulating sixteen thrift stamps at 25 cents each. But do your bit by investing something for yourself and children. Five years hence these little bonds will be redeemed in cash with four per cent. Compound interest. Your children will be better Americans if they become interested in this plan of saving.

Soldiers' War Insurance.

Attention is again called to the fact that, unless the time is extended, the soldier boys and their dependents will soon be unable to secure government war insurance. This insurance is the cheapest in the world, and is designed to take the place of the pensions formerly paid by the government. Very few applications have been made by Fulton County people for this investment, and but two women have applied for government aid in connection with their soldier husband's pay; at least, through the undersigned. Neighbors will kindly assist soldiers' dependents in these matters.

W. C. PATTERSON,
Chairman Civilian Relief Com.

Five years ago the person, who would have predicted then that in 1918 the prosperous Hagerstown brewery would be sold as junk, would have been called a dry fanatic.
