NEW RUSSIAN BRIDGE, ONE OF LONGEST IN THE WORLD

One of the longest bridges in the world, the railway bridge over the Amur river at Khabarovsk, Siberia, which has been completed after five years of construction at a cost of $9,000,000. The bridge is 7,598 feet long. Its finish marks the completion of the Amur railway from Kuoeng to Khabarovsk. It is most likely that this new bridge will figure in the war, as it will be necessary for the Teutons to cross it to get to certain sections of Siberia, which, according to dispatches received here, will be occupied by Japanese troops to protect the supplies there.

GRENADE RECEPTION FOR A HUN ATTACK

This Polish in the first line trenches "somewhere where the battles rages" is ready to fire a rifle grenade into the ranks of the oncoming Teutons.

COURTS MOSLEMS' FAVOR

Kaiser Wilhelm dons a Turkish uniform when he wants to impress the Mohammedan subjects of his ally, Sultan Mehmed V. Pictures of the German emperor so arrayed are being shown to the people of Germany and the Ottoman empire as representing the protector and deliverer of the Moslems, though discreet silence is maintained regarding massacres of Armenians and ill-treatment of other Christians as well as Jews with the sanction of his friend, the sultan. It will be noticed that the kaiser has bedecked himself with every decoration it is in his power to bestow.

Knew What He Was About.

Boston has frequently been made the butt of the joker who declares that our cops go about with their noses buried in a volume of Epictetus or some other ancient. We've never noticed any doing this. We confess, however, to hearing of a policeman who was having his baby christened and gave the name "Septimus Octavius" to the officiating clergyman. "But—er—" began the minister. "That's all right, sir," said the cultivated cop. "He's the seventh son, but the eighth child."—Boston Evening Transcript.

YOUNG AERIAL RECRUIT

Uncle Sam is raising and training for his aerial dispatch service thousands of carrier pigeons. By that time Watt had discovered the power of steam. Coal was used to generate steam and steam was used to pump the water out of the coal holes. In this way burning coal made it possible to obtain more coal to burn.

ODD HIDING PLACE OF A BOCHE SNIPER

A Poilu posing in the stump of a tree from which a Boche sniper for months made life miserable for the men in the first line trenches in the Aisne sector. A French raiding party under cover of night finally discovered the Boche in the stump of this willow tree and the sniper hid snipe no more.

Fish's Armor.

The possession of a complete armor is very common among fishes; as a matter of fact, the scales of fish, when of sufficient size and thickness, and covering the greater part of the body, form a most effective protection against injury. Some fish are completely encased in a dense bony armor covering the entire body. The eyes, all the fins, the lips and other small necessary apertures alone are movable, these appearing in openings at the side where they occur, held in position by surrounding tough skin.

First Coal Was Quarried.

Nobody knows just when man first came to use coal as fuel. Coal was not systematically mined until little more than 400 years ago at Newcastle, England. These coal quarries were not deep and were frequently flooded with water until 125 years ago, when mining began to go below the surface. By that time Watt had discovered the power of steam. Coal was used to generate steam and steam was used to pump the water out of the coal holes. In this way burning coal made it possible to obtain more coal to burn.

Why He Wished to Enlist.

Paul Gary of Anderson is all American, with the exception of a glass eye. The substitute optic is alien. Gary tried to enlist in the United States marine corps at the recruiting station at Louisville. He was rejected when his infirmity was discovered by Sergeant G. C. Wright. "Didn't you know that the loss of an eye would prevent your enlisting?" asked the sergeant. "I thought it might," explained Gary, "but this glass blinker is the only part of me that was made in Germany, and I want to take it back." He was advised to mail it.—Indianapolis News.

Confront Troubles Bravely.

A feeling of "bigness" comes to the man or woman who strikes right at the heart of the hard problem before him or her. Therefore the wise girl or woman is she who will try to smile when all the world seems awry. Keeping calm and quietly resolving to surmount the difficulty before her means that she will not only master it, but feel bigger and braver as a result.—Exchange.

Strength Gave Out

Mrs. Schmitt Was Miserable From Kidney Trouble Until Doan's Came to Her Assistance. Now Well.

"My kidneys gave out during the change of life," says Mrs. Margaretha Schmitt, 63 Alabama Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y. "My back ached and pained as if it were broken. When I moved in bed, sharp, darning pains caught me across my back, and I couldn't turn. Mornings I was stiff and sore and it felt as if heavy weights were tied to me. I was so worn-out, I often came near falling from dizziness and flashes of fire would come before my eyes, blinding me.

"I had the most severe headaches and my kidneys didn't act regularly. The secretions passed too often and caused much distress. I was hardly able to do my housework and just to walk upstairs took all my strength. "As soon as I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, I improved and six boxes put me in better health than I had enjoyed for years."

Mrs. Schmitt gave the foregoing statement in 1916 and on April 8, 1917, she said: "My cure has been permanent. I keep Doan's on hand, however, and take a few doses occasionally."
