

FULTON COUNTY NEWS

Published Every Thursday.

B. W. P&CK, Editor and Proprietor

McCONNELLSBURG, PA.

MARCH 28, 1918

Published Weekly. $1.50 per Annum in Advance

Entered at the Postoffice at McConnellsburg Pa., as second-class mail matter.

MANY LIKE THIS IN McCONNELLSBURG

Similar Cases Being Published in Each Issue.

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in McConnellsburg. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof of merit.

P. F. Black, prop. planing mill, says: "While at work I slipped and wrenched my back badly. After that I had severe pains across my loins and my back off on got lame and sore. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Trout's Drug Store and they soon gave me relief."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Black had. Foster-Milburn Co, Props, Buffalo, N. Y.

Advertisement.

Testing Seed Corn.

The Germination Test of Seed Corn, is the title of a circular just issued by the Pennsylvania State College.

"It is a good plan after seasons like last fall, when much of the corn failed to mature owing to early freezing," says Nicholas Schmitz, the author, "to test twenty five or more representative ears from the supply saved for seed. If eighty-five percent of the kernels or ears show vitality, it will not be necessary to germinate every ear, but if less than eighty-five percent produce vigorous sprouts, each ear should be tested separately and those not up standard discarded."

The circular describes and illustrates the methods of testing seed corn. This circular (No 81) is free, and may be obtained upon the request made to the Pennsylvania State College Extension Department.

Cancelled Stamps No Good.

Don't send cancelled postage stamps to the Red Cross. It has no use for them. The Pennsylvania Committee of Public Safety has been requested to head off the report that these stamps are desired in order that dye may be obtained from them. Neither the Red Cross, the Post Office nor the Commercial Economy Board of the Council of National Defense want the used stamps which well intentioned persons have been forwarding. Their transmission only adds to mail congestion and wastes time and labor in their handling that are required for essential work.

RAVENSBURG.

We have been getting some improvements on our road.

John Bain, son of J. W. Bain, has gone to live for the summer with his sister Mrs. David Heinbaugh, near Mercersburg.

Mrs. William Kendall spent a part of last week with her mother, Mrs. E. J. Johnston, who is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. John Heinbaugh spent last Saturday with Mrs. Heinbaugh's parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli M. Peck, sons, Charlie and Carl, and Mrs. Mary Peck—all of Needmore, and Mr. E. C. Peck, of Kansas, spent last Sunday in the home of J. W. Bain near Webster Mills.

Miss Esther Kendall is home from Shippensburg spending a few days with her parents.

DR. FAHRNEY HAGERSTOWN, MD. DIAGNOSTICIAN

Specialist in Chronic Diseases. Acute diseases get well of themselves or run into chronic form. There is always a cause and you can not get well until the cause is removed. Cause and effect is the great law of nature. You know the effect—find the cause. Send me your name and address and let me study your case. Consultation Free

THE LIBERTY BOND ALPHABET

By W. F. O'Donnell.

A for AMERICA, Land of the Free—Guarding our freedom for you and for me.

B is for BONDS we must Buy and still Buy—We can Buy more if we only will try.

C is for CASH—just a little today. Then small installments the balance will pay.

D is for DIG—In your pockets Dig Deep—Dollar on Dollar will make a great heap.

E is for EVERYONE pulling together—If you stay out you will show the white feather.

F is for FRANCE, on whose soil we must fight. With men and with money, for freedom and right.

G is for GIVE while you won't miss the Giving—Robbed of your Freedom, would life be worth living?

H is for HONOR, for which our sires fought—Your bit and my bit will keep what they bought.

I is for INTEREST paid on the Loan—Never a better investment was known.

J is for JOIN with the patriots true Who with their money will see the war through.

K is for KAISER—the foe of mankind—Whose cruel hands we with shackles must bind.

L is for LIBERTY, won long ago—Since money can save it, what voice will say "No"?

M is for MUST!—We Must save and Must pay—Money will win, there is no other way.

N is for NERVE—if we have our full share, We shall raise money enough and to spare.

O is for ONWARD! No time for delay! Now is the time! Get your Loan Bond Today!

P is for PEACE—You can help it along—Pay the Price now and it won't take us long.

Q is for QUITTER, a Queer kind of Quack. Quick with his talk, but in giving Quite slack.

R is for ROOTERS, child, woman and man. Boosting for Bonds, while they Buy all they can.

S is for SERVE, SELF-DENIAL and SAVE—Strike with your might, and our Flag shall still wave.

T for TOMORROW, whose sun will never shine—Do it TODAY—Sign your name on the line!

U means UNITED—to stand or to fall—Uncle Sam needs you—respond to the call!

V is for VICTORY, sure to be won When every person his duty has done.

W is for WAR—it is no parlor game—Win it with money, or weaken to shame!

X is for XMAS, the season of cheer—Help Santa bring us success this year.

Y is for YOU—not for some other fellow—Show that your blood is Red, not streaked with Yellow!

Z is for ZENITH, which means the Tip-Top! On to the goal! Buy and Buy, and don't stop!

LOOK OUT! UNCLE SAM WILL HAVE HIS EYE ON YOU!

"How many Liberty Bonds have you bought?" This question must be answered by every individual before Uncle Sam confronts him with accusing eye, to ask the pertinent question that must be embarrassing, unless—

But to explain: The moving pictures will be used extensively in advertising the third Liberty Loan, and perhaps the most striking of the films will be that of Uncle Sam's accusing eye. The screen, after giving information about the Loan, will suddenly ask the big question, "How many Liberty Bonds have you bought?"

Then, quick as life, Uncle Sam, impersonated by a famous film star, appears. With piercing eyes he scrutinizes the spectators. "Ask your neighbor why he bought his Liberty Loan bond," is another caption that appears on the screen. Then the figure of Uncle Sam melts away, but in a moment his eyes—only his eyes—reappear, and search the faces in the house. They are appealing, threatening, persuasive. After they have scrutinized the audience for a while, another request appears: "All those who have bought a third Liberty Loan bond, please raise their hands."

It's a test that thrills the dutiful and shames the slackers. Among the other films which will be used is one showing the building of the Liberty statue in Philadelphia.

Sounds Deceptive.

Someone has estimated that there are 30,000,000 cents in this country, inasmuch as a few cents may sound like millions at certain uncanny hours at night, we demand a count.—Pittsburgh Post.

And She Fell for It.

"I am not easily flattered," she said. "Indeed not," he replied. "It would be difficult to make you out to be more beautiful than you really are."

FARMER NEED NOT FEAR HANDICAPS

Federal Food Officers Assure Growers Fair Deal This Year.

PERISHABLES ARE NECESSARY

Essential as Nutriment and Under the Protection of Authorities in Washington.

Philadelphia, March 19.—C. J. Tyson and M. T. Phillips, representatives of the farmers in the United States food administration for Pennsylvania, have issued a statement to the farmers of the state making an appeal for the increased production of fruits and vegetables.

Their statement follows: Reports have been widely current that perishable products, such as fruits and vegetables, would be discriminated against in shipping during the coming season. We have referred these reports to the Food Administration of Washington and have received from that source emphatic denial of the truth of such statements.

G. Harold Powell, assistant to Herbert Hoover, the Federal Food Administrator, in an interview with Mr. Tyson, set forth the situation as it is. Mr. Powell is in charge of the perishable products division of the National Food Administration. He said: "Apparently there is serious misunderstanding by the public of the attitude of the Food Administration towards the free consumption of perishable materials."

"Foods of the 'Perishable Products' group are essential to nutrition, and their continued production, distribution and consumption are vital. In view of National and International necessities, the Food Administration desires to emphasize these facts, and to assure all producers and handlers of milk products, poultry and eggs, fish, fruits, potatoes and vegetables that no restrictions have been placed on such food materials, or are likely to be."

"Not only are these foods of great use and value in providing the ordinary basis of nutrition, but were the diet and promote palatability of the foods used with them; most of them are succulent or a rich source of bulk in the diet, which aids digestion, and some serve as efficient and necessary regulators of bodily functions thus rendering of ill health."

"There are every condition where perishable products can be grown to greater advantage than staple crops. Any movement which leads to substituting culture of one for the other, will be likely to cause economic loss. It would be unwise, therefore, to limit the areas devoted to any class of perishable crops."

"Instead of restricting the production, it is believed that there never was a time when the opportunity was greater, from the business standpoint, for the expansion and extension of the perishable food industry, as a whole, than at present."

"There is every hope that the railroads will soon be able to move all classes of freight freely and promptly. Even in lines of congestion perishable food products have been placed in the first priority group, and there is no reason to expect any change in this policy."

TO EXPOSE SLACKER HOTELS

Heinz Issues Appeal and Warning Regarding Pledge Cards.

Philadelphia, March 19.—The Federal Food Administrator for Pennsylvania has sent out the following communication to all County Administrators:

The United States Food Administration at Washington is greatly disappointed over the showing we have made up to date in securing signed Pledge Cards from Hotels, Restaurants and Clubs. Out of 13,000 establishments we have received only 5000 cards. This is to be regretted and it is now up to us to make a more creditable showing in time with our duty."

It has been decided to start an extensive campaign that ends April 1st. By that date we have promised Washington to have a 100-per cent registration. Will you please, therefore, start immediately to get every Hotel, Restaurant and Club in your County that has not signed a pledge card to do so and send same to this office at the earliest possible date? Inasmuch as we are now asking the observance of only one MEATLESS DAY (which is a Beefless and Porkless Tuesday—mutton and lamb may be used at any time), two WHEATLESS DAYS—Monday and Wednesday, and a WHEATLESS MEAL EACH DAY, you should have no difficulty in getting the enthusiastic co-operation of every Hotel, Restaurant and Club that is not a plain slacker. You can tell Hotels and Restaurants that we expect to publish on April 1st, an Honor List containing the names of those who have signified their willingness to co-operate. No loyal or patriotic American should refuse your request and I know that you will make the showing for your county that we expect."

Samples of Ancient Days.

Down to comparatively recent times every little girl worked her sampler and examples of seventeenth-century work are still found and are the objects of the collector's search. They usually contain the alphabet, the worker's name, the date, Bible texts, mottoes and pious admonitions, the whole surrounded by an ornamental border of some conventional design. The earliest sampler in existence is said to bear the date of 1643 and is in the South Kensington museum, London.

PUBLICITY ATTRACTIONS AID LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE

Never, perhaps, has publicity played such a part in a government undertaking as it is taking in the campaign to sell bonds in the third Liberty Loan.

Particularly in the Third Federal Reserve District, the headquarters of which is in Philadelphia, is the advertising idea in evidence.

The replica of Bartholdi's Statue of Liberty erected in the center of Broad street before the City Hall in Philadelphia is here shown as it will look upon completion.

It will be over fifty feet in height and the torch in Liberty's hand will be illuminated at night. The base of the foundation is thirty-five feet by sixteen feet and twenty-two feet high and is built of wood and iron. It is seven feet square at the point where the statue rests. In the foundation there will be booths for the taking of subscriptions to the third Liberty Loan. Each subscriber will be entitled to ascend the stairway to the foot of the statue and drive into the pedestal a large headed tack bearing his initials. This will transform the pedestal gradually from a wooden to a metal surface.

In making the mould 10,100 pounds of plaster of Paris was used and the amount that went into the finished statue was 5500 pounds, making 15,600 pounds in all. Enough to lay a thin coating over the street of an entire city block.

An interesting point is that the leading sculptor at work upon the statue is of German birth but took out his first papers two days after arriving in this country in 1893.

A gigantic representation of American soldiers going over the top, backed by a "Liberty bond," to be placed on the north side of City Hall, is another publicity stunt scheduled by the Publicity Committee in Philadelphia for the third Liberty Loan campaign.

This is the biggest cut-out figure ever attempted anywhere. It was designed by Gilbert E. Gable, whose Liberty Statue on the south side of City Hall is nearing completion. It is eighty-two feet high and thirty-five feet wide. Its base will rest on the sidewalk, and a hole cut out of metal will permit pedestrians to pass through it. It will almost cover the central sections of the buildings and will be plainly visible from Girard avenue.

More than three and a half tons of galvanized iron go into the making of it. A carload of lumber will be used in the framework to back it up. Not a nail will be driven or a hole bored in any part of the building to hold up the figure. This seeming impossibility will be accomplished by driving wedges into the crevices between the stones and by a system of cleats, bands and cables will insure absolute stability.

The design shows soldiers leaving a trench. The leading one has his foot on the top. In practice this will come just at the top of the arch leading to the City Hall courtyard. The second soldier is getting a footing to follow his comrade. Back of him is an immense roll representing a Liberty Bond.

Incidentally there will be virtually no waste in handling this attraction, for when it has served its purpose it will be taken down and the metal and wood used for another purpose.

At the east side of City Hall will be an advertising attraction representing the "Battle of the Tanks." This will show great tanks such as used on the European battlefields.

The whole of Philadelphia will be covered with illustrated signs and posters. Arrangements have been made to distribute similar signs and attractions throughout the district, so that during the drive one can hardly look in any direction without seeing something about the Liberty Loan.

EVERY MAN'S PLEDGE America shall win this war! Therefore, I will work, I will save, I will sacrifice, I will endure, I will fight—cheerfully and to my utmost—as if the whole outcome of the struggle depended upon me alone. I will buy, buy, and still buy, Liberty Bonds!

Winning This War For Democracy Will Mean the Ending of Wars. Losing It To Autocracy Would Mean the Beginning of a Series of Frightful Wars.

MAKE CERTAIN OF WINNING!

How to do it? Begin NOW to SAVE! Then Buy! Buy! and Still Buy!

LIBERTY BONDS

AT ANY BANK OR YOUR LIBERTY LOAN COMMITTEE.

Read Good Books. Young women dependent upon their own efforts should give a thought to tomorrow as well as today. The girl alone hasn't anyone to look after her interests, so she must guard them herself. She should keep track of how she spends her salary, and should also join a good benevolent society, so that in the event of an illness or an accident she will be assured of proper medical treatment, and at the same time receive the benefit all such organizations provide.

What a Load! The most powerful Persian camel, the one humped kind from the province of Khorassan, can carry a 600-pound load at a rate of 20 miles a day.

Beware. Many a captivating co-ed has lost a perfectly good stand-in by guessing the wrong name over a telephone.—Minneapolis.

Geo. W. Reisner & Co. HAVE A FEW Ladies' and Misses' Coats left that you can buy at a bargain, as we want to clear them out entirely. It will pay you to look them over Suits and Overcoats We can save you $3.00 to $5.00 on a suit or overcoat. Some elegant values in these goods.

Dress Goods for spring are coming in. These goods were bought very early and are cheap compared with the present market.

Rubbers of all kinds. The best and a fair stock yet.

Come in Geo. W. Reisner & Co., McConnellsburg, Pa.

RACKET STORE We told you about Underwear, Shoes and Winter Clothing. Well, we have sold more of these goods than we ever did sell; and Do You Wear Wool? If you wear wool and have enough to last you next year, you are all right, as when we bought ours, Wool was selling around 30c. a pound. Now it is worth 75 or 80 cents, and labor much higher.

Old Prices. We still have some Men's Wool Drawers that we can sell at old prices $1.00 and $1.35, and the same is true of Rubbers and Shoes. We have a nice lot that we are selling at last year's prices.

SOAP. Just got eight 100-Cake Boxes of Cocoa-oil Butter-milk Soap, in 2 oz. cake, at 5c. cake; Lenox Soap, 5c.; Blueing, 5c. bottle. Hojfast Shoe Nails 4c. box, Hames Hooks, 8c.

Dr. Hess's Remedies FOR ALL KIND OF STOCK. If you have anything that is on the decline—a Horse, Cow, Hog, Sheep, or Chicken, let us show you that it can be made right. Eggs are 60 cents a dozen and it will pay you to try our panacea at 25c. 50c, $1.00 and $2.00 packages. Just try a small pack, and be convinced that we are telling you the truth. We are selling more of it each season. Why not try it? It will cost you nothing, and it will bring results. We also have some good Underwear in Creton that it will pay you to buy. It will be much higher.

HULL & BENDER McConnellsburg, Pa.

FULTON COUNTY NEWS is the people's paper. $1.50 a Year in Advance.