Rheumatism Yields

Only rheumatic sufferers know the agony of its darting pains, aching joints or twisting cords. But some few have not known that has been correcting this trouble when other treatments have utterly failed.

Scott's is essentially blood-food in such rich, concentrated form that its oil gets into the blood to alleviate this stubborn malady.

Get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion or advise an ailing friend. No alcohol.

The Norwegian cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is now refined in our own American laboratories which makes it pure and palatable.

Red Cross Lecture.

A Red Cross Lecture will be given in the Fort Littleton M. E. Church on Friday Evening April 5th, by W. Amos Huston, of Three Springs. Mr. Huston left Princeton College soon after the breaking out of the war, and enlisted, and he has seen six months of active service in France. His lectures are brim-full of valuable information regarding conditions in France, its people, how our American Boys are taken care of, Hospitals, Sanitary Conditions, and how we can best help and aid our lads "over there" Mr. Huston gave a splendid address to a very crowded and attentive house at Clear Ridge last Sunday evening and it may be that this lecture at Fort Littleton will be your last chance to hear him as he is expecting to be called at any time, but he will positively be at Fort Littleton Friday evening unless hindered by some condition over which he has no control.

Let every one attend. Mr. Huston exhibits several very interesting trophies brought from French battle fields. An attractive patriotic program will be rendered during the evening. The small admission of 15 and 20c. will be taken. Come and spend a profitable and educational evening and help our Red Cross along. Proceeds to go for the benefit of the Local Red Cross.

PROGRAM. Given under the direction of Hon. S. L. Buckley, President of Dublin Township Auxiliary. 1. Patriotic Hymn. 2. Song to be sung by the Choir and the pantomime enacted by Misses—Bessie Foreman, Marjorie Bare, Nelle Cromer, Marion Bare, and Edith Wilds. 3. Lecture by W. Amos Huston. 4. Solo—"Our Flag by Harry E. Fraker. 5. Reading—"For the Soldiers" given by Miss Jane A. Cromer. 6. Solo—"Keep the Home Fires Burning by Miss Marjorie Bare. 7. Patriotic Hymn sung by audience in closing. The audience will be led in prayer by E. E. Fraker and the music will be in charge of F. C. Bare.

The ladies of Center church met at the home of Mrs. Jere Heefner and quilted the Name Quilt that they had pieced and worked the names on during the long winter evenings. There are 502 names, and the sum each contributed, on the quilt and each name can be read plainly. Besides the value of the quilt, the names represent a contribution of $114.00 which will be used to repair the inside of the church. The ladies who were present at the "quilting" were Mrs. Wm. Knepper, Mrs. Chas. Koepper, Mrs. J. L. Wright, Mrs. Wm. Miller, Mrs. W. R. Berkstrosser, Mrs. Jere Heefner, Mrs. Wm. Gracey, Mrs. Daniel Rinehart, Mrs. Isaac McClain, Miss Lydia McClain and Mrs. Charlie Black. The quilt is now ready to pass into the hands of the person who is willing to put up the most cash. The quilt is valuable now; but its value will increase as the years roll by, and those whose names appear on it, will one by one have passed to their final reward.

The following visitors added pleasure to Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Mellott at their home in Dublin township on Easter Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stenger and two daughters, near McConnellsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Silas Mellott, near Laidig; Mr. and Mrs. John Mellott (daughter Ruth, near Harrisonville); Mr. and Mrs. William Mellott, and sons Clarence and Raymond, near Clear Ridge, and Mrs. Jane Weaverling and son William, of Hustontown.

Charley Scott moved his shoe and harness mending shop from Rush Cline's building into the Grissinger building on First Street vacated by George W. Smith, and Mr. Smith moved his store and restaurant into the room occupied by the Greathead Brothers as a plumbing depot.

Civilian Relief Hints.

While our soldier boys are yet in this country, and while they are being called from the selective draft, it will be more easy for dependent relatives to secure allowance as provided by act of congress. Perhaps most wives have already done so. A U. S. Treasury order to a young wife for $100 was shown me the other day. This sum with a like amount from the husband represents some back pay, but makes the young wife easy financially and strengthens the morale of the soldiers at the camp or in the trenches in France.

Soldiers' wives are free to apply through this office, but the initiative lies with the soldier for other dependents. Soldier's application blanks and information furnished free.

The Thrice-A-Week Edition of the New York World in 1918. Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No other Newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price. The value and need of a newspaper in the household was never greater than at the present time. We have been forced to enter the great world war and a large army of ours is already in France. You will want to have all the news from our troops on European battlefields, and 1918 promises to be the most momentous year in the history of our universe. No other newspaper at so small a price will furnish such prompt and accurate news of these world shaking events. It is not necessary to say more. THE THIRICE-A-WEEK WORLD's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 136 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS together for one year for $2.15. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50. Western Maryland Railway.
