CHEERFUL WORDS.

For Many a McConnellsburg Household.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove helpful to hundreds of McConnellsburg readers.

Mrs. Lewis Christ, 339 E. Queen St., Chambersburg, Pa., says: "I had rheumatic trouble and my kidneys acted irregularly. At times I was dizzy and my head ached fearfully. Sharp pains took me in the small of my back and across my hips. When I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills I got some and they surely gave me excellent relief. Doan's put me in much better condition in every way."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Christ had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Business Woman.

Until recently, the business woman was the exception. Now she is everywhere. What with suffrage prevailing in many states and likely to become universal; she is also taking a position in public life never before accorded her sex, so far as history records. The world war has been responsible for the woman in business, and doubtless has had its effect in bringing about suffrage. There can be no doubt that to a large extent, woman is in business to stay. It is up to her to make good, and she can do this if she so wills. To succeed, however, she must of necessity reconstruct her views of life. Not only this but her education must be radically changed. Heretofore the boy has been educated for a career. He has been trained for the work that he has chosen. His whole life has been built upon and around his career. Not so with the girl, or if so the careers have been widely different. In every age of the world up to the present, the ultimate object of woman's existence has been marriage. True there have always been exceptions, but they merely sufficed to emphasize the rule. Henceforth, however, if woman is to take her place beside man in the business world, this must be wholly changed. She must be educated and trained for business first and matrimony as an alternative. There will, of course, be many positions where she can continue to gain a livelihood while awaiting the important event of matrimony, but if matrimony continues to be her ultimate goal, business will always be a side issue, a secondary consideration, and her success therein will be negligible. And perhaps, contrary to the age-long contention of lordly man, this business training will not unfit her for that more important vocation of matrimony. We confess our inability to see where a sound business training can be considered objectionable in a wife and mother. And as intellect is frequently the offspring of intellect, who can tell but the new departure may be for the better development of the race after all?

Interesting War Notes.

The State council of defense in Maine has set aside $250,000 to be loaned to farmers.

Wednesday, April 3, was a peak day in sales of war savings stamps, when $4,120,932 was recorded at the Treasury for the day's receipts from stamp sales.

Investigations by the Department of Agriculture in 15 States show that of a total of 6,836,492 sheep, 34,683 were killed by dogs in one year and were paid for by the counties.

Field and garden seeds are unconditionally exempted from all embargoes, according to the Department of Agriculture. Instructions are issued to all railroads to do everything possible to expedite the movement of seed.

The shipping Board plans construction of three launching ways for three 3,500 ton concrete vessels. This type of vessel is still in an experimental stage, and if found successful the board may build 7,500-ton concrete ships.

The order prohibiting the sale of flour in lots of less than 12 pounds has been suspended. Licensed dealers have been advised that they may market several sizes of packages weighing less than 12 pounds, with a 2-pound minimum.

Over 200,000 applications for insurance by officers and enlisted men of the naval service had been filed by March 31. The average amount of insurance on each policy was about $7,300, making a total of more than $1,500,000,000. Payments on war-risk allotments are now about $1,000,000 a month.

In Oklahoma, county councils of defense are securing pledges from automobile owners to furnish transportation to speakers for community councils. The pledge provides that the chairman of the county council may hire a car at the expense of any signer who fails to furnish transportation at the time promised.

Throughout England 102 daily newspapers have been forced to increase their prices, and 676 weekly papers have followed suit. The monthly magazines selling before the war at 9 cents now cost 15 to 18 cents. The cost of novels and books has largely increased, even the popular and widely sold classes having risen from 20 to 100 per cent.

England market reports show the amount of home-grown meat of all kinds coming to the principal markets has averaged 55,000,000 pounds a week since January 1, as against 227,000,000 pounds average for the same period of 1917. The number of cattle coming to market has decreased 65 per cent, sheep 40 per cent, hogs 68 per cent, compared to the same period in 1916.

All airplanes manufactured in the United States for the Army and Navy will bear a red, white, and blue bull's-eye of three concentric circles, similar to the insignia of allied planes, on the wings, and vertical red, white and blue stripes on the rudders. These markings were adopted by the joint Army and Navy Technical Aircraft Board and approved by the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy.

Early Corn for Hogs.

The available supply of grain early next fall will be one of the most important limiting factors in pork production, according to experts at the Pennsylvania State College. Farmers of the East can overcome a possible grain shortage for feeding hogs for market by planting a field of corn that will mature early. In many sections a variety of flint corn may be used and in the better corn growing sections a dent variety that will mature in ninety to 100 days. This type of corn, while it will not give the yield that is secured from the main corn crop, tides the farmer over a time when corn is very scarce. The lower yield of corn from such a variety is readily overcome by the saving of grain effected in not buying corn or other feeds.

Rev. John Mellott will preach at West View school house in Thompson township on Sunday, April 28th, 10:30 o'clock.

Good music, lots of fun. Ministers' Honey-moon. Auditorium Friday night.

A CONVERSATION

Between Mr. Doubtful and Mr. Right

Mr. Doubtful: "I don't see how I can buy any more Liberty Bonds. I bought all I could last fall. I'm not a rich man and I don't think it's fair or just to expect me to do anything more than I have done."

Mr. Right: "Let's see—your next-door neighbor's boy enlisted, didn't he?"

Mr. Doubtful: "Yes, he's over in France now. Mighty fine, stalwart boy, that!"

Mr. Right: "Exactly, and some day that splendid boy, the pride of his parents' hearts, may go 'over the top' in a gallant charge, stop a German bullet, and fall in the mud and debris of No Man's Land. Isn't that asking too much of him, and of his family? Is that 'fair'? Is that 'just?'"

Mr. Doubtful: "Why, it's awful, of course, but it can't be helped. This is war, and men have to be killed in it."

Mr. Right: "You've said it—this is war! To win the war it might be necessary for the government to take your factory away from you, and ruin your business. It might be necessary to take your house and turn you out in the street. What of that? Is that as great a sacrifice as your neighbor makes, or stands ready to make, when he gives his boy to his country? Yet you don't think it's your duty to pinch and save, and borrow if need be, in order to buy Liberty Bonds, and thus help shorten the war, make victory certain, and save the lives of thousands of American boys who will otherwise be uselessly sacrificed."

Mr. Doubtful: "I guess that's true, Mr. Right, I have been thoughtless. I'll stop complaining and criticizing, and put up my last dollar if need be, to help win this war."
