Another Farm Opportunity.

This is another rare bargain in Montgomery County. A 121acre farm, with a 11-room stone honse, barn-stabling for 25 head of cattle, railroad runs through the farm forty rods from station, extra-fine soil, 10 acres wood, balance farm land, plenty of fruit, running spring water at the house and barn, telephone in house, close to towns and schools, possession at once if desired. Will sell this farm for $4200 on easy terms. The live stock and farm implements can be bought right.

For further information call on, or address.

What's in a Name?

Reggie glowed with rapture. He had won the girl of his heart, and in the sanctity of his bedsitting room he was discussing his rosy prospects with a friend.

"Yes," he said while his shirt front expanded many inches. "I think Betty and I are starting married life under the rosiest auspices. Her father is giving us a house: her mother will furnish it for us; her grandfather. is giving us a motor car, and in addition to this, Betty has a snug little income of her own."

"Excellent!" said his friend, inspired by the young man's enthusiasm. "And you-what are you bringing to the happy union?"

"Me? Oh-er-I'm giving my name!'

Find Was A Fake.

Under date of April 8th, W. P. Stern, 86 Falls Ave., Youngstown, O., writes:

"MR. EDITOR:-In the NEWS of April 4th, you published an account of a find of $115,000.00 in gold on the Isaac Shaffer farm in Lawrence County. I beg to inform you that the 'find' is false; the rest of the story may be all right, but the 'find' part was a joke put up by the quarrymen.

"In March, Mr. J. J. Seelar, of Pittsburgh seut you the missing part of the fifth stanza of the song, 'Old Sideling Hill.' If Mr. Seelar will send his address to 86 Falls Avenue, Youngstown, O., he will hear from the 'young fellow' that sang that song in Everett in 1876.

Keeping The Girl On The Farm.

In the April Farm and Fireside, there is an editorial which

"A great deal is said about Roy N. Witter mer h nd se. keeping the boy on the farm; not so much about keeping the girl there. Yet the latter is quite as important as the former. The country needs fine, competent women leaders in community life fully as much as it needs men S. G. Lashley, merchandise. who will lead in first class farm-

'The home and its surroundings are what count in keeping the girl interested in rural life. Every girl, as she grows up, wants attractive, interesting things. If she cannot find them at home, she will find them elsewhere.

"It is not an expensive matter to make things attractive for the growing girl. It is more a matter of thought than of cost. She wants first of all a pretty room. A man or woman who is at all handy can enamel the furniture in white. Flowered chintz can be bought and curtains easily made for the win-

None of these things cost much money. Of course they will cost something, but no more than a reasonably prosperous farm family can afford-no more than it would gladly expend if it realized that this meant the difference between the girl's staying in the community and her going to the city to make her own way."

The Money Store

A modern bank is a great deal like a general store in some respects. Its lines are varied. It caters to everybody, and every line of business.

We have something that everybody wants. We do not wrap our goods in packages but we deliver them just the same. We do not refer to money alone, although that is our principal stock in trade. We can render some service to everybody. Whether it is financing a huge manufacturing concern or loaning Johnnie enough money to buy a calf, we are here to deliver the goods. We urge you to come in and look over our lines. We can serve you well.
