Red Cross Work in Buck Valley.

A very interesting and profitable Red Cross meeting was held at Buck Valley Christian church on Saturday afternoon the 28th ult. Amos Huston, one of Fulton County's boys, who had seen service abroad held a very large audience spellbound for more than an hour with his eloquent and profitable address and appeal for service.

Hon. D. H. Patterson gave an address on Red Cross Work which was much appreciated. He was followed by Hon. S. W. Kirk, who in a few minutes' address, by his patriotic appeal and presentation of facts, aroused his audience to patriotic enthusiasm and fervor. Mr. Merrill W. Nace then made a few minutes' talk on the importance of buying Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps.

We feel that we owe to these gentlemen a debt of gratitude and a "God bless you in your Noble Work."

Several patriotic songs were sung by the audience, and two fine solos were rendered by Mr. Glenn Lehman.

The large crowd parted feeling much pleased at hearing what they did, and with a determination to do what service they might be called to do and to keep on the job until the murderous horde of Central Europe are crushed to death. Union township is proud of the twenty-one brave boys she has already given to the service.

The Red Cross Auxilliary of Buck Valley will decorate the graves of our heroes on the 30th of May, and hold an all-day patriotic service and picnic. Good speakers will be present and an interesting program arranged.

In Memoriam.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mary J. Clevenger, who departed this life one year ago, May 6, 1917.

Death has robbed us of our mother—Whom we loved and cherished so
It was mother, our dear mother,
Can we help but shed a tear.

Mother dear, you're not for gotten
Nor never will you be,
For as long as life and memory lasts,
We'll always think of thee.

Mother we are so sad and lonely,
Since you have gone from us,
And there is no more pleasure
In this dreary world for us.

Home is no home for mother is not there,
But has gone to that home so peaceful and fair.

In silence she suffered in patience she bore,
Until God called her home to suffer no more.

Her willing hands are folded
Her tolls on earth are done,
Her troubles are all ended
Her heavenly crown is won.

I did not know the pain she had,
I did not see her die,
I only know she passed away,
And never said good-bye.

I mourn for her in silence,
None shall see me weep,
But in my sorrowing heart,
Her loving memory I shall keep.

"MAMIE."

Discouraging Letters Cause Desertions.

In a recent statement the War Department strongly advises against discouraging letters to soldiers:

"Recent reports from commanding generals of certain Army divisions indicate that one of the fruitful causes of soldiers absenting themselves without leave is the discouraging letter from home. Such letters frequently give alarming and exaggerated reports or conditions surrounding the soldier's family, that some member is desperately ill, that all are starving, or that they are being in some way harassed. In instances such letters have so preyed upon the minds of soldiers that they have absented themselves without leave to go home, only to find that conditions had been grossly exaggerated.

"Meanwhile, the soldier had been absent without leave—a serious military offense. His problem then became one of facing the penalty or getting deeper into trouble by deserting. Sometimes a man's pride or fear has led him to desert.

"Every soldier wants to receive letters from home. They should be frequent, cheerful, hopeful, and appreciative of the sacrifice that he is making for his country. They should be full of family incidents and cheerful home gossip. They should protect him from the trifling alarms and the small annoyances of everyday life. They should encourage him by giving full confidence that his family and his friends stand behind him in the great enterprise he has undertaken.
