BALLOON EXPLOSION.

Some of Our Home Boys in Aviation Squadron Get Real Experience at Ft. Omaha, Nebraska.

The Fulton County Contingent who joined the Aero Squadron and left McConnellsburg on the first day of February for the Kelly Aviation Field at San Antonio, Texas, have been having real war experience. The Fulton County boys have been separated to such an extent that there is not more than two or three at any one camp. Pete Morton is down at Hampton, Va., Willis Daniels, at Camp Morrison, near Newport News, Va. Lester Waidlich and Jay Baker at Fort Omaha, Neb.

It doesn't mean that every man in the aviation service is a "bird man" for part of the boys are in the airplane division and part in the balloon service. Willis Daniels is in the balloon service as is, also, Lester Waidlich and Jay Baker. On the 2nd day of May, after a day's training at Fort Omaha, the balloons were brought down and placed in their sheds, or "hangars" as they call them. A big balloon, about as large as the Court House—more or less—it had a capacity of 36,000 cubic feet of gas—had just been housed, when without a moment's warning there was a tremendous explosion, and at the same instant the balloon and hangar were a mass of flames. Two men were burnt to a crisp, and others so seriously injured that they will be disfigured for life. Harry Theys was slightly burned about the back and neck.

W. Don Morton, formerly of this county, very kindly sent the Editor an Omaha paper which gives the details of the accident, and in a letter accompanying the clippings, Mr. Morton says:

"Harry Theys who is mentioned comes from Hopewell and is a cousin of the Guillaards of Wells Valley. I entertained him and Lester Waidlich of McConnellsburg last week in my home. Lester is a member of this same company but, fortunately, had been detailed on special work at the time of explosion. I called at the hospital to-day to see Theys and found that he had been discharged. He was burnt a little. It is said that he was on top of the balloon at the time it exploded and was blown about fifty feet by the concussion. I saw some of the boys that were very badly burned and they will be disfigured for life. Two were burnt to death. Their bodies were unrecognizable. A young Baker from Clear Ridge is a member of this same company (the Fourteenth) but I have been unable to see him. The officers make them realize that war is a stern business and they have very little time for visiting.

From this it will be seen that the danger of getting hurt in the aviation service is not confined alone to the time they are in the air.

Mrs. Peter Morton and daughter Miss Joan went to Langley Aviation Field at Hampton, Va. last week to visit Peter Morton Jr., who is a member of Squadron 119, and wholeft with the squadron recruited here in January. The ladies expect to visit Washington, Baltimore, and Camp Meade before returning home.

An All-day meeting will be held at Pleasant Grove church on Sunday, May 26th, which will consist of Baptism, Mothers' service and a patriotic service at which time a service flag for the boys who have gone to war will be dedicated. Evangelist Beard and Rev. A. R. Garland will be the speakers.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 22nd Denton Peck will sell at public sale at his home one-half mile east of Sharpe post office, household goods, carpenter tools, chickens and many other things. Also, at the same time and place, Austin C. Peck will offer for sale the farm, which contains 90 acres.

POCKETBOOK LOST.—Buhl Rohrer lost his pocketbook containing $117.00 on Wednesday morning of last week on the road between his home at Dublin Mills and New Grenada. Liberal reward for return of same, or for information that will lead to its recovery.

Merchant J. M. Myers and family of Mercersburg spent last Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Myers' mother, Mrs. Winnie Kendall, South Second Street.

Candidate Williamson Submits an Open Letter To The Voters of The District.

The campaign has been shortened by patriotic war activities, in which we all have been engaged, and therefore I have not been able to make much of a canvass, and I take this method of appealing to the Republican voters of this district for their support.

I have always been an active Republican, but I now declare that I will at all times place my COUNTRY ABOVE MY PARTY. My every effort will be in the support of our BRAVE BOYS who have gone and who are to go over the seas to crush the Hun and thus preserve for us and the entire world for all time LIBERTY AND FREEDOM. My motto shall be a PATRIOT AND NOT A POLITICAN. My slogan, GET THE HUN AND GET HIM QUICK.

I am emphatically in favor of National Prohibition and Women Suffrage.

Believing that the liberty loving people of this district who have gone over the top in the supports of all war measures will emphatically indorse my platform of COUNTRY ABOVE PARTY.

I am, Very Respectfully Yours,
RICHARD W. WILLIAMSON.

Mrs. Elizabeth Deavor, of Hushtown, spent a few days recently at the home of Frank Price.

William Roubush and son John, and Chester Warner, of Hopewell, R. R. 2 were fishing in Woodbridge creek last Thursday. The biggest one caught by Mr. Roubush got away.

Frank Price, who had been employed at Minersville, spent the past few weeks doing some spring work.

George H. King and son Eme, who are employed at Kearney, spent Sunday at their home.

James Edwards and wife of Johnstown, spent a few days recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards.

Albert Edwards and family of Miner visit the family of Albert's father Joseph Edwards Saturday and Sunday.

Charles Bowser and family of New Enterprise, Bedford County, spent part of Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives in this township.

Samuel Laidig, lately with the Ford Motor Company, has enlisted in the Aviation Corps as a carpenter and expects to leave this week for Greenville. Samuel spent the past week at his home in this township. We hope he may do good work in helping to beat the Huns.

Martin Laidig visited his daughter Lillian and son Ralph in Altoona last Saturday and Sunday.

There was a good attendance at Sunday School and preaching at Fairview on Sunday.

Rev. Straits text was from John 2:5 His sermon was a tribute to mothers and abounded in good advice to all and was given in an impressive manner.

George and Ernest Sprawl of Wells Tannery, before working their war gardens, spent last Thursday fishing in Wooden Bridge.

G. W. Foreman and wife of Wells Valley visited the family of Mrs. Jennie Braut on Monday.

Candidate of the United Dry Forces embodied in the Dry Federation of Pennsylvania. Although practicing as an attorney-at-law since 1907, Mr. Miller has never handled a liquor license petition, but has ever since his admission to the bar represented the remonstrants. In politics Mr. Miller is, and all ways has been, a loyal Republican and believes in a United Republican farmer as well as lawyer, and prominently connected with the agricultural organizations of Somerset County, including the Grange and County Farm Bureau, Mr. Miller is in close sympathy with the farming interests and well fitted to assist in the enactment of laws fostering the farming industry of Pennsylvania. He is also keenly appreciative of the importance of just laws for the protection and well being of the workingman, and has the assurance of the hearty support of the farm and labor vote.

Patriotic Meetings.

During the past week citizens of McConnellsburg and vicinity have had the pleasure of listening to prominent speakers in the interest of the Red Cross work and Savings Stamps drive. On Saturday evening Lieutenant Burns, a Canadian who saw four years of service at the front, was wounded and gassed and who was sent home for repairs, spoke to a full house at the Auditorium. On Sunday morning Lieutenant Burns spoke at Needmore, at Buck Valley in the afternoon, and at Warfordsburg in the evening—crowded houses in every instance.

On Monday evening the Auditorium was crowded to the limit while The Blacksmith Evangelist, Chas. H. Beard, delivered one of his inimitable addresses. Mr. Beard is a live wire and kept his audience mighty wide awake from start to finish. Mr. Beard was accompanied to town by Dr. D. E. Fisher and son Edward and the trio spent the night at Hotel Harria.
