

HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES IF YOUR BACK ACHES

Do you feel tired and "worn-out"? Are you nervous and irritable? Don't sleep well at night? Have a "dragged out" unrested feeling when you get up in the morning? Dizzy spells? Biliousness? Bad taste in the mouth, backache, pain or soreness in the loins, and abdomen? Severe distress when urinating, bloody, cloudy urine or sediment? All these indicate gravel or stones in the bladder, or that the poisonous microbes, which are always in your system, have attacked your kidneys.

You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The oil soaks gently into the walls and lining of the kidneys, and the lit- tle animal serum, which are the cause of the inflammation, are immediately attacked and chased out of your system without inconvenience or pain.

Don't ignore the "little pains and aches," especially backaches. They may be little now but there is no telling how soon a dangerous or fatal disease of which they are the forerunners may show itself. Go after the cause of that backache at once, or you may find yourself in the grip of an incurable disease.

Do not delay a minute. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In 24 hours you will feel renewed health and vigor. After you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two Capsules each day so as to keep in first-class condition, and ward off the danger of future attacks. Money refunded if they do not help you. Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand, and thus be sure of getting the genuine.—Adv.

HOW "THIRD DEGREE" WORKS

According to This Explanation, an Innocent Man Needs Have No Fear of the Ordeal.

During the trial of a murder case recently the presiding judge interrupted the testimony of a detective to ask him to define the third degree. The detective replied that, although he was familiar with the term, he was in the dark as to just what was meant by it.

The third degree, until recent years, was in the main a physical ordeal. The culprit was often struck, kicked, pinched, and otherwise roughly handled. Today the third degree has become more of a mental ordeal. The prisoner is taken in hand by several detectives, who put him through a rigorous questioning. Exasperated detectives assert that no guilty man can long stand up under a severe cross-examination, and that, on the other hand, if he be innocent, he will have no difficulty in convincing his questioners.

Business Mind.
A prominent Indianapolis banker, thinking to practice a little conservation, took five Liberty Loan colored posters home to his four-year-old son to use as playthings, telling him they were Liberty bonds. The boy, evidently inheriting some of his father's own business ability, started out in the neighborhood to sell the "bonds" for a nickel each. He succeeded promptly in selling all five, and brought the quarter to his father to buy a Thrift stamp.—Indianapolis News.

AN ATTACK OF GRIP USUALLY LEAVES KIDNEYS IN WEAKENED CONDITION

Doctors in all parts of the country have been kept busy with the epidemic of grip which has visited so many homes. The symptoms of grip this year are often very distressing and leave the system in a run-down condition, particularly the kidneys which seem to suffer most, as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to dangerous kidney troubles. Druggists report a large sale on Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, so many people say when they feel the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases of those who try it. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., offer to send a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, on receipt of ten cents, to every sufferer who requests it. A trial will convince anyone who may be in need of it. Regular medicine and large size bottles, for sale at all druggists. Be sure to mention this paper.—Adv.

He Got By

A seven-year-old in a town down South was asked by his teacher at the primary school to produce a composition upon the subject of his favorite literary work. The youngster went into executive session with himself and turned out the following succinct criticism of a well-known and popular classic:

"The book I like best is called 'Pillars of the Progress.' My mother reads this book to me every night before I go to bed. I love to hear about the Pillars. He had a hard time, but he got by."

I. Jesus Officially Presented to the Jewish Nation as King (v. 1-11).

This should not be designated the "triumphal entry," for it was only in outward appearances. The shouts were empty and meaningless. It was the promised King publicly offering himself to the nation.

1. The preparation (v. 1-6).
(1) Two disciples sent for the ass (v. 1-3).

He told them just where to go to find it, and how to answer the owner's inquiry. This shows how perfectly the Lord knows our ways. His matchless gaze beholds all that we think or do, by day or night. It also shows that God uses unlikely and insignificant things in the accomplishment of His purposes. The providing of this animal was the working out of the Divine plan according to Christ's foreknowledge.

(2) Obedience of the disciples (v. 4-6).
Without asking why, they go at his bidding. The command may have seemed strange and unreasonable, but they rendered explicit obedience. The true disciple will render full and glad obedience, no matter how strange or unreasonable the command may seem.

2. The entry into the city of Jerusalem (v. 7-10).
(1) The disciples put their garments upon the ass and set the Lord upon it (v. 7).

This act showed their recognition of him as their king (2 Kings 9:13).
(2) The multitude.

Some spread their garments in the way; others who had no garments to spare, cut down branches and strewed them in the way, which was just as acceptable to him. To give what we have and do what we can, is all that the Lord demands of us. This entry was in fulfillment of a prophecy uttered some five hundred years before (Zech. 9:9). They uttered the very cry which the prophet predicted. This is a clue to enable one to understand the prophecies which are unfulfilled as yet. If the prediction of his first coming was thus literally fulfilled, we must believe that those of his second coming will likewise be literally fulfilled. They stand or fall together. The first is established beyond a doubt; the second we should just as heartily believe. The prediction of Zechariah 14:3-11 will be just as literally fulfilled as that of Zechariah 9:9.

(3) The Lord's action (v. 10).
Upon entering the Temple, he looked around upon all things; but as it was eventide he withdrew to Bethany with the twelve.

II. Jesus Exercising His Royal Authority (v. 12-19).

1. The barren fig tree cursed (v. 12-14). The fig tree is typical of the Jewish nation. The fruit normally appears on the fig tree ahead of the leaves. The presence of leaves is the assurance of fruit. This was an acted parable of the Lord's judgment on Israel for pretension of being the chosen people without the fruits thereof. It indicated the spiritual state of the Jews.

2. The Temple cleansed (v. 15-19).
For the various sacrifices in the Temple, many oxen, sheep and doves were needed. Many persons came from the distant parts of the land; therefore it was impracticable for them to bring their sacrifices with them, so they brought money and bought the animals needed. This privilege the Lord had granted to them (Deut. 14:24-26), for the exchange was necessary. When evil men used it as an opportunity for gain, it became an offense before God. It defiled his house. He made himself a scourge of cords, and drove out the money changers, overthrowing their tables and pouring out their money. By this act he declared himself to be the Lord of the Temple and one with God. That which God intended to be a house of prayer for all nations was being made a "den of thieves."

III. Jesus' Authority Challenged (v. 20-23).

They challenged him to show by what authority he accepted the honors of the Messiah, and who gave him the authority to cast out the money-changers. This placed Jesus in a dilemma. He responded by a question which placed them in a counter-dilemma.

Since John was his forerunner, the divinity of his mission rested upon that of John. They were powerless to discuss John, because the people accepted John as such. If they had accepted John's message, they would have been prepared to accept his. They cowardly confessed that they did not know. The agnostic is always a coward. These rulers had no affection for Jesus, so they rejected him and sought to destroy him. It is the same today. The reason men reject Jesus is not because of intellectual difficulties, but because of the lack of affection for him. Not desiring him, they profess their inability to understand.

Forgiven in Heaven and On Earth

By REV. L. W. GOSNELL, Assistant Dean, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

TEXT—Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.—Matthew 6:12.

Our "debts" are our duties left undone. In connection with this prayer Matthew uses the word "trespasses" which conveys the idea of failure when we should have stood upright. However, Luke in his record of the prayer uses the word "sins" and this covers both our debts and our trespasses. Hence, the petition is one for forgiveness of sins.

We are so accustomed to hear of God's forgiveness that we take it for granted. However, Bishop Westcott has said that it is an amazing thing that a holy God forgives sin; he is not surprised to hear that the wrath of such a God burns to the lowest hell against sinners, but that he has found a way to be just as yet to justify the ungodly is the very mystery of the Gospel. And when God forgives he does it fully and freely; he blots out our sins, remembers them no more, casts them behind his back, buries them in the sea.

Martin Luther's Experience.

There are many, even among professing Christians who do not enjoy a true sense of the forgiving love of God. For them, the experience of Martin Luther may be helpful. While still a monk he would exclaim, "O my sin! O my sin!" As he lay one day on a couch in despair an old monk repeated softly the words of the creed, "I believe in the forgiveness of sins," and added, "We are not merely to believe that there is forgiveness for David and Peter; the command of God is that we believe that there is forgiveness for our own sins." And Luther was led to exclaim with joy, "I believe in the forgiveness of sins, of my sins."

This prayer for forgiveness is to be uttered daily by the child of God. All are included in "us." Some have thought they no longer needed to pray this prayer, because of their attainments in grace. We suspect they are lacking in that deep view of sin which the Scriptures give us. "If we say we have no sin we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us" (1 John 1:8).

Necessity of Forgiving Others.

The petition contains a clause over which some have stumbled, "as we forgive" or "have forgiven" (R. V.). It is pointed out that this is legal ground, and that no reference is made to the atonement and that the prayer was given before the cross and hence should not be offered by Christians. We believe this objection rests on a misapprehension. Men have never been forgiven on the ground of having forgiven others, but on account of the shedding of Christ's blood and this has been true from the days of Abel. "As" does not mean "on the ground" or "in the measure" but "even as" or "since." With reference to the prayer having been given before the cross so also was the Lord's supper, but no one would argue that the supper is therefore obsolete.

An Indian's Forgiveness.

Dr. Egerton R. Young, an honored missionary among the Indians of the North, tells of once reading the Lord's prayer to a company of warriors. When he came to "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive them that trespass against us," a chief asked, "What does that mean?" Said Doctor Young, "That means you will have to stop looking for scalps!" "If that is your religion," replied the Indian, "take it to the old women," and for years he refused to listen to the Gospel.

ON GUARD

At this time of the year people feel weak, tired, listless, their blood is thin, they have lived indoors and perhaps expended all their mental and bodily energy and they want to know how to renew their energy and stamina, overcome headaches and backaches, have clear eyes, a smooth, ruddy skin, and feel the exhilaration of real good health tingling thru their body. Good, pure, rich, red blood is the best insurance against ills of all kinds. Almost all diseases come from impure and impoverished blood. It is to be noticed in the pale or pinny face, the tired, haggard appearance or the listless manner.

HAD HEARD THAT QUESTION

Patriotic Woman Didn't Know She Was Addressing the Highest Official of the State.

One of our city's woman's clubs has a booth in the Columbia club, where a group of the clubwomen have been selling Liberty bonds all week. Friday one of these women approached a man who was passing the booth, and put her usual question to him:

"Do you want to buy any more Liberty bonds?"

"No," answered the man decisively. To the woman's ear there was a pronounced sharpness in his reply.

"Ah," she said, taking a step nearer, "are you aware that the government is anxious to know the reason back of anyone's decided refusal to buy Liberty bonds?"

The man threw his head back and laughed long and heartily. A group of men standing near, who had witnessed the incident, joined in the laughter.

"That's a good one on you, governor," exclaimed one of the group who happened to know that the man addressed had bought many Liberty bonds.

"It is, indeed," the man responded, "and I want to say right now that this spirit of alertness is just what we need everywhere, and I'm mighty glad to have come in contact with it," and Governor Goodrich bowed himself out.—Indianapolis News.

The girl cast admiring glances at the attractively uniformed "Kiltie" much to the displeasure of her slacker escort.
